THE MORGAN GARDNER BULKELEY HIGH SCHOOL

Preface

*A*S our senior year at Bulkeley draws to a close, the four years of joys and sorrows that we have shared together fade into unforgettable memories of our high school days. In our minds will linger the numerous club activities in which we participated, the faithful work of our athletic teams, and the many friends we acquired. In order that we may recall them more vividly we have prepared for you the Senior Class Book. Before leaving, we wish to express our appreciation to Miss Potter, Mr. Hart, Miss Alma Plumb, Miss Anderson, the Typing and the Art Staffs, and to all those who have assisted us so graciously in completing this Class Book.

Our paths will vary as we depart from the portals of "dear old Bulkeley High," but we, the largest class ever to graduate from this school, unite in extending our sincerest thanks and appreciation to Dr. Feingold, Miss Dargan, and the Faculty for the excellent foundation and guidance that we have received.

Our Principal's Message

Every generation has its problems, but those which face the youth of this generation must seem to some of them, at least, to be far more perplexing than any which confronted their elders. The reason is that the problems of today constitute a challenge, not only to ambition and endurance, but to the very fiber of the soul. The two vital problems which confront young Americans today are those of making a career for themselves and preserving the cherished liberties of the country. Frankly, the prospects of earning a living do not seem to be as bright just now as they were several decades ago when international relations were friendlier, when the flow of commerce was freer, and productivity was on the upward swing. Furthermore, for the first time in centuries, a conflict in political doctrine has broken out in which human rights, human liberty, and human dignity are seriously being threatened.

It is expected that the younger generation, however, will steel itself and go forward fully determined to make life, liberty, and happiness more abundant for all. These are the cherished fruits which the fathers have won through strife and struggle and which youth is expected to preserve for all time.

Up to the present you have observed the operation of human ideals largely in historical and imaginary situations. From now on, however, you will be expected to put these ideals into operation in real, concrete situations. It is my hope that your courage will never allow you to falter in the application of the principles of right, justice, mercy, and kindness in all your dealings with human beings at all times and in all places.

CARMINE THOMAS ABBRUZESE
"Carm"

"Devout, yet cheerful; active yet resigned."

Never tardy. Burr Junior High School.

Carm's most cherished ambition during his senior year seems to have been to finish his Chem "lab" experiments in one period. We have Mr. Weaver's assurance that he did actually achieve his ambition—once or twice.

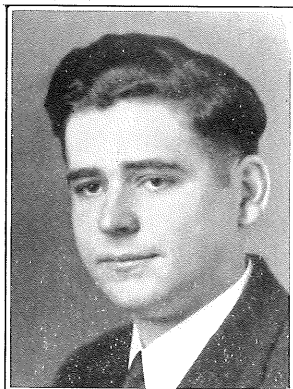

ROSEMARY KATHERINE ADAJIAN
"Mary"

"Wise to resolve, and patient to perform."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Girls' League 1, 2, 3, 4; Commercial Club 4, Vice-President; French Club 3, 4, President 4; Honor Society 4. Never tardy; no demerits. Washington Street School.

Rosemary has been one of the best-dressed girls in our class. The French students envy her for her skill in mastering the language.

WILLIAM THOMAS AHERN

"The strength of twenty men."

Never tardy. Southwest School.

It was a break for Bulkeley's football opponents when William didn't turn out for the squad in his senior year. He displayed fine power and strength at football in his earlier school career.

LUCY ANTOINETTE ALBANI
"Toni"

"Friendship is a sheltering tree."

Girls' League 2, 3; Glee Club 1; Dramatic Club 1. No demerits. Burr Junior High School.

"Toni" is perhaps the smallest girl in our class, but this did not lessen her great choice of friends. Her kindness and generosity combined to help all her classmates.

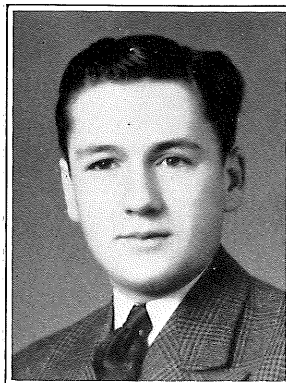

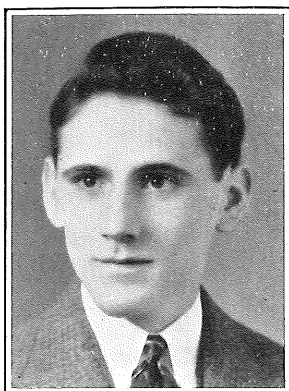

NORMAN ADELBERT ALDRICH
"Norm"

"There are some silent people who are more interesting than the best talkers."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Boys' Club 1, 2, 3, 4. Southwest School. Parks Air College.

Norman is a boy of few words, but we have a feeling that what he does say means something. We think his lofty ideals and high character traits are synonymous with his ambition to be an aviator.

WILLIAM HALSTEAD ALDRIDGE
"Bill"

"There is honesty, manhood, and good fellowship in thee."

A. A. 1, 3; Boys' Club 1, 2. Southwest School.

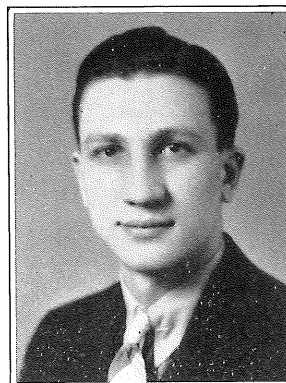

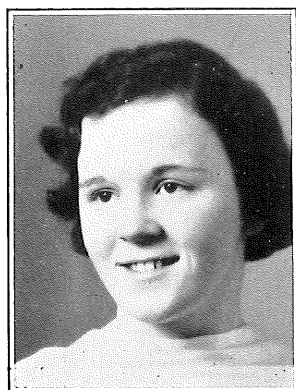

Even though not active in extra-curricular activities, Will was one of the most enthusiastic members of the Boys' Choir. His dry humor, unexpectedly presented, was a surprise to any gathering.

SALVATORE JOSEPH ALLEGRA
"Sal"

"Gentle of speech, beneficent of mind."

Boys' Glee Club 3, 4; Upper Class Choir 3, 4; History-Civics Club 3, 4, President 4. No demerits. Burr Junior High School. Morse Business College.

"Tardy," we are quite certain, will succeed as a super-salesman, no matter what line he chooses to pursue. Gifted with an attractive smile, a quick wit, and a loquacious tendency, he provided many happy moments for Bulkeley pupils.

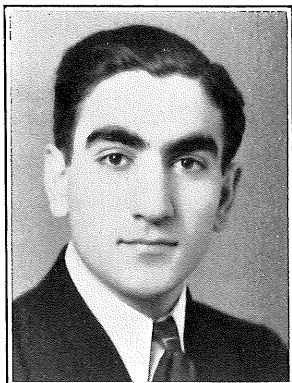

CONSTANCE ELIZABETH ALLEN
"Rusty"

"A tender heart; a will inflexible."

A. A. 2, 3; Girls' League 2, 4; Girls' Swimming Club 2, 3, 4. No demerits. Burr Junior High School.

Connie is a lively red-headed girl who has a jolly word to pep up any meeting. She has been active in girls' sports and is an asset to any team.

JOSEPH VINCENT AMBRUSO
"Joe"

"Let every man be fully persuaded in his own mind."

A. A. 1, 3; Boys' Club 1, 2, 3; Junior Glee Club 1; Boys' Glee Club 2, 3, 4. Never tardy; never absent. Washington Street School.

Joe was usually heard more than once a day in any class he was in. Both teachers and pupils expected him to air his views on all subjects under discussion.

AGNES MARGARET ANDERSON

"Silence gives assent."

O. G. A. Pin for Stenography; O. G. A. Complete Theory Certificate. St. James School.

Agnes' knowledge of business and stenography will be one of the greatest assets to her career. We all wish her the best of luck.

ELIZABETH ANN ANDERSON
"Betty"

"I have learned, in whatsoever state I am, therewith to be content."

St. James School, Manchester.

Betty may have been of a rather retiring nature, but she usually could give interesting opinions if asked. She was co-operative in every endeavor.

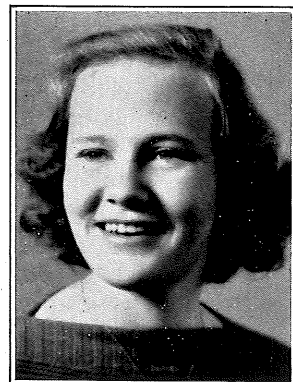

MAJA CHRISTINE ANDERSON

"Meditation is culture."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Girls' League 1, 2, 3, 4, Room Representative 1, 2, 3; Classical Club 3, 4, Fifth Member 4; Camera Club 4; Honor Society 4; Dial Editorial Board 3, 4; Girls' Leaders Corps 4. Never tardy; no demerits. Southwest School. Connecticut College for Women.

Maja is one of the more cultured members of our class. She can tell you about all the latest books and current events. More of us wish we could talk about these things as intelligently as Maja.

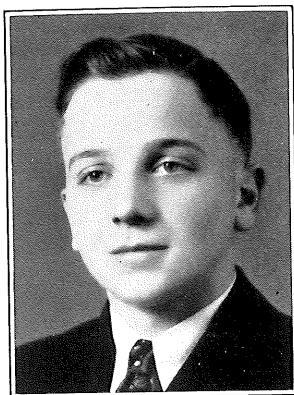

MARION GERTRUDE ANDERSON

"O Music! sphere-descended maid, Friend of Pleasure, Wisdom's aid."

Upper Class Choir 1, 2, 3, 4; Girls' Glee Club 3. Southwest School. Juilliard School of Music.

Marion was sometimes responsible for the poor sketches in the art classes; it seems the eyes of the pupils were on the wrong model.

KENNETH LIONEL ANGELO

"Ken"

"He goes far that never turns."

Stamp Club 3, 4; Boys' Club 4; Track Team 4. Never tardy. Burr Junior High School.

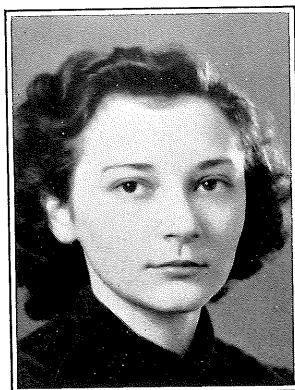

Ken is a most devout stamp collector. Like many, he finds it educational and fully rewarding for the time and money spent.

MARY LUCILLE ANTONUCCI

"I regret often that I have spoken, never that I have been silent."

Burr Junior High School.

Although one of the few red-headed girls in our class, Mary was not inclined to the supposed temper. Instead she had a sweet disposition and many interests outside of school.

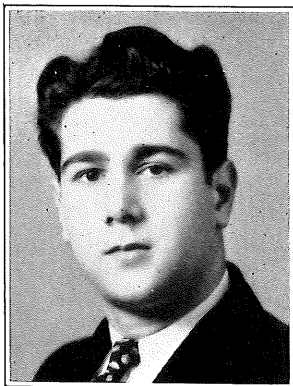

MADELINE ESTELLE ARCIERI

"Nothing can constitute good breeding that has not good nature for its foundation."

Girls' Swimming Club 4. No demerits. Burr Junior High School.

Madeline was ever a good-natured and friendly girl who always had a group of friends surrounding her in the corridors. Her Tuesdays were devoted to the Swimming Club, of which she was an active and noteworthy member.

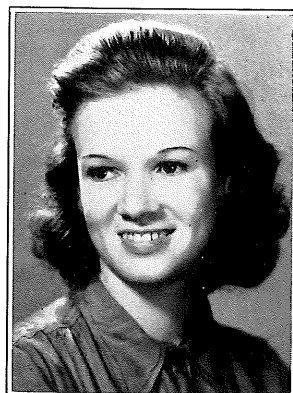

BENNIE ANTHONY ARMENTANO
"Ben"

"A man upright and energetic."

Burr Junior High School.

We shall always remember Ben for the incessant changing of his seat in Mr. Coburn's class. His energetic spirit should provide plenty of "steam" for some business.

SHIRLEY LOUISE ATWELL
"Red"

"Her ways are ways of pleasantness."

A. A. 1; Girls' League 1, 2. Weaver High School.

"Red" was always a very carefree person and seemed cheerful and smiling. Her temper certainly was not the usual one to complement her attractive red hair.

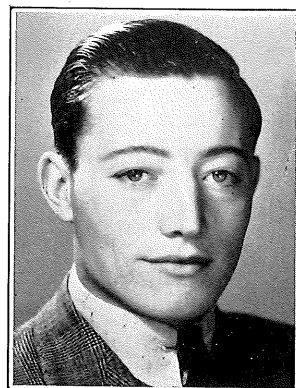

CORA BELLE BABCOCK

"Few things are impossible to diligence and skill."

Girls' League 4; Girls' Glee Club 3, 4; Upper Class Choir 3, 4. No demerits. Hartford Public High School. Lincoln School for Nurses.

Cora is a hard-working girl who enjoys classical music. She is very cheerful and capable of providing many happy moments wherever she goes.

EDWARD ARTHUR BACHAND
"Chub"

"Such strength as a man has he should use."

A. A. 3, 4; Boys' Club 3, 4; Track 2, Letter 2; Baseball 3, Letter 3; Football 3, 4, Letter 3, 4. Washington Street School.

"Chub" has diligently pursued athletics, in which he has acquired great success. He is a real "man of men" in and out of school.

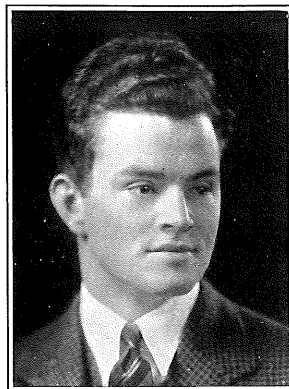

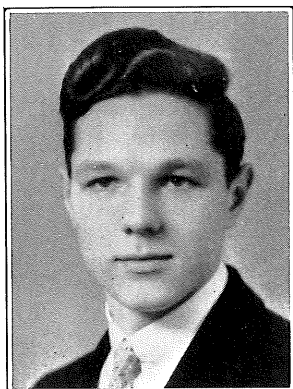

DAVID CARBERRY BAGLEY
"Red"

"Handsome is that handsome does."

A. A. 4; Boys' Club 4. Never tardy; no demerits. St. Thomas Seminary. University of Notre Dame.

David didn't enter high school with our class, but he was immediately noticed for his good looks and very attractive clothes. His red hair and manly physique have attracted many admirers.

WALTER CHARLES BAK
"Walt"

"Zealous, yet modest; innocent though free."

A. A. 2, 3; Boys' Club 3, 4. Burr Junior High School.

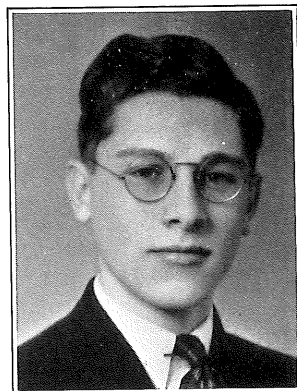

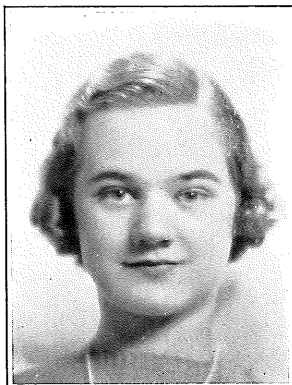

Walt was always taciturn and dreamy-looking; consequently we don't know whether to attribute his silence to deep thought or to innate modesty.

PAUL LATHROP BARNARD

"True dignity abides with him alone."

A. A. 4; Boys' Club 1, 2, 3; Orchestra 2, 3, 4; Parnassus 4; Mathematics Club 4; Biology Club 2, 3, 4, Secretary 4. Southwest School. Trinity College.

Paul is known as a co-operative, hard-working student who is as friendly as he is quiet. His devotion to his studies has resulted in a desire for advanced learning. We wish you a lot of luck in college next fall, Paul.

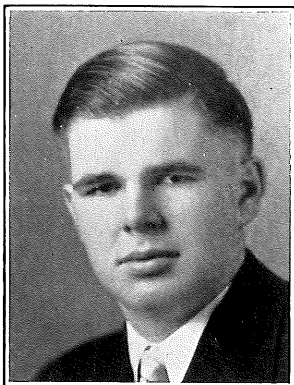

HOPE BARTON
"Hopie"

"Thou hast art at will."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Girls' League 4, Room Representative 4; Honor Society 4; Student Council 1, 2, 3; Orchestra 2, 3, 4; Inter-High School Orchestra 2, 3, 4; Girls' Leaders Corps 3, 4; Art Club 2, 3, 4, Secretary 4. Never tardy; no demerits. Southwest School. Middlebury College.

Hope carrying her 'cello around school is a familiar sight to all of us. With her 'cello she has entertained us many times, as well as by her witty sayings.

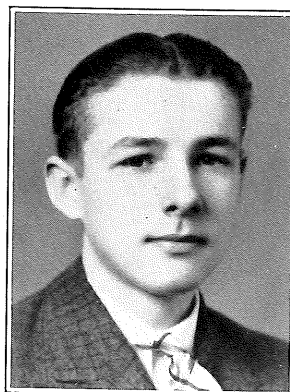

THOMAS MICHAEL BEAKEY
"Streaky"

"Joking and humor are pleasant."

Boys' Club 1, 2, 4; Legislative Club 4. St. Augustine's School. Connecticut State College.

"Streaky" had an unusual sense of humor which enlivened his views, volubly presented, especially in mathematics. Revolutionary ideas on solving problems could be expected from him at any time.

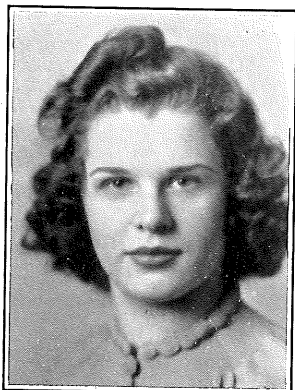

WILLIAM JAMES BERMINGHAM
"Bim"

"A gentleman makes no noise."

A. A. 1, 2, 3; Boys' Club 1. Never tardy; no demerits. St. Augustine's School.

"Bim" brings with him an air of congeniality wherever he goes. His quietness is not due to his lack of ability, but to his modesty.

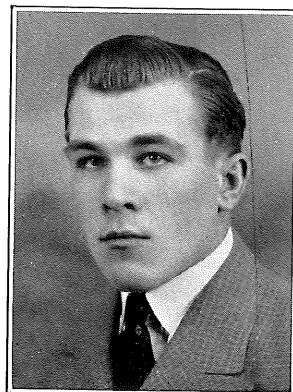

JEANETTE ANN BIELONKO

"And there is a smile of smiles."

A. A. 2, 3; Girls' League 2, 3; Commercial Club 4; French Club 4. Never tardy; no demerits. Burr Junior High School.

Jeanette is the girl with the beautiful smile, which always breaks out even in the face of adversities. Her good cheer was so contagious that all her friends were affected by it.

ALBERT ALBEN BIGELOW
"Al"

"He that speaks sows, and he that holds his peace gathers."

Student Council 1. Never tardy; no demerits. Chauncey Harris School.

Al didn't play a big part in school life, for his outside activities took up most of his time. Behind his quiet exterior there are characteristics that assure his success.

DOROTHY MAE BLESSO
"Dotty"

"Knowledge is like money—the more a man gets, the more he craves."

Stamp Club 1; Tennis Club 3; Volley Ball 2. No demerits. Burr Junior High School.

Small and vivacious, Dot has gained a great army of friends while in Bulkeley. The old saying, "Big surprises come in small packages," describes her perfectly.

RUTH EMILY BLISS
"Ruthie"

"A soft answer turneth away wrath."

Girls' League 3, 4, Room Representative 3; Girls' Leaders Corps 3; Junior Glee Club 3, 4; A Cappella Choir 4; Upper Class Choir 2, 3, 4; Torch Board 2, 3, 4; Mathematics Club 4; Pin and Ring Committee 4. Never tardy; no demerits. Washington Street School. Miss Marchant's Secretarial School.

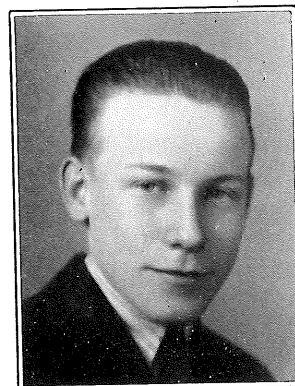

We can't help admiring Ruth's industry. In spite of her desire for knowledge, she has found time for a social career.

JOHN THOMAS BOGAN
"Shorty"

"A friend is known in necessity."

Legislative Club 3, 4; Torch 2, 3. William Hall High School.

What John lacked in height he made up for in personality. He is a conscientious student as well as an obliging friend.

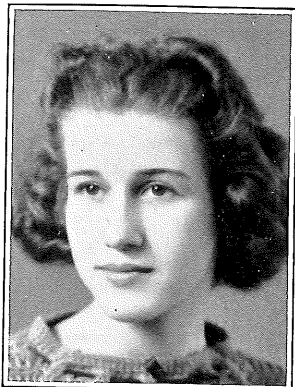

MARIE FRANCES BONAIUTO
"Mae"

"Witty, courteous, full of spirit."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Girls' League 4; Commercial Club 3, 4; Torch Board 3; Junior Red Cross Club 4. Burr Junior High School.

Marie has a number of varied interests such as music, typing, and photography. Her spare moments are spent developing her own pictures. Not only this but Marie has the personality and character that makes a real friend.

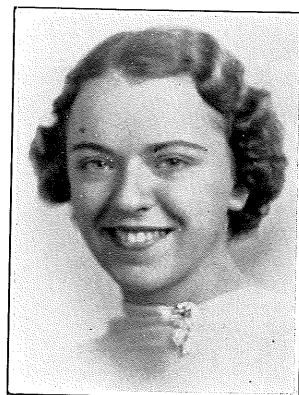

ANNA THERESA BORAWSKA
"Spike"

"Good-humor only teaches charms to last."

A. A. 4; Girls' League 2, 3, 4, Room Representative 2, 4; Commercial Club 3, 4, Secretary 4; History-Civics Club 3, 4, Secretary 4; Dramatic Club 1; Torch Board 3; Girls' Leaders Corps 4; Kickball 3, 4; Volley Ball 3. Never tardy; no demerits. Burr Junior High School. Morse Business College.

We expect to see Anna prominent in the world of sports some day. In addition to being a fine athlete, she has been popular with both boys and girls.

ROSE DOROTHY BORIN

"Patience is the best remedy for every trouble."

A. A. 2, 3, 4; Girls' League 2, 3, 4; Camera Club 4; Commercial Club 4; Swimming Club 3, 4; Torch Business Board 4. Never tardy; no demerits. Burr Junior High School. Business College.

Rose's constant work of typing for the Class Book showed her generosity and willingness to work. Surely she will decrease anybody's worries by her own practicality.

GENERO BOTTICELLO
"Jin"

"Self-reverence, self-knowledge, self-control."

A. A. 1. Never tardy. Hartford Public High School.

"Jin" was always well versed in quietness and reserve. He did, however, become a trustworthy and loyal friend to those who knew him intimately.

DOROTHY MARGARET BOTTOMLEY
"Peggy"

"She in beauty, education, blood,
Holds hand with any princess of the world."

A. A. 3, 4; Girls' League 3, 4; Girls' Leaders Corps 4; Upper Class Choir 4; Honor Society 4; Torch Editorial Board 3, 4, Secretary 4; Commercial Club 4; Girls' Golf Club 3. Never tardy; no demerits. Wilby High School, Waterbury.

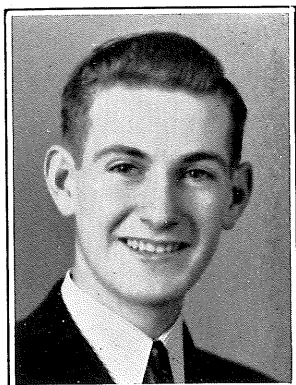

Peg seems to be a combination of mischief, sophistication, and rhythm. One of our best girl dancers, Peg was usually surrounded by a crowd of boys at all the dances.

REGINA JOSEPHINE BOUTILLIER
"Jean"

"A good disposition is far preferred to gold."
A. A. 3, 4; Girls' League 3, 4; Ni-No-Van Club 4. Never tardy; no demerits. East Hartford High School.

Jean was one of the most sincere girls in Bulkeley. If you couldn't understand your English homework, you simply located Jean, who would certainly sympathize with you.

RAY ALLEN BOUVIER
"Bolero"

"I am not in the roll of common men."

A. A. 1; Ping-Pong Club 3, 4; Art Club 2; Junior Prom Committee; Swimming Club 3, 4; Dial Board. Never tardy. Washington Street School. Pratt Institute.

One of the beaux of our class, Ray seemed to set the men's styles as well as the latest dance steps.

SHIRLEY OLIVE BRADLEY
"Shirl"

"Scream as we may at the bad, the good prevails."

A. A. 3, 4; Girls' League 4; Girls' Swimming Club 3, 4; Commercial Club 4; Complete Theory Award; Sixty-Word Gregg Transcription; Eighty-Word Gregg Transcription Award. Never tardy; no demerits. Burr Junior High School.

Shirley was one of the few girls able to win awards for speed and accuracy in transcribing shorthand. This, combined with her ever-present responsiveness, will help her go far in the business world.

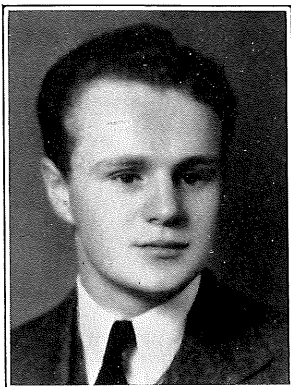

ELEANOR MAE BRANSFIELD

"No gems, no gold she needs to wear;
She shines intrinsically fair."

Girls' League 1, 2, 3, 4; Junior Dramatic Club 2; Biology Club 4; French Club 4; Dial Editorial Board 3, 4; Art Club 4. No demerits. Southwest School. Pratt Institute.

We consider Eleanor a perfect model for commercial advertising. She is one of the prettiest and best-dressed girls in our class and has a fine scholastic record as well.

EDWARD WILSON BRANT
"Eddie"

"All the world is a camera—look pleasant, please."

A. A. 2, 3, 4; Boys' Club 4; Radio Club 2, 4, President 4; Edison Club 4, Fifth Member 4. Never tardy; no demerits. Burr Junior High School.

Ed has one of the most persistently cheerful and friendly faces around Bulkeley. As for talent, he has a priceless knack for constructing model airplanes.

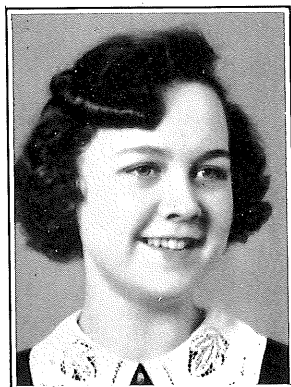

DOROTHY ROBINSON BREWER
"Dot"

"Plain without pomp, and rich without a show."

A. A. 3, 4; Girls' League 1, 2, 3, 4; Camera Club 3, Vice-President 4; History-Civics Club 4. Never tardy; no demerits. Southwest School.

We don't think Dot ever came to school a day without having all her studies done to perfection. She is a very diligent girl with a great amount of patience.

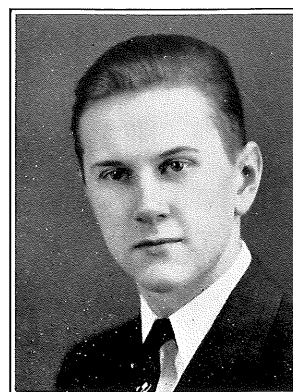

MILDRED IRMA BROANDT
"Mil"

"Worth, courage, honor, these indeed your sustenance and birthright are."

A. A. 2, 3; Girls' League 2; Agora 2; Ni-No-Van 3, 4, President 4; Girls' Biology Club 3, 4; Upper Class Choir 2, 3, 4; Swimming Club 4; Camera Club 4; Honor Society 4; Room Treasurer; Student Council 2; Girls' League Room Representative 2. Never tardy; no demerits. Burr Junior High School. Hartford Hospital Training School.

Mildred's shining personality has been one of the factors which have made her an outstanding member of our class both in scholarship and extra-curricular activities. She will surely prove capable in her future work.

RICHARD HARRY BROWN
"Dick"

"There is no truer truth obtainable
By Man than comes of music."

A. A. 1, 2, 4; Boys' Club 1, 2, 3; Junior Glee Club 1; Senior Boys' Glee Club 2, 3, 4, President 4; Senior Choir 2, 3, 4; A Cappella Choir 3, 4; Honor Society 4. No demerits. Washington Street School.

Richard's tall, handsome figure has won for him the admiration of many of the girls around school. And, girls, did you ever hear him sing? We hope to hear you over the loud speaker some of these days, Richard.

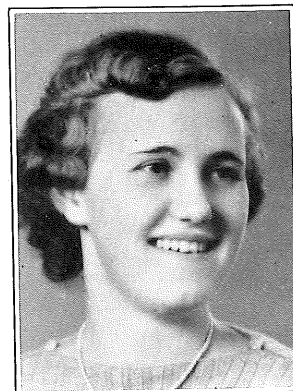

LILLIAN DORIS BUCK
"Buckie"

"She is a gallant creature, and complete in mind and feature."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Girls' League 1, 2, 3, 4; Ni-No-Van Club 3, 4; Swimming Club 3, 4; Honorable Mention in Sewing Contest. Never tardy; no demerits. Southwest School. Connecticut State College.

Doris may have seemed to be the sweet, unsophisticated type in school, but ask her about her host of followers during the summer! At that season she burst forth into a sparkling personality.

JULIA MAE BUCKLAND
"Ginger"

"Rich in good works."

A. A. 1, 2, 3; Girls' League 1, 2, 4; Commercial Club 4. No demerits; never tardy. St. Peter's School. Weylister College.

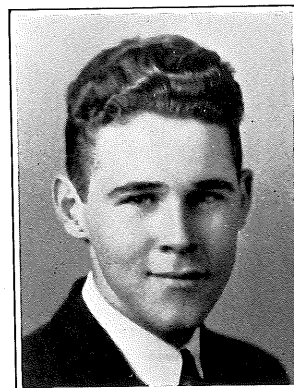

Julia is a probable runner up for "Most Sophisticated Girl." She is quiet, well-dressed, and has an abundance of enviable poise. These qualities should help her on life's road.

RICHARD MICHAEL BURKE
"Ace"

"A merry heart maketh a cheerful countenance."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Boys' Club 1, 2, 3, 4; Glee Club 2, 3, 4. Washington Street School. Northwestern University.

"Ace" is one of those boys who could always be depended on to do the right thing at the right time. He also had a way with the girls in our class.

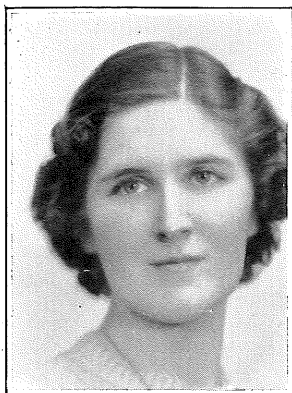

GERTRUDE ANN BURR
"Trudy"

"Modesty is not only an ornament but also a guard to virtue."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Girls' League 1, 2, 3, 4. Never tardy. Washington Street School.

Modest about her attributes, "Trudy" was one of the best dancers in the senior class. Her glowing smile and unaffected sincerity won her many true and lasting friendships.

MILDRED IRENE BURR
"Mil"

"So she poured out the liquid music of her voice to quench the thirst of his spirit."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Girls' League 1, 2, 3, 4; Upper Class Choir 3, 4; Glee Club 2, 3, 4. Never tardy; no demerits. Burr Junior High School.

As a singer Mildred was one of the finest, and her constant participation in the Girls' Glee Club illustrates this. No operetta or concert was complete without her.

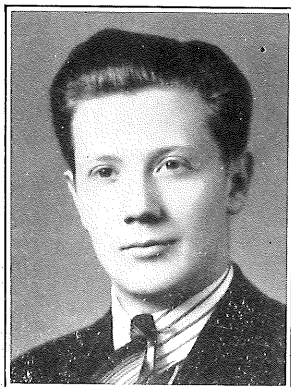

DOROTHY JOSEPHINE BUTLER
"Dot"

"In skating over thin ice our safety is in our speed."

A. A. 3; Girls' Swimming Club 4; Girls' Golf Club 3. Burr Junior High School.

Dot was pretty keen about ice-skating. Well, we all admit that skating is a way to work off steam.

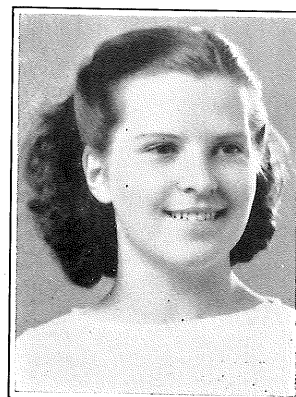

WILLIAM ANTHONY BUTLER
"Bill"

"It is better to have one friend of great value than many friends who were good for nothing."

Boys' Club 1, 2, 3, 4; A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Parnassus Club 3, 4; Freshman Football; Football 3; Track 3. Naylor School. Fordham University.

Bill has a gift for conversation and a willingness to help his friends in trouble. These are invaluable assets to his popularity.

MARY AGNES BYSTROSKA

"With modest dignity and calm content."

Ping-Pong Club 4. Hartford Public High School.

Mary has become one of our best ping-pong players, but she ought not to have kept her skill to herself until her last year in school.

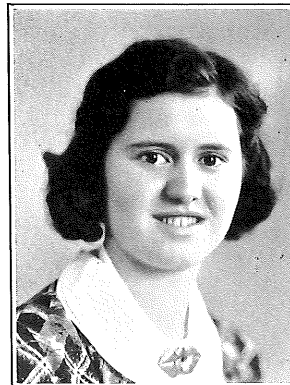

CONCETTINA CALABRO
"Tina"

"She traveled here, she traveled there."

Girls' League 1, 2, 3, 4. Kinsella School.

Tina with her love of travel has been fortunate enough to spend a year in Europe. Her ability in typing and shorthand will win for her a reputable job.

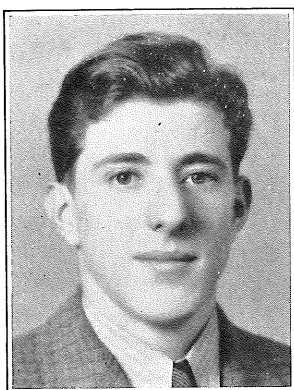

LEON JOSEPH CALANO
"Leo"

"Whosoever hath a good presence and a good fashion carries continual letters of recommendation."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Boys' Club 1, 2, 3, 4; Football 3, 4. Washington Street School. Massachusetts Institute of Technology.

Leo has a professor-like attitude of listening to any sort of technical explanation. This in itself should be a help for M. I. T.

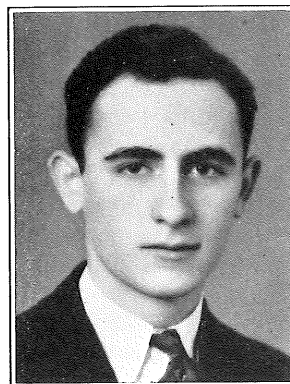

MARINO CAMARCO
"Beans"

"Only the wise possess ideas."

Biological Repertory 3, Vice-President 3; Edison Club 4; Mathematics Club 4. Never tardy; no demerits. Southwest School. Pratt Institute.

Marino always had very definite ideas about his subjects, and never failed to make his views known to the rest of the class, regardless of how unusual they might be.

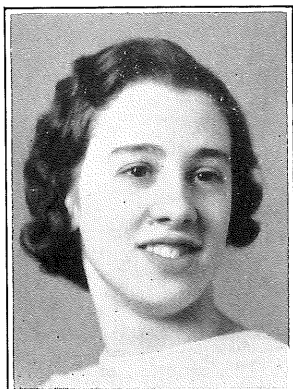

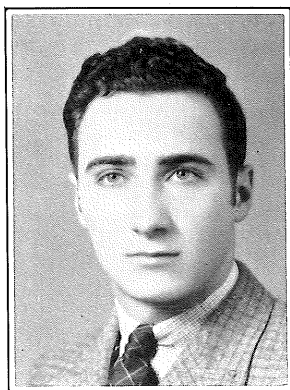

MARY ANNE CAMILLERI

"Earnestness and sincerity are synonymous."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Girls' League 1, 2, 3, 4; Commercial Club 3, 4, Treasurer 4; Girls' Glee Club 1. Never tardy; no demerits. Burr Junior High School.

Mary's ambition in life is to secure a good position in which she will have a chance for advancement. She enjoys tennis, music, and reading. Her worthwhile ambition seems to reflect a fine character.

HARRY VERNON CAMMEYER
"Chief"

"A moral, sensible, and well-bred man."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Football 3. Never tardy. Southwest School. University of Southern California.

Here is the answer to some maiden's prayer. Strong, silent, and forceful, he could easily qualify for any position.

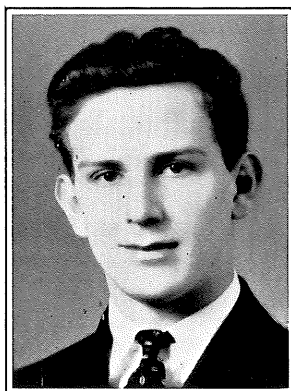

MILDRED MARY CAMPBELL
"Mil"

"Sincerity, truth, faithfulness, come into the very essence of friendship."

A. A. 2, 3, 4; Girls' League 2, 3, 4; Upper Class Choir 2, 3, 4; Junior Red Cross 4. Never tardy; no demerits. Burr Junior High School. Hartford Hospital Training School for Nurses.

Mil is another one of our girls interested in all kinds of sports. She hopes to enter the nursing profession and we wish her the best of luck.

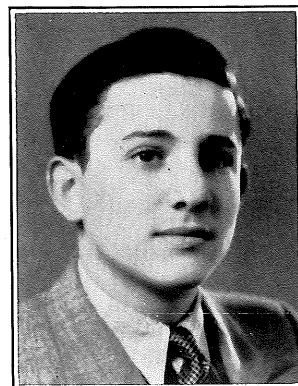

WILLIAM KENNETH CAMPION
"Ken"

"Frame your mind to mirth and merriment
Which bars a thousand harms and lengthens life."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Parnassus 3, 4; Art Club 3, 4. Washington Street School.

Kennie was full of mischief from toe to tip top. One could easily depend on his being the nucleus of many disturbances—or was it just school boy exuberance?

ROCCO CHARLES CAPOBIANCO
"Capy"

"What is valuable is not new, and what is new is not valuable."

Boys' Club 3; Ping-Pong Club 2; Boys' Swimming Club 4. Burr Junior High School.

"Capy" was one of the most sincere friends of anyone we know. Anything which concerned them was his concern also. But he never overdid it; he wore well and was a welcome sight in the corridor and on the street.

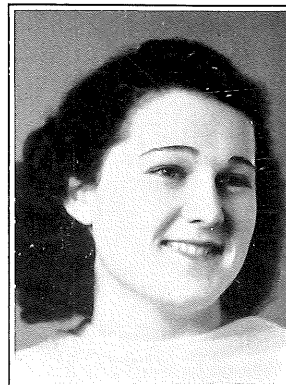

CARMELA IMALDA CAPPE
"Carm"

"Without consistency there is no moral strength."

A. A. 4; Girls' League 4; Commercial Club 3, 4; Torch Typing Staff 4. Never tardy; no demerits. Burr Junior High School.

Carmela, with her typing skill and accuracy, should make much progress when she leaves Bulkeley. The steadiness with which she works will also be an asset for her future life.

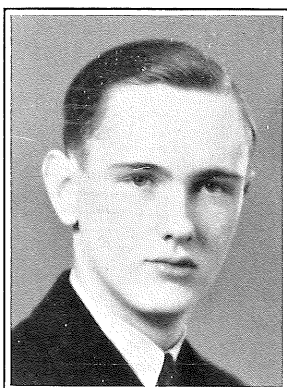

ROY ALFRED CARCAUD
"Deadpan"

"A passion for the dramatic heart is inherent in the nature of man."

Junior Dramatic Club 2; Senior Dramatic Club 3, 4. Never absent; never tardy. Burr Junior High School.

Roy was always doing one of two things, either practicing for a Dramatic Club play, in which he was, naturally enough, a gentleman, whether "Nellie Was a Lady" or not, or stealing some palpitating heart away from an unaware lassie.

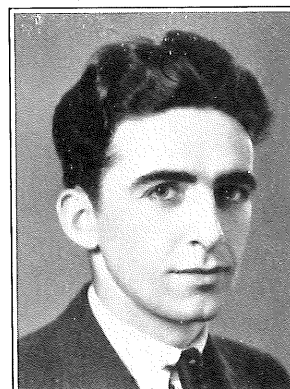

JOHN FRANCIS CAREY
"Jack"

"A fresh, a free, a friendly man."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Boys' Club 1, 2, 3, 4; Football Squad 2, 3, 4, Letter 3, 4. Never tardy. St. Peter's School. University of Southern California.

John tried hard to equal the proverbial Bluebeard with his after-school tales. Under this veneer, he was really friendly and considerate to all.

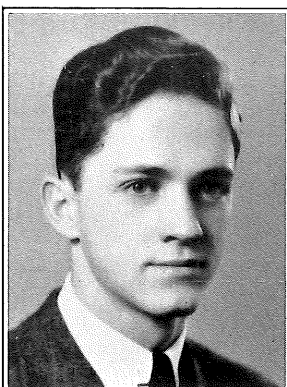

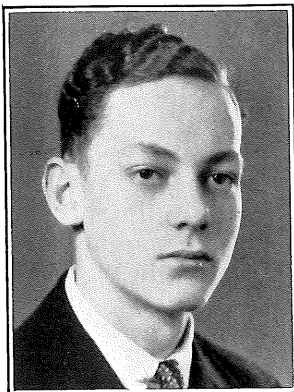

JOHN MERWIN CAREY
"Jack"

"A student beloved, a student elect of students."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Boys' Club 4; Edison Club 4; Chess Club 4; Editorial Board of Class Book; Boys' Swimming Club; Junior Usher; Upper Class Choir 1, 2, 3, 4; Junior Dramatic Club 1, 2, President 2; Student Council 1, 2, 3, 4; Honor Society 4; Boys' Glee Club 2, 3, 4, President 4; A Cappella Choir 4; Golf Team 2, 3, 4; Intramural Basketball 3. Southwest School. Trinity.

Jack's dignity and bearing made him appear to be aloof, but instead he possessed a warm and friendly nature. Good sportsmanship was one of his outstanding traits which won him an abundance of friends.

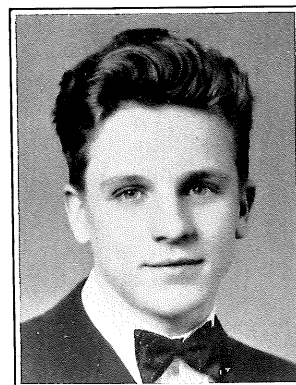

EDWARD CARL CARLSON
"Ed"

"We are all good fellows together."

A. A. 2, 3, 4; Swimming Club 2. Burr Junior High School.
Ed never seemed to have very much to do with the girls, but had more fun running his well-known Ford—or was it?

RICHARD ALFRED CARLSON
"Dick"

"His hair is of a good color:
An excellent color."

A. A. 1, 3, 4; Boys' Club 1, 3, 4. Washington Street School.
Connecticut State College.

Dick's shimmering blond hair and charming personality made him a prime favorite among both boys and girls. We predict a great future for him.

VICTOR IVAN CARNELLI
"Vic"

"Cheerfulness is an offshoot of goodness and of wisdom."

Biological Repertory 3, 4, Treasurer 3, 4. Southwest School.
Vic always has a smile for everyone. His cheery disposition has won him many friends.

FLORENCE ROSE CARNEY
"Flo"

"The joy of youth and health her eyes display'd,
And ease of heart her every look conveyed."

Girls' League 1, 2, 3, 4. Southwest School.

Flo had a habit of talking without end to the boys. Her constant smile is an indication of her good humor and pleasant companionship.

HELEN ANNE CAROLUS
"Honey"

"True happiness is to no spot confined."

A. A. 4. Never tardy. Hartford Public High School.

Because of Helen's winning personality, we were glad to welcome her into Bulkeley when she entered our class in her upper junior year.

EUGENE LOUIS CASALE
"Gene"

"The crest and crowning of all good."

A. A. 2, 3, 4; Boys' Club 2, 3, 4; Boys' Swimming Club 3, 4; Golf Club 4; Ping-Pong Club 3. Never absent; never tardy. Burr Junior High School.

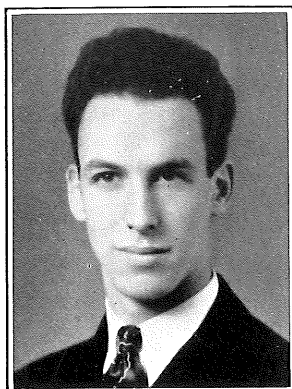

There were times when Eugene could be seen and not heard, and other times when you couldn't stop his talking. This kept him well supplied with friends who expected anything from him.

EDMUND MICHAEL CASARELLA
"Ed"

"Merrily, merrily, shall I live now."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Boys' Club 2, 3, 4; Upper Class Choir 2, 3, 4; Inter-Class Basketball. Southwest School.

Ed might have starred in basketball if he had had time after school. His sincere friendliness and generous nature were what won him friends who would do anything for him.

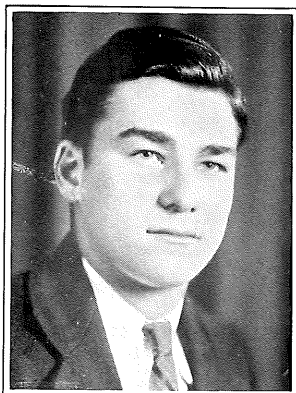

RUSSELL ELDRIDGE CASE
"Russ"

"Off with the fetters!
Off with the chains!"

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Boys' Club 1, 2; Upper Choir 2, 3, 4; Biological Repertory 3; Boys' Table Tennis Club 3; Torch Board, Mailing Manager 2, Assistant Business Manager 3, Business Manager 4; Boys' Biology Club 3, President 4; Legislative Club 3, Treasurer 4; School Band 4, Treasurer 4; School Orchestra 4. Never tardy. Southwest School. Eastman School of Music.

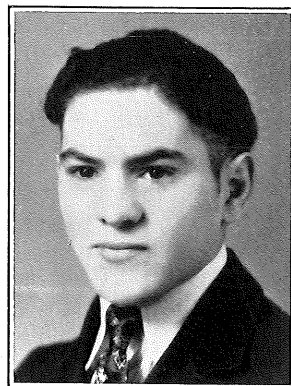

"Trumpeter" was always very prominent in school affairs. A congenial person, good-looking, a tasteful dresser, a proficient musician, and, above all, a gentleman—what more could be said about anyone?

SEBASTIAN FRANCIS CASTAGNA
"Twinny"

"Friendship's the wine of life."

Table Tennis Club 4. Burr Junior High School.
Sebastian is quiet, but outstanding because of his wide range of companions. They say "Still waters run deep."

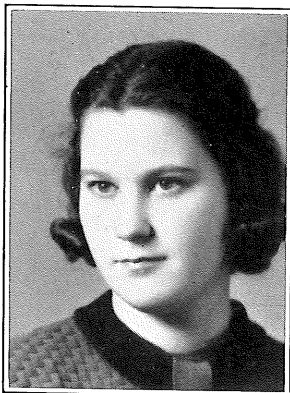

FRANK ANTHONY CASTELVETERE
"Frankie"

"Sincerity and honesty carry one through many difficulties."

Boys' Club 3. Burr Junior High School.

Frank was ever the gentleman. Trustworthiness, sincerity, and honesty were among his admirable qualities. Certainly one so equipped will succeed in any endeavor.

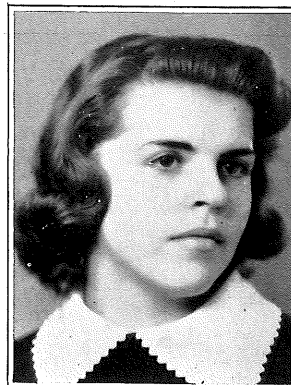

MARIE ANNETTE CASTONGUAY

"Play may be good; folly can never be of use."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Girls' League 1, 2, 3, 4; French Club 3, 4; Swimming Club 3, 4; Ni-No-Van 4; Ping-Pong Club 4; Vice-President 4; Camera Club 4; Kickball Team. Washington Street School.

Marie specialized in all feminine sports at Bulkeley. We know that she swings a mean paddle at ping-pong.

ANN KATHLEEN CAVELLIER

"On with the dance! let joy be unconfined."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Girls' League 1, 2, 3, 4, Room Representative 2, 3, 4; Girls' Swimming Club 2, 3; Girls' Leaders Corps 3, 4; Agora 2, 3, Treasurer 4; Scribblers 2, 3, 4, Vice-President 4; Room Treasurer 4; Junior Prom Committee 3; Publicity Manager of Dial 4; Editorial Board of Torch 2, 3, 4. Saint Augustine's School.

A dance never seems complete without Ann's presence. She radiates personality and never lacks an escort. We believe "you have something there," Ann.

WILLIAM ELSWORTH CHAMBERLAIN, JR.
"Bill"

"And joy, whose hand is ever at his lips, Bidding Adieu."

A. A. 3, 4; Boys' Club 4; Legislative Club 4. Naylor School.
Providence College.

Willie could easily have excelled if he had wanted to seriously enough. We sincerely hope that, whatever line he pursues, he will show everyone just how good he is. How about it, Will?

IRENE JEANNINE CHARLINSKI
"I"

"Honor is the reward of virtue."

A. A. 2; Girls' League 3; Upper Class Choir 3, 4; O. G. A. Certificate; Gregg Complete Theory. Never tardy; no demerits. Southwest School.

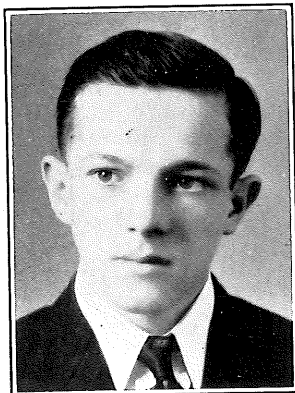

The sight of Irene's head in the midst of a group of students was often seen in the corridors. Too bad that most of her time was spent in activities outside of school.

ANNA MARY CHILONE

"Her voice was ever soft, gentle, and low."

Junior Dramatic Club. Burr Junior High School.

Ann is one of our more fortunate girls, for she is gifted with a fine voice. We predict a great future for her since we know she'll work hard.

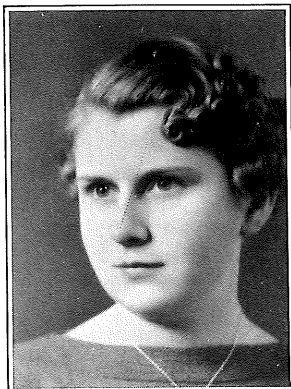

ARTHUR JOHN CHUDZIK
"Archie"

"An ounce of mirth is worth a pound of sorrow."

A. A. 2, 3, 4. Burr Junior High School.

Archie may not have been exceedingly active in school clubs but the vast number of his friends proved his popularity, for he was a "regular" fellow.

MARGUERITE HELEN CLARK

"Margie"

"Faithful friends are hard to find."

A. A. 3, 4; Girls' League 2, 3; Ni-No-Van 3. Never tardy; no demerits. Burr Junior High School.

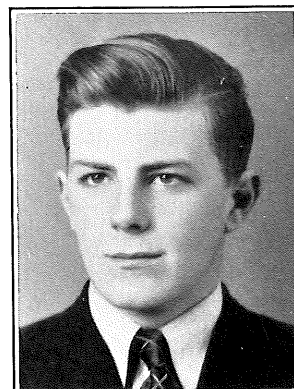

Marguerite won a following of friends because of her friendliness and willingness to talk. Besides being a good conversationalist Marguerite had hiking as a hobby.

GERARD CLARKE

"Conservatism is a very good thing."

Boys' Club 2. Washington Street School.

"Clarkie" was a very conservative person. Taking nothing seriously, he could easily be called lackadaisical. But that is too strong an epithet for one so thoroughly amiable.

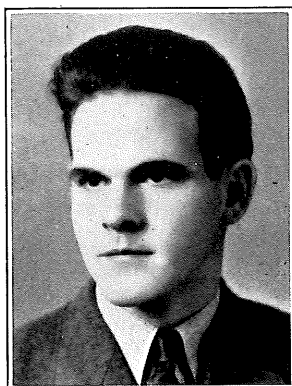

EUGENE EDWARD CLARY, JR.

"Sonny"

"Thy thoughts to nobler meditations give."

A. A. 2, 3, 4; Chess Club 2, 3, 4, Secretary 4; Radio Club 3, 4, Vice-President 4; Dial Art Staff 4; Tennis Club 3. Southwest School. Oklahoma School of Mines.

Gene could almost always be found during seventh periods in the vicinity of either the physics lab or the Radio Club room. Certainly one so interested in Technology can find a place in this technical world.

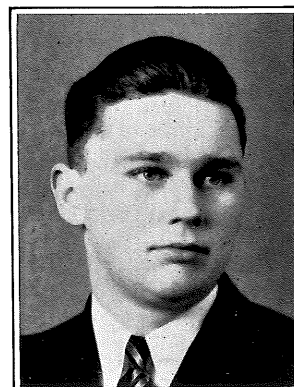

SHERWOOD CASE COBURN

"Woody"

"For to cast away a virtuous friend, I call as bad as to cast away one's own life."

Boys' Biology Club 3, 4; Honor Society 4; Radio Club. Never tardy. Burr Junior High School. Trinity College.

If we haven't before had the opportunity, we certainly have now to praise a boy who could work after school and in the evening, yet maintain his scholastic standing. We sincerely hope your versatility will serve you as long as possible, "Woody."

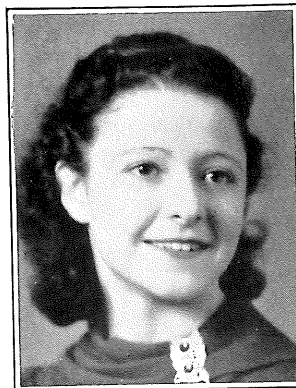

LUCY ELIZABETH CODELLA
"Lou"

"Music washes away from the soul the dust of every-day life."

Girls' League 1, 2, 3, 4; Glee Club 4. Never absent; never tardy; no demerits. Southwest School. St. Joseph College.

We expect to hear Lucy over a nation-wide hook-up one of these days. She is an accomplished singer, and has mastered the banjo very well, although she is very modest about her achievements.

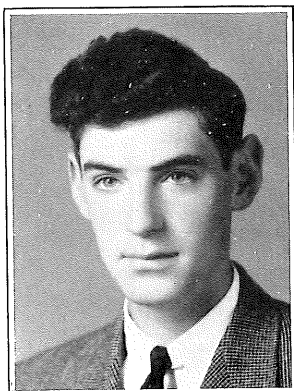

CHESTER ALBERT COLBOURNE
"Chet"

"Virtuous and wise was he, but not severe."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Biological Repertory 3, 4. Never tardy. Hartford Public High School.

Chet was the kind who always kept the class in a good humor. His interest in the biological field was evidenced in his work.

ISABELLE ELEANOR COLLETTE
"Izzy"

"The smile that was childlike and sweet."

A. A. 2, 3, 4; Girls' League 2, 3, 4. No demerits. Hartford Public High School.

"Izzy" is a faithful attendant at all the school activities and dances. Her baby smile and quiet manner will ever be remembered by our classmates.

BARBARA SHIRLEY COLLINS
"B. S."

"A silent address is the genuine eloquence of sincerity."

A. A. 3, 4; Girls' League 1, 3, 4; Torch Business Board 3; Torch Editorial Board 2, 4; Scribblers 2; Girls' Swimming Club 4; Camera Club 4; Girls' Leaders Corps 4; Agora 2, 3, 4, Secretary 4; French Club 4; Winner of Safety Essay Contest 2. Never tardy; no demerits. St. Augustine's School. St. Joseph's College.

When you think of "B. S.," you naturally visualize a golden red "page-boy" hair style. Her meek voice and artistic handwriting caused her many embarrassing situations in classes. Never despondent, only a happy-go-lucky lass—that's Barbara.

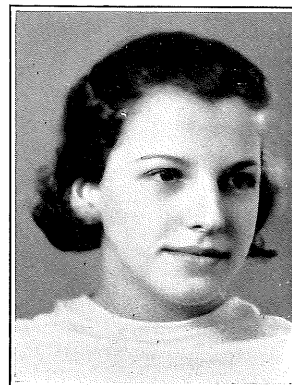

ANNE RITA CONDON
"Irish"

"There is nothing like fun, is there?"

A. A. 2, 3, 4; Girls' League 2, 3, 4, Representative 2. No demerits. Burr Junior High School. Green Mountain Junior College.

Vivacious Anne Condon was never seen around school without her bosom pal, Barbara Uskela. She was famous for what her friends called her "laughing Irish eyes."

ALICE LOUISE COOPER
"Al"

"The bow string of her spirit was not slack."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Girls' League 1, 2, 3; Junior Glee Club 1; Girls' Golf Club 3; Camera Club 4; Junior Prom Committee; Upper Class Choir 2, 3, 4; Kickball 3. Never tardy. Southwest School. Colby Junior College.

Al is never one to let down in her work. Although chemistry seemed to be her big worry this year, she enjoyed lab immensely. Alice is friendly with everyone and is considered a grand person by all who know her.

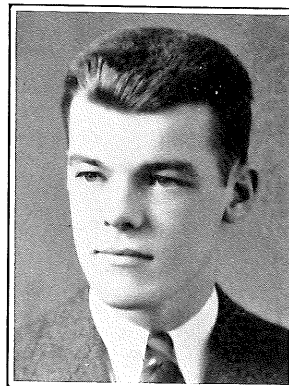

GERALDINE FRANCES CORCORAN
"Gerry"

"Never idle a moment but thrifty and thoughtful of others."

A. A. 2; Girls' League 2, 4; Girls' Swimming Club 4; History-Civics 4; Stamp Club 4. Never absent; never tardy; no demerits. Burr Junior High School. Hanover Hospital.

Gerry seemed to have quite an interest in chemistry although she didn't have very much to say in the classroom. She certainly showed originality when she won first prize for her costume at the Girls' League baby party this year.

WILLIAM DONALD COTTER
"Boake"

"Where boasting ends, there dignity begins."

A. A. 1, 2, 3; Dial Circulation Manager 1, Advertising Manager 2, Assistant Business Manager 3, Co-Business Manager 4; Legislative Club 4; French Club 4; Modern Choir 4; Student Council 2; Freshman Glee Club; Freshman Choir; Track Team 2, 3, 4, Letter 3, 4. Southwest School. Trinity College.

Even if Bill were not known for his track work and dancing ability, he would always be remembered for his "butch" and his supercilious expression.

BARBARA LAVINIA COUCH
"Babs"

"We have been friends together
In sunshine and in shade."

Girls' League 1, 2, 3, 4; Junior Dramatic Club 2; Mathematics Club 4. No demerits; never tardy. Burr Junior High School. Beaver College.

We never saw Barbara sulky or disgusted with anyone or anything. And didn't she have a mathematical mind? She surely could think out the problems.

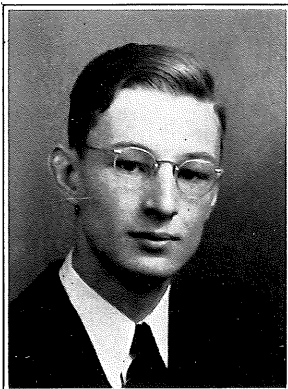

WILLIAM RICHARD COWING
"Bill"

"Art can never give the rules that make an artist."

Boys' Club 3, 4; Art Club 3, 4; Biology 3, 4; Parnassus Club 4; Art Staff of Torch 4; Art Staff of Dial 4; Honor Society 4. Never tardy. Burr Junior High School. University of Kentucky.

Bill was one of our deeper thinkers, but he could "wise-crack" with the best. Besides being known as a student, Bill was known for his ability as an artist.

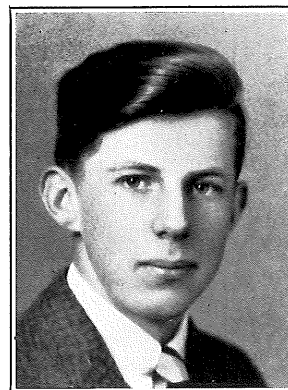

WILLIAM MICHAEL CULLINA
"Mike"

"He who seeks the mind's improvement aids the world in aiding mind."

A. A. 2, 3, 4; Boys' Club 2, 3; Parnassus Club 3, 4; Biological Repertory 2, 3; French Club 3, 4; Mathematics Club 3, 4; Second Scholarship Prize 3; Valedictorian; Honor Society 4. Never absent; never tardy; no demerits. Southwest School. Catholic University.

Though Bill was one of our finest students, his personality proved that he was not merely a grind. We shall never forget the excellence of his French performances.

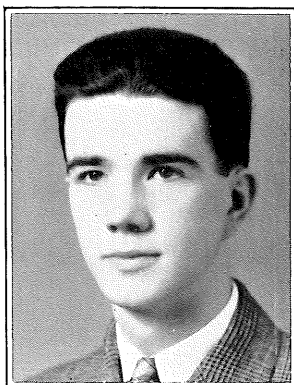

ROSE LOUISE CUMMINGS
"Ro"

"In quietness and confidence shall be your strength."

A. A. 4; Girls' League 3, 4; Junior Dramatic Club 1, Treasurer 1; Girls' Swimming Club 1. No demerits; never tardy. Burr Junior High School.

It was with a true knowledge of Ro that the class voted her the least argumentative. She also had a sense of humor that will take her a long way on the road to success.

TIMOTHY ALEXIS CURRAN
"Tim"

"The virtue lies in the struggle, not the prize."

Boys' Club 1, 2, 3; Student Council 2. St. Augustine's School.

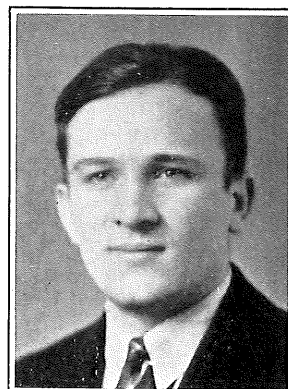

Tim certainly was on the spot when he was needed. His ready-to-help manner made him one of the most likable fellows of our class.

JOHN STANISLAUS CWIKLA
"Chick"

"Silence is a true friend who never betrays."

Boys' Club 3, 4; Upper Class Choir 4. S. S. Cyril and Methodius School.

The term "tall, tan, and terrific" can very well be applied to John. In addition to this he can be classed as the strong, silent type. He really is a gifted young man.

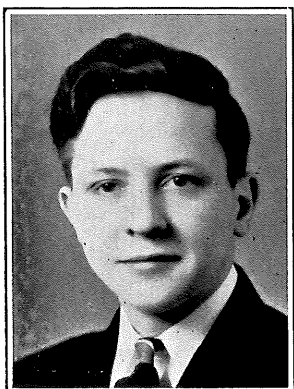

LEO JOSEPH CZARNOTA
"Lee"

"He preferred to be good, rather than to seem so."

A. A. 2, 3, 4; Boys' Club 2, 3, 4, Fifth Member 3; Chess Club 2; Edison Club 4; Honor Society 4; Biological Repertory 2, 3, 4, President 4; Track 2. No demerits. Burr Junior High School. Trinity College.

Leo was one of Bülkeley's few all-round boys. Bright in the classroom, capable on the track, and popular with the fairer sex, he was admired by teachers and pupils alike. Leo is one of our choicest bids for success.

ANNE IRENE DALY
"Rene"

"A noble type of good, heroic womanhood."

Girls' League 4; History-Civics Club 4; Kickball 3; Volley Ball 3. Never absent; never tardy. Burr Junior High School.

Rene was an outstanding athlete in the gym class. It was a pleasure to see her demonstrate on the apparatus. Then again, she was a willing worker on the Class Book typing staff.

ANGELO MICHAEL D'AMBROSIO
"Ang"

"Thinking is but an idle waste of thought, and nought is everything, and everything is nought."

Boys' Club 2, 3, 4. Never tardy. Burr Junior High School.
Unfortunately "Ang" has devoted most of his time to his out of school activities and we haven't had a good chance to get better acquainted with him. However, his friends tell us he is a swell fellow.

DOROTHY ELIZABETH DECKER
"Dot"

"Quietness is best."

A. A. 2, 3, 4; Girls' League 2, 3, 4. No demerits; never tardy. Burr Junior High School. Green Mountain Junior College.

Her soft voice and quiet manner helped to make Dot the attractive person she is. She was also one of our most courteous and thoughtful girls.

MARGARET DOLORES DE FELICE
"Margie"

"Regularity is unity; unity is godlike."

A. A. 4; Girls' League 2, 3, 4; Girls' Swimming Club 4;
Commercial Club 4. Burr Junior High School. Green Mountain
Junior College.

Margie had all the characteristics of a perfect businesswoman. Her promptness, friendliness, and co-operation all were part of her cheery personality.

CARMELA ANNE DE LILLO
"Carmie"

"The silence that is in the starry sky."

A. A. 3; Girls' League 3, Representative 3; Banking Cashier
2, 3, 4; Girls' Glee Club 4; Junior Red Cross 4. Never tardy; no demerits. Burr Junior High School. Morse Business College.

Carmela is a quiet, thoughtful girl who apparently enjoys school. At any rate, we enjoyed her helpful presence among us.

OLYMPIA MARIE DEL MASTRO

"The true measure of life is sincerity."

Girls' League 4. No demerits. Washington Street School.

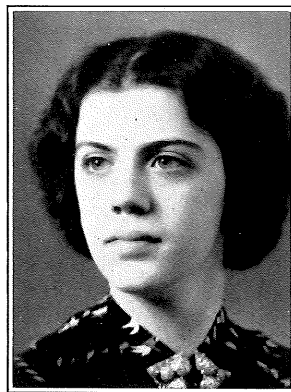

Although she was quiet and unassuming, there was something about Olympia which made you want to know her better. Free from all artifices, she was a girl who was a real friend when needed.

KATHERINE ISABEL DE PASCALE
"Katie"

"Silence at the proper time is wisdom."

Girls' League 4; Honor Society 4; Stamp Club 4; History-Civics Club 4. Burr Junior High School. St. Joseph College.

Katie had such depth of thought that her answers were always intelligent and interesting. The old saying of following through to success can easily be applied to Katie.

MARION KANE DEVANNEY

"To be like her, we wouldn't mind."

A. A. 3, 4; Girls' League 3, 4; Commercial Club 3, 4; Girls' Swimming Club 1, 2, 3. Never tardy; no demerits. Burr Junior High School. St. Joseph College.

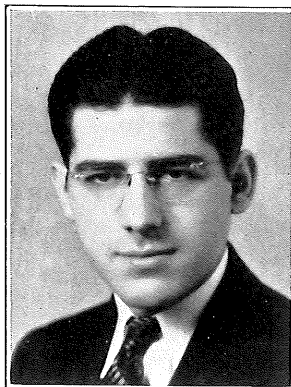

Marion seems to like stenography very much. This seems to foretell a bright business career for her. She also is a lover of swimming and tennis.

ALBERT KENNETH DE VITO
"Al"

"Come on and hear, come on and hear, Alexander's Ragtime Band."

Washington Street School.

Music is the mainspring in Al's life. If his success continues, we shall soon hear his songs on the "Hit Parade."

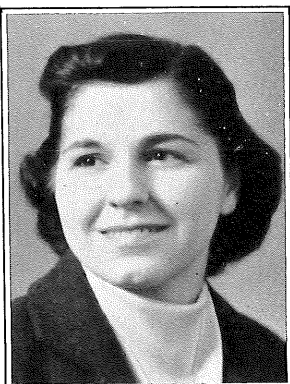

FRANCES MARY DI BATTISTA
"Franny"

"Happiness seems made to be shared."

A. A. 3; Girls' League 3. Never tardy; no demerits. Burr Junior High School.

Franny certainly acquired a small army of friends during her stay at Bulkeley. Ever ready to lend a helping hand to a fellow student, she was well liked by everybody.

LUCY ROSE DI BELLA
"Lefty"

"A cheerful look makes a dish a feast."

A. A. 4; Girls' League 4; Commercial Club 4. Never tardy. St. Joseph's Cathedral Junior High School. Forsythe Dental Laboratory.

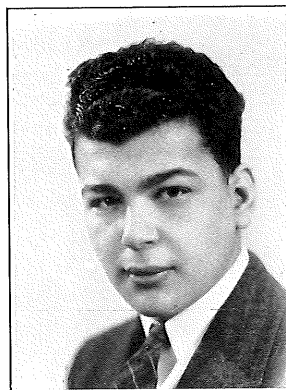

"Lefty" had a cheerful, radiating smile for her friends which seemed to invigorate them when they needed it most. Was this advertising for Forsythe Dental Laboratory?

JOSEPH ORLANDO DI GANGI
"Diggy"

"Men love to wonder, and that is the seed of our science."

A. A. 2, 4; Mathematics Club 4; Camera Club 3; Legislative Club 2; Alternate for U. S. Naval Academy. Never tardy; no demerits. Burr Junior High School. U. S. Naval Academy.

Joe always had the initiative to do what he set out to do. Any problem in advanced mathematics was never too hard for him.

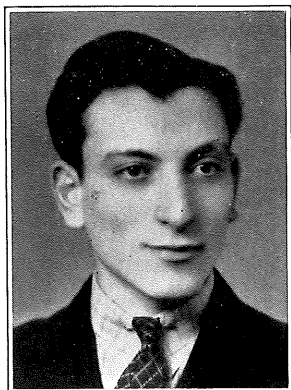

KATHLEEN ADELE DI PAOLA
"Kay"

"Nothing tends so much to enlarge the mind as traveling."

A. A. 2, 3, 4; Girls' League 2, 3, 4; Volley Ball 3; History-Civics Club 4; Commercial Club 4; Swimming Club 4. Never tardy; no demerits. Burr Junior High School. Rider College.

Certainly one of our more loyal supporters, Kay attended practically all our athletic events. She also enjoys travel very much.

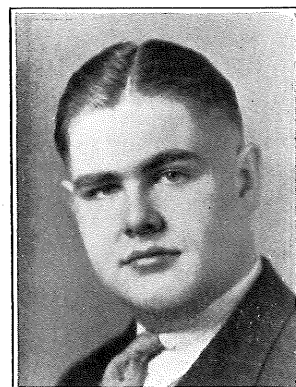

CHRISTY LOUIS DISCENZA

"Chris"

A. A. 3, 4; Boys' Club 3; A Cappella Choir 3; Boys' Glee Club 3, 4; Boys' Double Quartet 4; Track 2. Never tardy. Burr Junior High School.

Chris was much interested in singing and accordion playing. Besides having talent along those lines, he possessed a dignity that would do credit to any opera star. We'll be looking for you at the Bushnell, Chris.

JAMES LA RUE DODSON

"Jimmie"

"A life of ease a difficult pursuit."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Boys' Club 1, 2; Chess Club 2, 3, 4. Southwest School. Springfield College.

Jimmie "Cowboy" Dodson was a well-known name around Bulkeley. Full of mischief and giggles, he could be quite intelligent at times—even in English class.

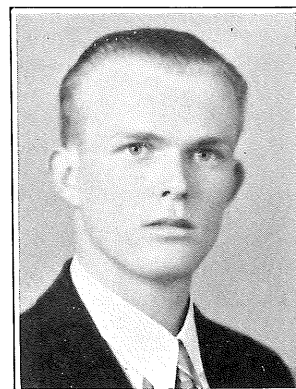

EMILIA SOPHIA DOMBEK

"Em"

"Dance, laugh, and be merry."

A. A. 4; Girls' League 1, 2, 3, 4; Commercial Club 4. No demerits. S. S. Cyril and Methodius School.

Besides being a good student, Emilia also tap dances. She certainly is lucky to have such ability in both the social and business line.

WILLIAM JOSEPH DONAHUE

"Bill"

"Histories make men wise."

Parnassus Club 4. St. Augustine's School. Morse Business College.

Bill is interested in History and Astronomy, two worthwhile subjects. His biggest attraction outside of school is baseball.

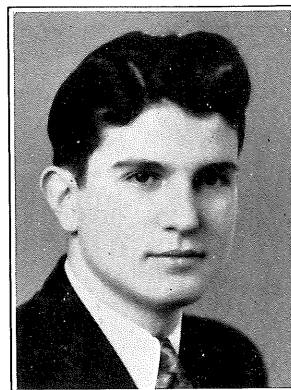

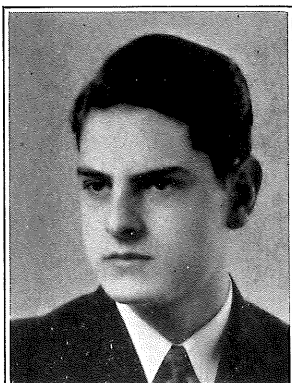

EDWARD JAMES DOWNS
"Ed"

"Yea, he did fly upon the wings of the wind."

A. A. 2, 3, 4; Boys' Swimming Club 2, 3, 4; Boys' Biology Club 2, 3; Student Council 1; Edison Club 2, 3. Burr Junior High School. Louisiana Aeronautical Institute.

Ed spent most of his leisure time engaged in outside activities. His first interest is aviation which he intends to study at a Southern aeronautical school.

JAMES JOSEPH DOWNS
"Jim"

"Proper words in proper places."

Chairman of Music Committee of Junior Prom; School Orchestra 3, 4; Inter-High Orchestra 4; 4th Award in Scholastic Art Contest. Burr Junior High School. Yale University.

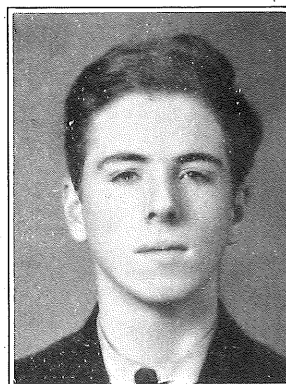

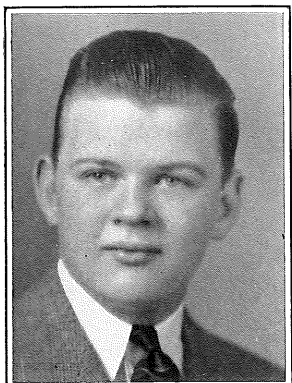

Jim has had a busy four years at Bulkeley. Besides playing the saxophone in a dance band, he devoted a lot of his time to his drawing. But drawing must be his best talent, for he plans to enter the Yale Art School.

ALEXANDER WHITESIDE EDGAR, JR.
"Sonny"

"I never take a nap after dinner but when I have had a bad night, and then the nap takes me."

Boys' Biology Club 2, 3, 4. Washington Street School.

Alex is that lanky, dreamy-eyed boy who wanders about the corridors. They say he often falls asleep in his classes but that no insult is meant.

ROBERT LEO ELLIOTT
"Bob"

"You have a merry heart."

A. A. 2, 3, 4; Boys' Club 2, 3, 4; Track 2; Baseball 3; Inter-class Baseball 3; Inter-class Basketball 2, 3; Inter-class Volley Ball 4. William Hall High School.

Bob is a big boy with a real interest in baseball. His devotion to the game and his ability have made him a good player. His personality is shown by his ready smile and cheery greeting.

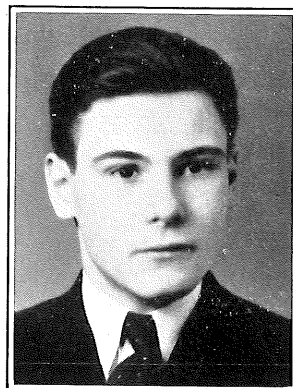

JANETTE ELMORE

"Wisdom is the conqueror of fortune."

Girls' League 1, 2, 4; Honor Society 4; French Club 3, 4, Treasurer 4; Classical Club 3, 4. Never tardy; no demerits. Southwest School. Middlebury College.

Though possessing an air of culture, Janette in no way appeared to feel superior to her classmates. In a competitive spelling bee, it is positive that she would emerge the winner.

JULIUS EUGENE EPSTEIN "Eppie"

"The force of his own merit makes his way."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Boys' Club 1, 2, 3, 4; Torch Editorial Board 2, Associate Editor 3, Assistant Editor 3, Managing Editor 3, Co-Editor-in-Chief 4; Chess Club 2, Secretary 3, President 4; Legislative Club 3; Radio Club 4; Mathematics Club 4; Honor Society 4; Junior Usher 3; Second Scholarship Prize 1. Naylor School. Trinity College.

"Eppie" has always reminded us of a real editor, and in his senior year he attained the position of co-editor of the Torch, which he filled very expertly. In spite of not appearing to do much homework, he always obtained good marks.

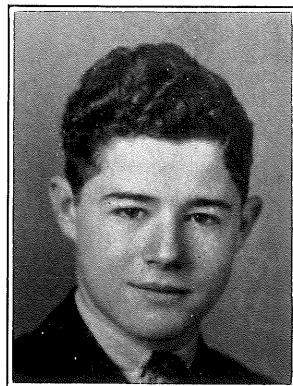

JOHN PETER FAGAN
"Jack"

"Of manners gentle, in wit a man."

A. A. 1; Freshman Choir 1; Senior Choir 2, 3, 4; Camera Club 3; Track, 2, 3. Washington Street School. Yale University.

Jack had a slumbering Irish temper and also a desire to dance. His interest ranged all the way from building model airplanes to the vicinity of Elmwood.

ALBERT LOUIS EULIANO
"Al"

"He'd rather lose his dinner than his jest."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Legislative Club 2, 3; Debating Club 2, 3; Mathematics Club 4; Torch Humor Staff 2. Washington Street School. Connecticut State College.

Al is one of Bulkeley's authorities on the terpsichorean art. He can be seen in the corridors during second recess giving instruction to a group of admirers.

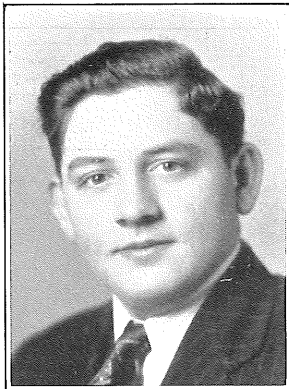

MADELENE CHARLOTTE FAIRMAN

"One thing is forever good; that one thing is success."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Girls' League 1, 3, 4. Never tardy; no demerits. Richard J. Kinsella School. Schultz School of Hair-dressing.

Although Madelene spoke slowly and deliberately, she usually had something to say. Bulkeley didn't see enough of her, however, for most of her interest lay outside of school—and in professional basketball.

ROBERT IRVING FANELLI "Bob"

"It is impossible to enjoy idling thoroughly unless one has plenty of work to do."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Boys' Club 1, 2, 3, 4. Burr Junior High School.

Bob seemed to have a passion for automobiles. The variety of cars which he drove amazed his friends because he had a different one almost every week.

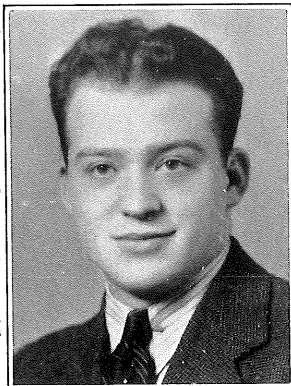

THERESA MAE FANELLI "Terry"

"A smile of hers was like an act of grace."

A. A. 2, 3, 4; Girls' League 2, 3, 4, Room Representative 4. Never tardy. Burr Junior High School.

Grace and poise typify all Theresa's movements. The certain aloofness that she possessed only intensified one's interest in her charm.

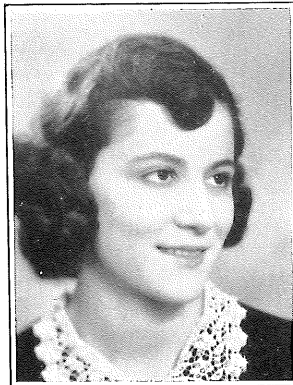

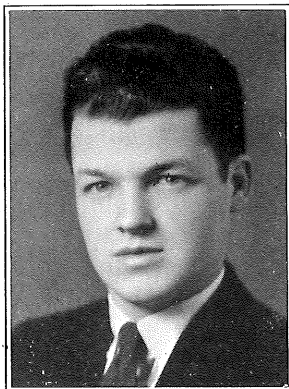

RAYMOND CHARLES FANTONE "Red"

"Better is it to write of laughter than of tears, since laughter is the natural function of man."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Boys' Club 1, 2; Student Council 1, 2; Biological Repertory 2. Never tardy. Naylor School.

"Red" is the sturdy carrot-topped fellow whose laughter has filled Bulkeley halls so often. His good nature has attracted many companions.

CHRISTOPHER FRANCIS FARRELLY, JR.
"Chris"

"As merry as the day is long."

A. A. 2, 3, 4; Boys' Club 2, 3, 4; Legislative Club 4; Swimming Club 2; Dial Advertising Board 3. Never tardy. Burr Junior High School. M. I. T.

Chris was the collegiate type with rolled pants and flashy socks. An ever-present smile and ingratiating remarks were sure signs of his presence.

MARJORIE ELLEN FAY
"Margie"

"Happiness seems made to be shared."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Girls' League 3, 4; Dial Editorial Board 2, 3, 4, Assistant Editor 3, Co-Editor 4; Torch Editorial Board 2; French Club 3; Student Council 1, 2, 3; Scribblers Club 2, 3, 4, President 4; Girls' Leaders Corps 4; Pin and Ring Committee 4. No demerits. St. Augustine's School. St. Joseph College.

Margie's literary ability has raised her to the position of co-editor of the Dial. In addition to this commendable achievement, she has been a social light at every dance and other affairs.

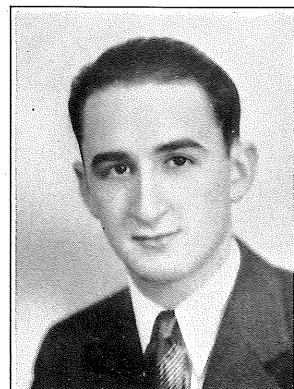

PHYLLIS MINNIE FERRANTE
"Min"

"Business despatched is business well done."

A. A. 2, 3, 4; Girls' League 2, 3, 4. Never tardy; no demerits. Burr Junior High School.

"Min" had the enviable reputation of being able to do all her homework in school and do it well. She also is athletic as shown by her fondness for swimming and tennis.

SANTIAGO FERNANDEZ
"Sandy"

"Boldness, again boldness, and ever boldness."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Boys' Club 1, 2, 3, 4; Glee Club 1, 2, 3, 4, Librarian 3, 4; Choir 1, 2, 3, 4. Washington Street School. Trinity College.

Sandy was one of the wittiest boys in our class. He always had a joke to tell and was the life of most of his classes. He also had a fine voice and gave quite a bit of his time to the Glee Club and choir.

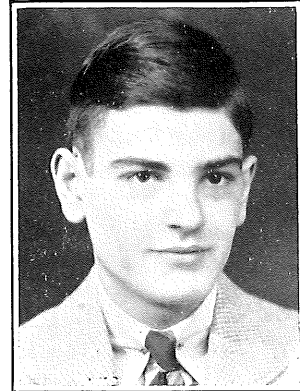

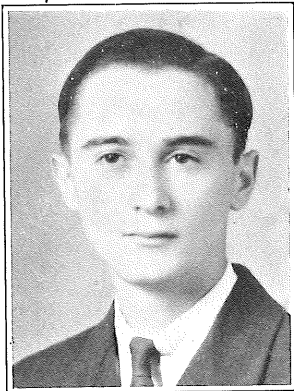

ROBERT JOSEPH FILLATTI

"He thinks and weighs what wisdom bids him do."

A. A. 4; Boys' Club 4; Edison Club 3, 4, President 4; Chess Club 2, 3, 4, Fifth Member 2, 3, Vice-President 4; Junior Usher 4; Intramural Basketball 3, 4; Torch Editorial Board 3, 4. Naylor School. University of Pennsylvania.

Robert has a very mathematical mind which he used to advantage in his Math and science classes. A fine chess player, he made the game one of his favorite pastimes.

ROCCO JOSEPH FIORINO "Rocky"

"He preferred to be good, rather than to seem so."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Glee Club 3; School Band 4; Upper Class Choir 3, 4; Track 3, 4, Letter 3, 4. Burr Junior High School.

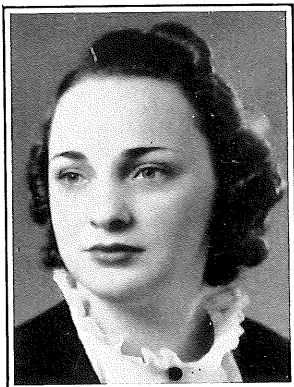

Rocco's humorous quips and indulgent smile were much in demand in any small group. His ability to tap out rhythms created no small disturbance in music class.

HELEN EMILY FIPPINGER "Flip"

"Where your treasure is, there will your heart be also."

A. A. 2, 3, 4; Girls' League 2, 3, 4. Never tardy; no demerits. Burr Junior High School. New Britain Teachers' College.

"Flip" certainly is not as light and pert as one might suppose from her name. She certainly is a success as far as work goes, making the famous "double" and maintaining a good scholastic grade as well.

GERTRUDE ANNE FOLEY "Gert"

"Precious gifts come in small packages."

A. A. 1, 2; Girls' League 1; Tennis Club 3. St. Augustine's School. Business College.

Gert was a cheerful personality with a pert smile and evasive dimples. She could never be found walking down the corridor alone.

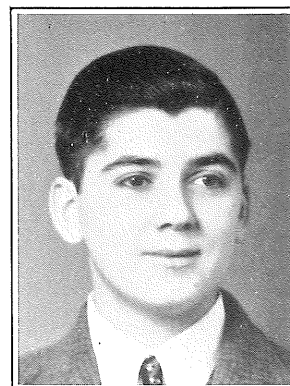

ROSE VICTORIA FORTE

"She was good as she was fair,
None—none on earth above her!"

No demerits. Burr Junior High School. Hartford Hospital Training School for Nurses.

Rose has always been, since our earliest acquaintance with her, one hundred percent personality. Always ready to be confided in, she could be depended upon to accept the burden. She is decidedly one who could not have been easily dispensed with.

RALPH JOSEPH FRANK

"Ned"

"Men of humor are always in some degree men of genius."

A. A. 2, 3, 4; Boys' Club 2, 3, 4; Legislative Club 2, 3, 4; History Civics 3, 4; Vice-President 4; Swimming Club 2; Inter-class Basketball 3; Inter-class Baseball 3. Never tardy. Burr Junior High School. Boston University.

Ned is one who would brighten up the dearest study hall, usually to the dislike of the proctor. He is one of the most vivacious and likable boys in our class.

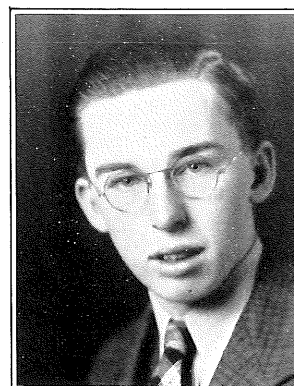

EUNICE VERONICA FRITZ

"Not much talk—a great, sweet silence."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Girls' League 1, 2, 3, 4. Never tardy; no demerits. Southwest School. Forsythe Dental College, Boston, Massachusetts.

Although Eunice was one of the quietest girls in the class, she had her own friends who were willing to stick with her through thick and thin.

CHESTER ANDREWS FROHOCK

"Chet"

"Science when well digested is nothing but good sense and reason."

Chess Club 2; Radio Club 4; Boys' Debating Club 4; Honor Society 4; Student Council 4; Mathematics Club 4. Never tardy. Southwest School. Connecticut State College.

Chet, with his scientific and mathematical mind, surprised us more than once both in and out of class. Once you got him talking on such subjects it was hard to stop him.

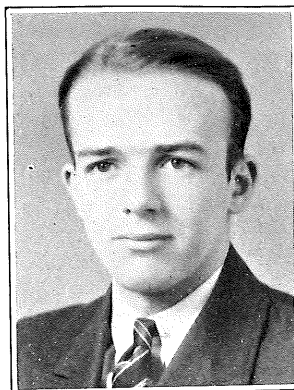

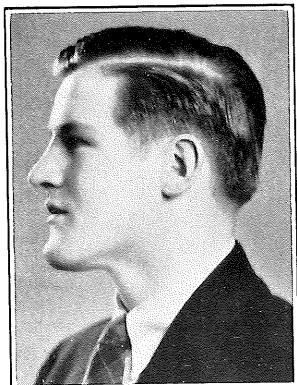

JOHN CHARLES FUNKE
"Jackie"

"A business with an income at its heels."

Ping-Pong Club 3, 4; Golf Club 2, 3, 4. Burr Junior High School.

Jackie had more experiences than anyone we know of: caddy, ice cream salesman, tobacco worker, and what not, but they all went to make a regular, all around fella. Incidentally, he was quite an accomplished golfer.

WALTER LESTER GALUSZKA
"Hunky"

"He prov'd best man in the field."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Boys' Club 1, 2, 3, 4; Swimming Club 2, 3; Varsity Football 2, 3, 4, Letter 4; Basketball 2. S. S. Cyril and Methodius School. Fordham.

Although Walt was plagued by the injury jinx during his three years as a Bulkeley football player, he clearly showed his ability in those games in which he participated. Walt has a large eastern college as his goal and we all wish him a lot of success there.

ELIZABETH MARY GALVIN
"Betty"

"By sports like these are all their cares beguiled."

Girls' League 1, 2, 3, 4; A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Girls' Golf Club 3, 4, Vice-President 3; History-Civics Club 4; Girls' Swimming Club 3, 4; Camera Club 3, 4. Immaculate Conception School.

Betty is quite an athlete. A member of the Girls' Golf Club, she spends her time on the links during summer and at the bowling alleys in winter. She is also an aquatic enthusiast.

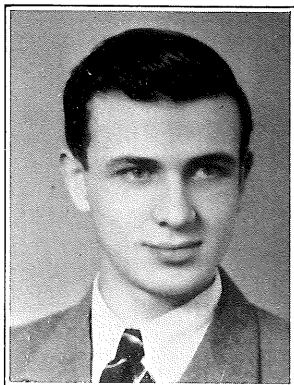

GWENDOLYNE GARDNER
"Gwen"

"Grace silently orders her actions and follows her movements."

A. A. 3, 4; Girls' League 4; Girls' Leaders Corps 3; Girls' Swimming Club 3; Assistant Circulation Manager of Torch 4. Richard J. Kinsella School.

Gwen was one of our more sophisticated ladies. We wonder why Bulkeley did not see more of her after two-thirty.

WILLIAM HICKS GARDINER
"Bill"

"Goodness of disposition is the gift of nature."

Boys' Club 2, 4; Freshman Glee Club 1; Upper Class Choir 2, 3, 4; Track Team 3, 4, Chauncey Harris School.

Bill didn't give us a chance to see much of him while he was in Bulkeley, but at times we caught him unawares. These fleeting and candid glances revealed a wholesome character and a cheerful and good-natured personality.

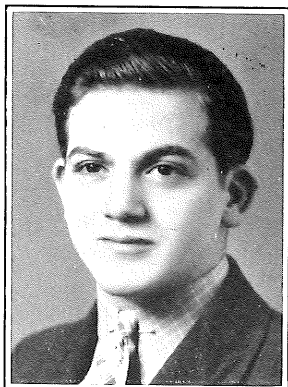

ADELINE ELIZABETH GAURUDER
"Addy"

"Talent is always good tempered."

A. A. 2, 3; Girls' League 1, 2, 3, 4, Room Representative 1, 2, 4; Agora 2, 3, 4, President 2; Editorial Board of Girls' Leaders 3, 4; Scribblers 2, 3; Literary Club 4, Treasurer 4; Junior Glee Club 1; Upper Class Choir 2, 3, 4; Girls' Glee Club 3, 4; A Cappella Choir 3, 4; Editorial Board of Class Book; National Honor Society 4. No demerits. Southwest School.

Adeline is very prominent in extra-curricular activities. She can usually be found writing articles for the Torch or thinking up original ideas for Club meetings. Her pleasing personality has won her innumerable acquaintances and lasting friendships.

ROLAND EDMOND GERO
"Bud"

"Small beginnings make great endings."

A. A. 2, 3, 4; Boys' Club 2, 3; Ping-Pong Club 3; Football Squad 3, 4. No demerits. Burr Junior High School.

"Bud" is the perfect example of one small of stature but gigantic in aptitude. A sincere and heartfelt "Hi jah" goes to all those who are lucky enough to be acquainted with him.

MARY AGNES GIRARD

"An ounce of mirth is worth a pound of sorrow."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Girls' League 1, 2, 3, 4; Upper Class Choir 2. Hillside Avenue School.

Mary has the rare quality of being able to keep herself as well as others in "hysterics." Her vivacious personality was only intensified by her great sense of humor.

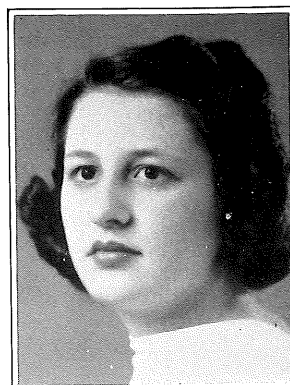

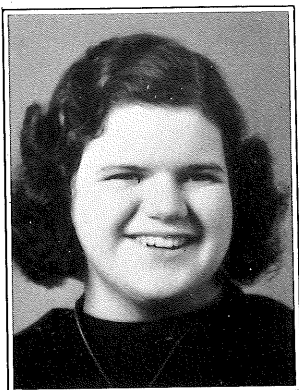

ROSE BARBARA GLEDICK
"Rosie"

"'Tis good-will makes intelligence."

History-Civics Club 3, 4, Treasurer 4; National Honor Society 4. Never tardy; no demerits. Richard J. Kinsella School.

Rose possessed an unusual amount of initiative, and was one of the most unselfish girls in the class. She could carry on an intelligent conversation in music, art, or business administration.

MARGARET MARY GODFREY
"Peggy"

"Every man has his business and desire—such as it is."

Agora 2; Radio Club 2, 3, 4, Treasurer 2, 3, 4; Mathematics Club 4. Southwest School. Miss Marchant's Business School.

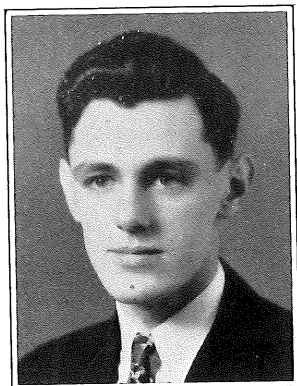

Peggy has a strong flare for mathematics. That should show you how to keep some business man's account "out of the red," Peggy.

VIRGINIA BEATRICE GOGGIN
"Ginger"

"Responsibility walks hand in hand with capacity and power."

A. A. 2, 3, 4; Girls' League 2, 3; Girls' Golf Club 3. Never tardy; no demerits. Burr Junior High School. St. Joseph College.

Virginia is certainly one girl upon whom responsibility could be placed. Intelligent, pert, individual, and attractive, she helps constitute the more worthwhile division of our class.

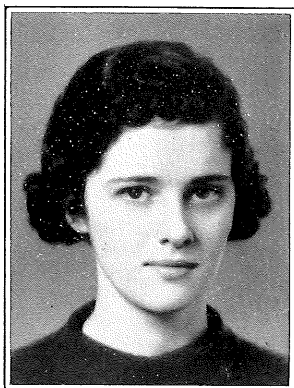

ERNEST CHARLES GOODRICH
"Ernie"

"To be trusted is a great compliment."

A. A. 2, 3, 4; Boys' Club 2, 3, 4; Legislative Club 4; Baseball Team 2, 3, 4; Intramural Basketball 3, 4. Burr Junior High School. Wesleyan University.

Ernie is one slow to criticize and very anxious to approve. His honorable nature has made him popular with the boys as well as the fairer sex.

RUTH MAVIS GOSSELIN
"Ruthie"

"Friendship is infinitely better than kindness."

A. A. 2, 3, 4; Girls' League 2, 3, 4. Never tardy; no demerits. Burr Junior High School.

Ruth was always the kind of girl who had an eye on the future. Her seeming nonchalance and aloofness attracted more than one person whose interest developed into friendship.

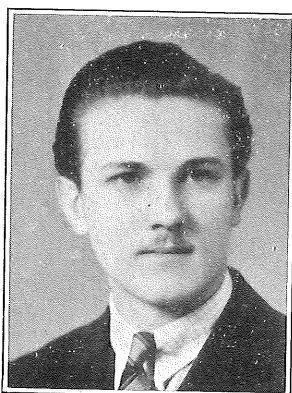

PAULINE MARY GOZZO
"Peg"

"Few are open to conviction, but the majority of men are open to persuasion."

A. A. 2, 3, 4; Girls' League 2, 3, 4; History-Civics Club 4. Never tardy. Burr Junior High School.

Pauline was usually selling tickets to some outside affair, offering to buy a ticket from you if you would buy one from her. This and her friendly personality combined to make her one of the more persuasive members of our class.

ALPHONSE PETER GRANATEK
"Al"

"I am myself a gentleman of the press."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Boys' Club 2, 3, 4; Swimming Club 2, 3; Chess Club 4; Mathematics Club 4; Edison Club 2, 3, 4; Manager of Baseball Team 4; Honor Society 4; Table Tennis Club 3, 4; Radio Club 3, 4; School Printing 2, 3, 4. Never absent; never tardy; no demerits. Chauncey Harris School. Trinity College.

Al, whether operating the printing press or pursuing his studies, was very diligent in his work. He was one of the more prominent members of that group of students who comprise a vital organism in every school.

DOROTHY MARIE GREEN
"Dot"

"A lady makes no noise."

A. A. 4; Girls' League 2, 3, 4; Commercial Club 3, 4. No demerits. Hartford Public High School.

One of the quietest girls at Bulkeley, Dot was also one of the most brilliant. Though she never flaunted her high scholastic rating, she was always ready to help her friends with their homework.

GRACE NANCY GRILLO
"Gracie"

"Our dignity is not in what we do, but what we understand."

A. A. 2, 3, 4; Girls' League 2, 3, 4. Burr Junior High School.

Grace won many friends in the class because of her pleasing personality and natural sweetness. She was also one of our most dignified girls, although she knew how to shed her dignity and have a good time.

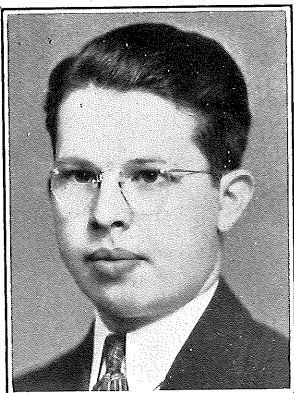

LUCIEN GRILLO
"Lou"

"Experience is always sowing the seed of one thing after another."

A. A. 2, 3, 4; Boys' Club 2, 3, 4; Boys' Debating Club 2, 3, 4; Legislative Club 3, 4; Torch Editorial Board, Assistant Editor 3, Managing Editor 4. Never tardy; no demerits. Burr Junior High School. Boston University of Business Administration.

"Groucho", as he is known to his better friends, was ever the easy-going, tolerant, and fun loving creature. Always ready with a convincing argument, he could tangle up his opponent and then liberate him with a hearty laugh and a slap on the back.

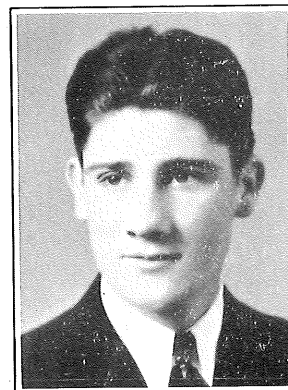

EDWARD OWEN GROGAN
"Joe"

"Fate cannot rob you of deserved applause,
Whether you win or lose in such a cause."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Boys' Club 2, 3; Basketball 3, 4, Letterman 3, 4. Never tardy. Southwest School.

Ed is best known to Bulkeley students for his basketball ability. Many of the basketball fans in school thought that he did not receive his share of credit for his fine performances, but Ed was always a good sport.

MILTON GROSS
"Bob"

"Wisdom shall die with you."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Boys' Club 1, 2, 3, 4; Glee Club 1; Student Council 1; Junior Usher 3; National Honor Society 3; First Scholarship Prize 1, 2, 4; Second Scholarship Prize 3; Harvard Book Prize. Never tardy; no demerits. Burr Junior High School. Harvard University.

Milt may undoubtedly be called one of the "intelligentsia" of our class, ever capable of difficult explanations, whether in Physics or Chemistry. As a pianist and composer he is a man of no mean accomplishments.

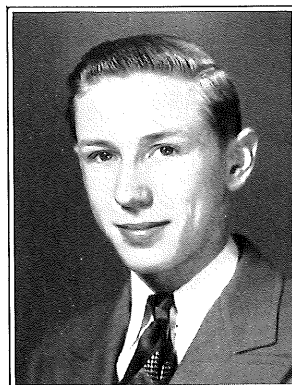

MARJORIE MAY GROTE

"Margie"

"There is no greater delight than to be conscious of sincerity on self-examination."

Choir 1, 2, 3, 4; Glee Club 1; Girls' League 1. No demerits. Southwest School. State Teachers' College.

Marjorie's one ambition for the past year seems to have been to complete her "lab" assignment and be ready to dash off with her friends when the 2.30 bell strikes.

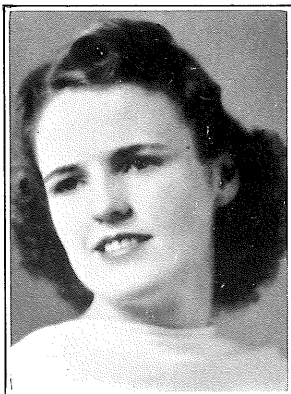

MAURICE ERNEST GUILLET

"Mush"

"The mischief of children is seldom actuated by malice; that of grown-up people always is!"

Boys' Club 1, 3, 4; Boys' Biology Club 2, 3, 4; Senior Orchestra 1, 2, 3; Track 3, 4; Intramural Basketball 3. Washington Street School. Connecticut State College.

"Mush" was often the cynosure of all eyes as far as mischief was concerned. He was, however, very capable with his trumpet in the school band.

BARBARA JANE GUILMARTIN

"Bob"

"Let us do what honor demands."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Girls' League 1, 2; Girls' Swimming Club 3, 4; Camera Club 2; Commercial Club 3; Torch Business Board 2, Assistant Circulation Manager 3. Washington Street School.

Although "Bob" had red hair, we cannot remember her ever losing her temper or being anything other than quiet and well-mannered.

JOSEPHINE THERESA GUZY

"Joe"

"Nothing endures but personal qualities."

Art Club 1; Science Club 1; Swimming Club 2; Girls' League 4, Treasurer 4. Never tardy. Burr Junior High School. Hartford Art School.

The girls showed good judgment in electing Joe as treasurer of the Girls' League. Dependability, loyalty, and honesty are a few of her characteristics. Joe's sense of humor and infectious laughter make her a good pal and a welcome friend.

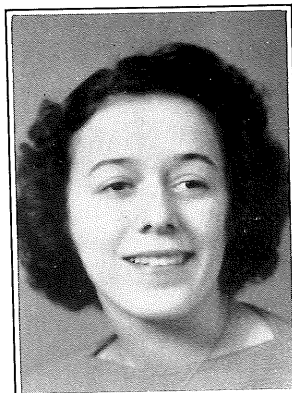

CECILIA ANITA HACHEY
"Celia"

"Industry fosters success."

A. A. 2; Girls' League 1; Swimming Club 2, 3, 4; Camera Club 3, 4, Secretary 4; Upper Class Choir 1, 2, 3, 4; Junior Dramatic Club 1; Kickball Team 3, Captain 3. No demerits. Washington Street School.

The Campfield Library takes most of Celia's time. Is that what makes you so industrious and good-natured, Celia?

GERTRUDE ANN HALLORAN
"Gertie"

"The most manifest sign of wisdom is a continual cheerfulness."

No demerits. New Britain High School. Moody's Secretarial School.

Gertie plans to further her education in the secretarial field. Her cheerfulness will be an asset to her future employer.

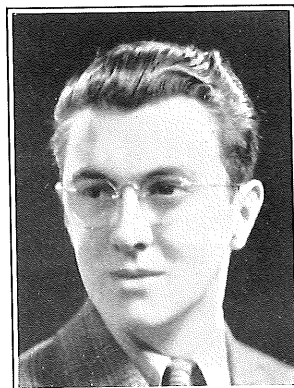

RALPH EDWARD HAMEL

"A quiet mind is richer than a crown."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Boys' Club 1, 2, 3, 4; Boys' Chess Club 2, 3, 4; Legislative Club 4; Chess Club 2; Upper Class Choir 2, 3, 4. Never tardy. Washington Street School. St. Joseph's Seraphic Seminary.

Ralph has a reserved manner that permits him to work without a fuss. Under that outward restraint there were infinite possibilities for mischief.

CORINNE SHEILA HANSEN
"Connie"

"She touches nothing but she adds charm."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Girls' League 1, 2, 3, 4; Torch Editorial Board 4. Never tardy; no demerits. Southwest School. Miss Marchant's Secretarial School.

Connie has an over-abundance of charm which is bound to make her as popular throughout her life as she has been in four years here.

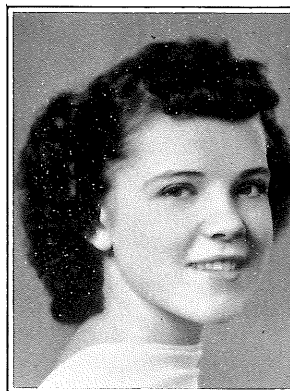

DOROTHY HANSEN
"Dot"

"Studies serve for delight."

Glee Club 1; Choir 1, 2, 3, 4. No demerits. Southwest School. Middlesex Hospital Training School.

Dot derived most of her pleasure from attending her Chem class, which is on the unusual side for a girl. She also was very fond of drawing.

SHIRLEY ANN HAYES
"Shirl"

"Dance, laugh, and be merry."

Girls' League 2, 3, 4, Room Representative 2, 3; Girls' Leaders 4; Swimming Club 4; Honor Society 3, 4; Kickball 3; 60-Word Transcription. St. Peter's Grammar School.

Shirley's vivaciousness is quite a stimulant to friends and acquaintances. During her four years at Bulkeley, she has become well known for her ability to entertain by both singing and dancing.

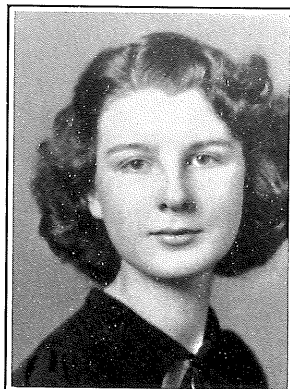

VERONICA THEODORA HAYES

"I will sit as quiet as a lamb."

Girls' League 1; Glee Club 1. No demerits. Burr Junior High School. Connecticut State College.

It's one thing to be quiet but it's quite another thing to be able to say the right thing at the right time. Veronica had a combination of both these characteristics.

DOROTHY ETHEL HAZARD
"Dot"

"So true her heart, so smooth her speech."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Girls' League 1, 2, 3, 4; Senior Dramatic Club 3, 4; Agora 2, 3, 4; Junior Dramatic Club 1, 2; Classical Club 4; History-Civics Club 4; Torch Editorial Board 2, 3, 4; Associate Editor of Torch 3; Assistant Editor of Torch 4. Southwest School. Boston University.

Dot had a confidential attitude which helped her gain many friends. This also netted her many of the clever interviews which she secured for the Torch.

KATHLEEN ELIZABETH HEALY
"Kay"

"Men do not realize how great a revenue economy is."

A. A. 2, 3, 4; Girls' League 1, 2, 3, 4; Kickball 3, 4; O. G. A. and Theory Certificates in Shorthand. Never tardy; no demerits. Southwest School. Morse Business College.

Kay had many interests in and about school, but they all seemed sophomoric compared with her profound liking for home economics.

MARIAN THERESA HELDMANN

"A woman diligent in her business."

A. A. 1, 4; Girls' League 1, 4; Commercial Club 4. Never tardy; no demerits. Washington Street School.

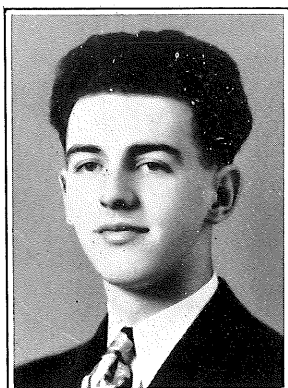

Marion shows a keen desire to prepare for business by joining the Commercial Club. Your never tardy record should help, too, Marion.

BARBARA ELIZABETH HELM
"Bobby"

"Sweets with sweets war not, joy delights in joy."

A. A. 2, 3, 4; Girls' League 2, 3, 4; History-Civics Club 4; Ni-No-Van 4; Girls' Leaders Corps 4; Upper Class Choir 2, 3, 4. Wethersfield High School.

After Bobby came to us from Wethersfield High, her vivacity and good-fellowship won her many friends at Bulkeley. Among her assets was a sparkling personality and a talent for dancing.

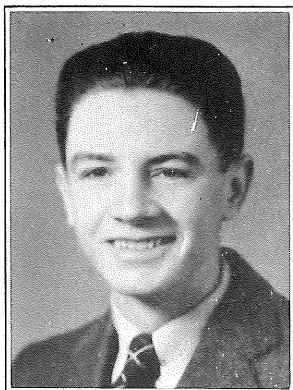

PAUL HICKEY

"The hand that follows intellect can achieve."

A. A. 2, 3, 4; Boys' Club 2, 3, 4; Boys' Debating Club 2, 3, 4; Treasurer 4; Legislative Club 2, 3, 4; Mathematics Club 4; Secretary 4; Dial Editorial Board 2, 3, 4; Dial Business Board 2, 3, 4; Dial Advertising Manager, Assistant 4; Room Treasurer 4; A Cappella Choir 3, 4; Boys' Glee Club 2, 3, 4; Upper Class Choir 2, 3, 4; Honor Society 4; Class Historian. Never tardy; no demerits. Burr Junior High School. Holy Cross College.

The intelligence of this very much admired student will always be remembered. Whether in Trig, English, or Latin, Paul was ever ready with the correct answer or at least an intelligent countenance.

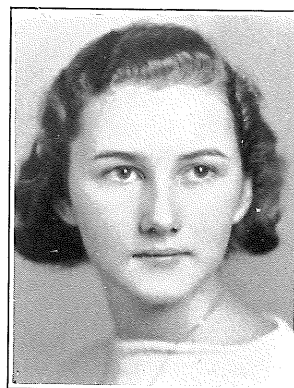

WILLIAM VINCENT HICKEY
"Hick"

"O sleep! it is a gentle thing."

A. A. 2, 3, 4; Boys' Club 3, 4; Torch Editorial Board 3; Junior Prom Committee 3; Track 3, 4. Never tardy; no demerits. Burr Junior High School.

"Hick" always appeared to be awaiting a visit from Morpheus, but this disguise was quickly thrown off at the appearance of a friend.

MARY PRISCILLA HILL
"Tay"

"Thy modesty's a candle to thy merit."

Girls' League 1, 2, 3, 4, Room Representative 2, 3, 4; Junior Glee Club 1; Girls' Glee Club 2, 3, 4; Assistant Librarian 2, Secretary-Treasurer 3, 4; Girls' Leaders Corps 3; Torch Business Board 1; Torch Secretary 2; Torch Assistant Advertising Manager 3; Torch Secretary 4; Upper Class Choir 2, 3, 4; Mathematics Club 4; Kickball 3. No demerits; never tardy. Alfred Plant Junior High School. St. Joseph College.

"Tay's" magnetic personality and desire to be helpful have gained for her the admiration and respect of all her classmates. In addition to these fine qualities, "Tay" is an excellent athlete, a graceful dancer, and a good sport.

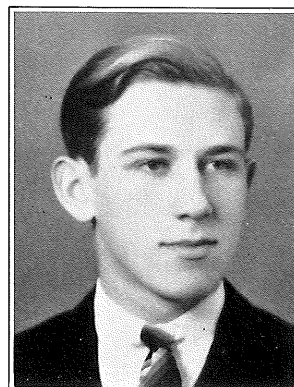

RUTH ADELE HINKLEMAN
"Ruthie"

"Sweeter also than honey and the honeycomb."

A. A. 2, 3, 4; Girls' League 2, 3, 4; Art Club 2, 3, 4; Dramatic Club 3, 4; Agora 2, 3, 4, President 4; Editorial Board of Torch 2, 3, 4; Scribblers Club 4; Honor Society 4. Never tardy; no demerits. Burr Junior High School. Pratt Institute.

Ruth is a quiet, attractive girl who has many friends and admirers, especially among the senior boys. Her efforts have been an important factor in the success of Bulkeley organizations and activities during the past four years.

RALPH WALLACE HJERPE
"Twirp"

"The charm and playfulness of his talk."

A. A. 3, 4; Boys' Club 4; Baseball 3, 4. Never tardy. Burr Junior High School.

"Twirp," we may easily say without prevaricating, should belong to the same fraternity as Bill Hickey. He could, however, pitch a "mean" baseball when motivated to do so.

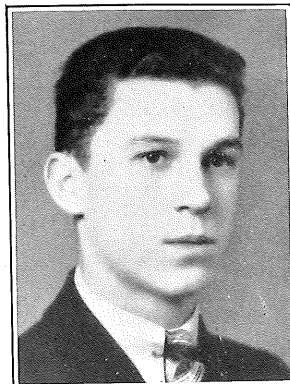

BENJAMIN CHARLES HOLEWA
"Ben"

"There is a great deal in the first impression."

A. A. 2, 3; Baseball 3; Basketball 3. Burr Junior High School. Trade School.

His fine appearance and congenial personality are invaluable guarantees of social success. Ben also has a penchant for basketball.

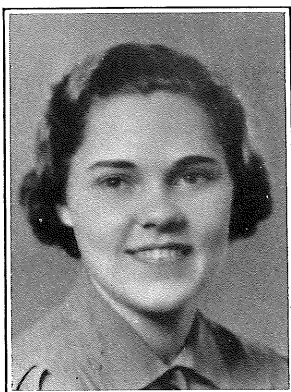

JANE HOLLINGS

"They can because they think they can."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Girls' League 1, 2, 3, 4, Room Representative 1, 2; Torch Business Board Circulation Manager 3, Assistant Business Manager 4; Honor Society 3, 4; Junior Dramatic Club 1, 2; Art Club 2, Vice-President 3, Fifth Member 4; Senior Dramatic Club 3, Secretary 4; Classical Club 3, Secretary 4; Girls' Leaders Corps 3, Vice-President 4; Student Council 1, 2, 3; Mathematics Club 4, Vice-President 4; Room Treasurer 4; Pin and Ring Committee 4; Junior Prom Committee; Girls' Kickball Team 3. No demerits. Southwest School. Colby Junior College.

As can be seen by her history, Jane has been very prominent in school affairs. Her boundless energy and understanding nature have benefited Bulkeley and her classmates greatly.

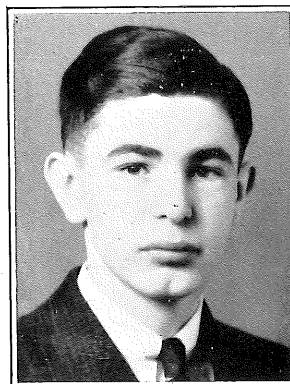

IRVING CHARLES HOLROYD

"I envy no mortal, though ever so great."

A. A. 3, 4; Boys' Club 4; Senior Dramatic Club 4; Torch Business Board 4. Never absent; no demerits. Southwest School.

Irving is a quiet, unassuming fellow who studied conscientiously, thus keeping on the good side of the faculty. He made many friends because of his friendliness and continuous good spirits.

ALICE MARY HORNISKY

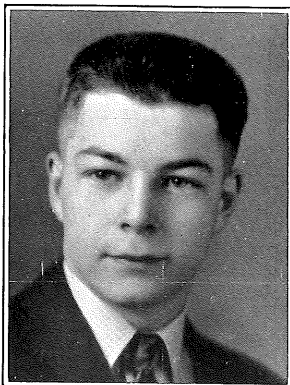

"Al"

"Let everyone engage in the business with which he is best acquainted."

Girls' League 2; Ni-No-Van Club 3; Torch Business Board 2. Chauncey Harris School.

Alice always had something to sell, whether it was a Torch subscription or a bid to a dance. Her perpetual greeting was, "Do you want to buy a ticket?" She ought to have a successful future as a saleswoman.

ALFRED GRIFFEN HOWARD
"Al"

"Force of youth, hardy as a lion."

Biological Repertory 3, 4, Vice-President 3, Treasurer 4. Southwest School. Connecticut State College.

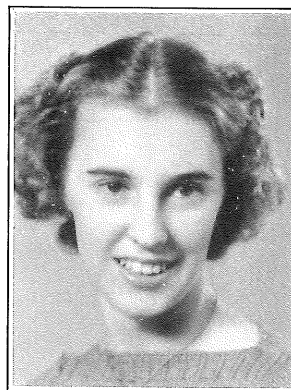

Al was one of our more earnest youths, and we wonder how, despite his seriousness, he was able to maintain that boyish appearance.

HOPE EDITH HUBBARD
"Frenchie"

"How near to good is what is fair."

Girls' League 3, 4. Never tardy; no demerits. Burr Junior High School. St. Francis Training School.

Hope reminded us very much of a butterfly, for she never was in one place very long. Her sweet disposition and serene temper won her many friends.

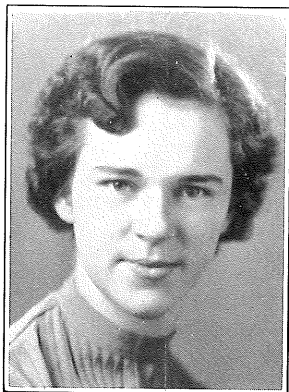

LILLIAN GERTRUDE HUNTER
"Lil"

"And unextinguish'd laughter shakes the skies."

A. A. 2, 3, 4; Girls' League 2, 3, 4, Room Representative 2, 3; Radio Club 2, 3; Commercial Club 4; Honor Society 4; 60-80 Word Gregg Transcription. No demerits. Burr Junior High School. Bay Path Institute.

Lil is one of our happiest students. Her sense of humor and attractive smile have often cheered up her friends. Her joyful attitude has done much toward making her well liked.

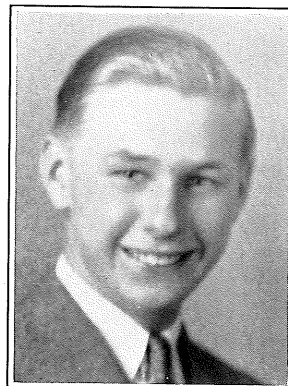

GEORGE MC CALL JACOBSEN
"Jake"

"The reward of one duty is the power to fulfill another."

Legislative Club 4; Biological Repertory 3, 4, Fifth Member 4; Parnassus Club 4; Edison Club 4; Camera Club 4; Honor Society 4. No demerits. Washington Street School. Trinity College.

George is often seen carrying enough books to start a branch library, but his high grades prove that his habit has benefited him greatly. However, studies have not occupied all his time, for he has also been active in extra-curricular activities.

GENEVIEVE JAKOBOT
"Jane"

"The great and the little have need of one another."
Girls' League 1, 2, 3, 4; Swimming Club 4; O. G. A. Certificate, Complete Theory Certificate. Never tardy; no demerits. Richard J. Kinsella School. McKeown School of Business.

Jane's sweet smile and charming affability resulted in her gaining a host of friends. As a secretary she will probably be intelligent, efficient, and smart.

GERTRUDE CAROLYN JAMES
"Gert"

"Prefer diligence before idleness, unless you esteem rust above brightness."

A. A. 1, 2; Girls' League 1, 2, 3; Girls' Leaders Corps 2, 3; Girls' Biology Club 3, 4. Never tardy; no demerits. Burr Junior High School. Howard University.

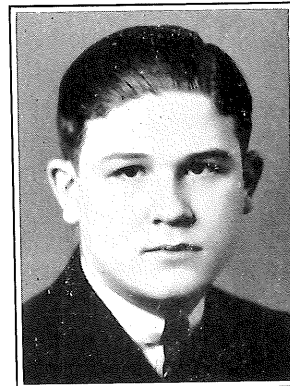

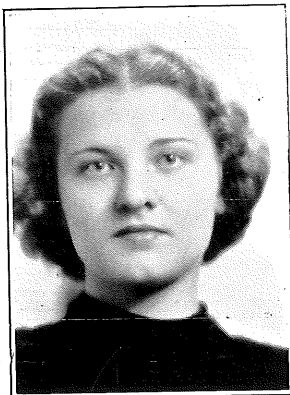

Gert has been one of the best sports in our large class. In spite of the fact that she likes a good time, Gert has applied herself diligently to her studies.

ALBERT RUDDY JOHNSON
"Al"

"There is nothing like fun, is there?"

Boys' Club 3, 4; Boys' Biology Club 2, 3, 4, Vice-President 4; Legislative Club 4; Torch Editorial Board 2. Burr Junior High School. Trinity College.

Al was, beyond all doubt, the most thorough, dyed-in-the-wool fun lover that ever stalked Bulkeley corridors. But why worry about this life? We'll never get through it alive. Isn't that right, Al?

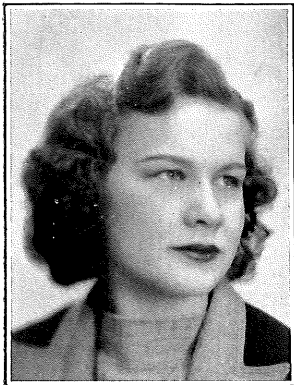

RHODA EILEEN JOHNSON

"Persevere and never fear."

A. A. 1, 2; Girls' League 1, 2, 4; Girls' Golf Club 3; Glee Club 1, 2; Upper Class Choir 4; Lower Class Choir 2; Assistant Manager of Dial Publicity Board 4; Camera Club 4; Captain Kickball Team 3. Never tardy; no demerits. Southwest School.

Rhoda possessed a great deal of perseverance which many of us have noticed, especially in her "chem lab" experiments. This quality is one which it is worth while to have.

RUTH ELIZABETH JOHNSON

"We ne'er can be made happy by compulsion,"

A. A. 2, 3, 4; Girls' League 2, 3, 4; Torch Business Board 3, Assistant Advertising Manager 2, Circulation Manager 3. No demerits. Burr Junior High School.

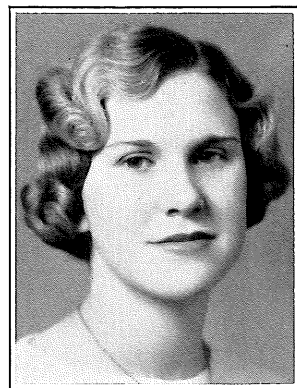

Ruth was popular for her forceful personality and unusually high vitality. Ruth's energy would be a good ad for some breakfast food.

EDITH ELIZABETH JONES
"Eddie"

"A happy soul a great attraction is."

A. A. 3, 4; Girls' League 2, 3, 4; Art Club 2, 3, 4. Southwest School.

Eddie was always a good sport and could make friends easily. Hers was a personality which stood out from the crowd.

ALICE BEATRICE KANE
"Budd"

"Meditation is culture."

A. A. 1, 2; Girls' League 1, 3, 4; Classical Club 3, 4, Treasurer 4; French Club 3, 4; Literary Club 4; Honor Society 4; Mathematics Club 4; Dial Advertising Board 2. Never tardy; no demerits. St. Augustine's School. St. Joseph College.

Alice is one of the more serious members of our class. We consider Alice very reliable and capable, and one who can lay claim to competency plus in her work.

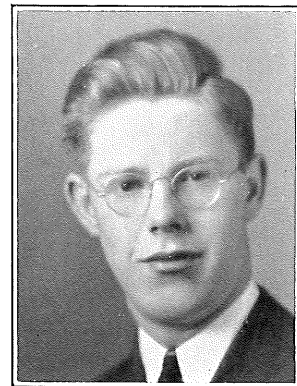

JOHN JOSEPH KEENAN
"Jack"

"I am not of that feather to shake off
My friend when he most needs me."

A. A. 4; Boys' Club 3, 4; Boys' Ping-Pong Club 4; Edison Club 4. No demerits. Washington Street School.

Besides being a diligent worker and a capable student, Jack has been always sincere. With these characteristics he will undoubtedly go far.

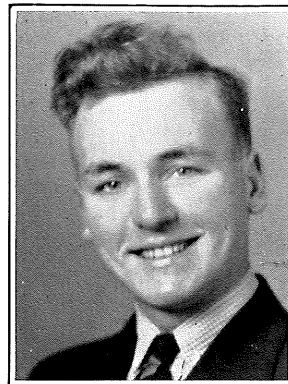

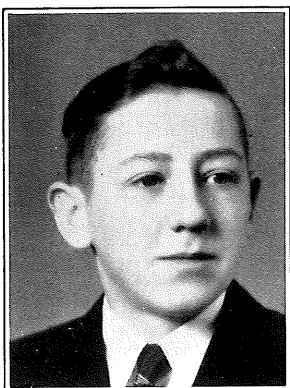

JOHN WILLIAM KELLEHER
"Kell"

"The most enthusiastic man in a cause is rarely chosen as a leader."

St. Augustine's School. Trinity College.

In spite of the fact that his home is adjacent to the school, "Kell" has often been seen hurrying across the yard at 8.27. Keeping all his girl friends interested certainly requires plenty of time.

ARTHUR LAWRENCE KEMP
"Art"

"Song forbids victorious deeds to die."

A. A. 2; Boys' Club 4; Boys' Glee Club 3, 4; A Cappella Choir 4; Upper Class Choir 3, 4. Never tardy; no demerits. Burr Junior High School. Trinity College.

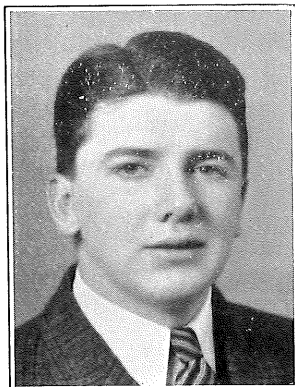

Well-earned achievement in the art of song has won Art many true friends. He will undoubtedly be successful in that pursuit in the future.

JEAN LANGDON KENNEDY
"Jay"

"Literary achievement deserves praise."

A. A. 1, 3, 4; Girls' League 1, 2, 3, 4; History-Civics Club 4; Associate Editor of the Dial 4; Mark Twain Masquers' Contest Second Prize 2; Junior Red Cross 4. Southwest School. Pembroke College.

The Bulkeley Dial was quick to realize a remarkable and sincere journalist in Jean, for she proved her ability in the literary field by winning a prize in a state-wide contest. If this is to be your life work, Jean, we know that many honors will be bestowed upon you.

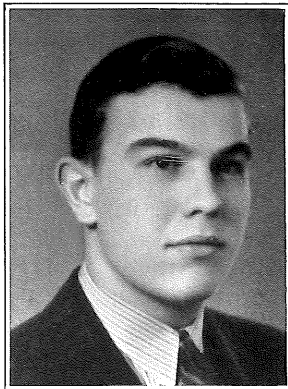

ROBERT JOHN KENNEDY
"Bob"

"He knows most who speaks least."

A. A. 1, 2; Boys' Club 4. Hartford Public High School.

If those who know most make less noise, Robert has a high degree of knowledge. He has a most quiet but likable manner.

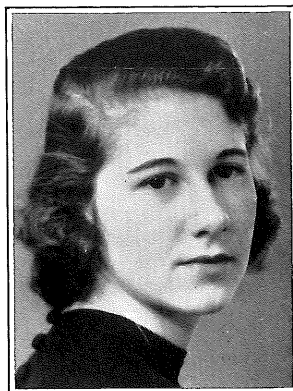

CHARLES JOHN KENSEL
"Charlie"

"Because thou prizest things that are Curious and unfamiliar."

Southwest School.

Charlie was not very active in club affairs in school, but he had many outside interests. We have been told that Charlie looked toward West Hartford for his entertainment.

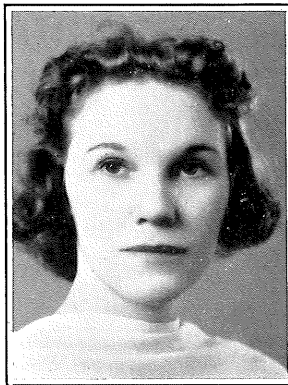

EVELYN BEATRIX MAY KIBBE
"Kib"

"The best of life is conversation."

A. A. 4; Camera Club 1. No demerits. Burr Junior High School.

No matter the time or place, Evy was willing to indulge in an informal chat. Although she worked after school, she did not lack time for friends and acquaintances.

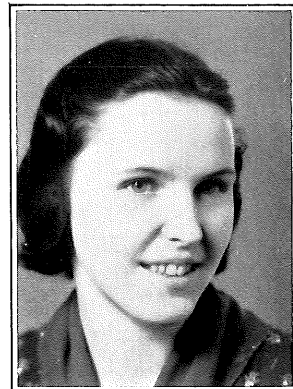

DOROTHY GERALDINE KILLORAN
"Dottie"

"Joys too exquisite to lose."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Girls' League 1, 2, 3, 4; Torch Business Board 1, 2, 3, 4; Girls' Swimming Club 2, 3; Girls' Golf Club 3; History-Civics Club 3, 4. Never tardy. Washington Street School. St. Joseph College.

Dotty has been popular and well liked by both sexes in our class. We recall that in Chemistry class she didn't have very much to say, but when she did recite she showed real knowledge.

CORINNE JANE KING
"Keen"

"It is good to lengthen to the last a sunny mood."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Girls' Leaders 3, 4; Ni-No-Van 2, 3, 4; Junior Red Cross 4; Girls' Glee Club 3, 4. Never tardy. Southwest School.

"Keen," with her laughing eyes and happy-go-lucky personality, won many friends at Bulkeley. Surely such joyous traits will be appreciated in her future life.

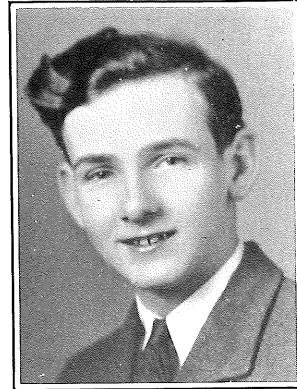

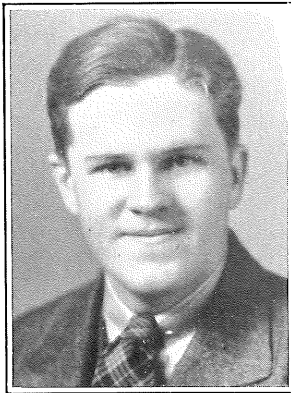

NORMAN FRANCIS KING
"N. F."

"Dash! and through with it!
that's the better watchword."

Junior Dramatic Club 1, 2; Senior Dramatic Club 3, 4. Never tardy. Chauncey Harris School.

Norman was Bulkeley's own Napoleon—at least he proclaimed this fact. The rest of us, however, will be more likely to remember Norman as an up and coming young comedian.

JOSEPH THOMAS KINIRY
"Jos"

"His only labor was to kill time."

St. Mary's School.

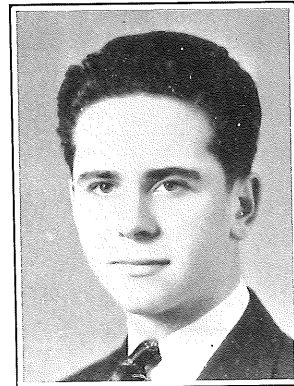

Although Joe is very seldom seen working hard, he is a great sport because he can be entertaining at all times—even during class periods.

GEORGE TRACY KINNIRY
"Bud"

"I am fearfully and wonderfully made."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Boys' Club 1, 2, 3, 4; Legislative Club 4; Honor Society 4; Junior Usher 3; Editorial Board of Class Book; Student Council 3, 4; Treasurer 4; Junior Prom Committee; Football 2, 3, 4, Letter 3, 4. Naylor School.

An air of polished indifference combined with a kingly bearing helped make "Bud" one of the most popular boys in the class. He was equally at ease on the football field or on the dance floor, and no sport or social function was complete without him.

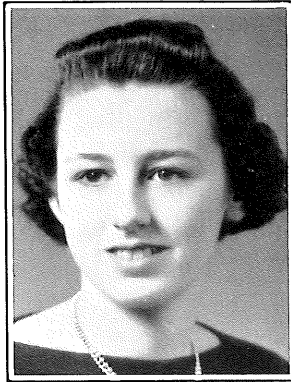

CATHERINE SCOTT KINSELLA
"Kay"

"She's all my fancy painted her,
She's lovely, she's divine."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Girls' League 1, 2, 4, Room Representative 1; Junior Dramatic Club 1, 2, Secretary 2; Girls' Leaders Corps 2, 4; Girls' Glee Club 2; Senior Dramatic Club 4, Sixth Member; Literary Club 4; Swimming Club 4; Choir 2, 4; Torch Business Board 1, 2, 4. Southwest School. St. Joseph College.

Kay has impressed us most by her charming dignity and aloofness. One of our most popular and active classmates, she has taken part in many activities both in and out of school.

PATRICIA ANN KIRBY
"Patty"

"Things were first made, then words."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Girls' League 3; Girls' Golf Club 3; Swimming Club 3. Never tardy. St. Peter's School. Bay Path Institute.

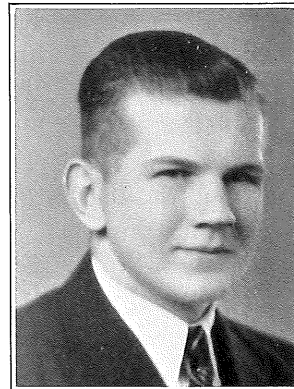

Patty loved to talk, and, because she was pleasant and friendly, always managed to find boys and girls who were willing to listen to her.

CHESTER WALTER KORZUN
"Corky"

"Life without laughing is a dreary blank."

Boys' Club 3, 4; Football 3, 4. Never tardy. Hartford Public High School. Bay Path Institute.

"Corky" doesn't like homework any better than the rest of us, but he managed to come out with a blunt remark every once in a while in chemistry class. He usually added plenty of amusement to the class, anyway.

HELEN JOAN KORZUN

"And where she went, the flowers took thickest root."

Girls' League 2, 3, 4; Art Club 2, 4, Vice-President 4; Commercial Club 4; History-Civics Club 4; Swimming Club 4; Girls' Leaders 4. Never tardy; no demerits. Hartford Public High School. McKeown Secretarial School.

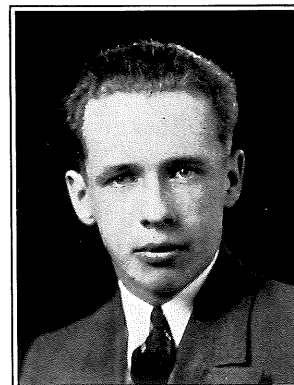

When the Girls' Leaders Corps claimed Helen as a member, it chose leadership, character, and athletic ability. Forever cheerful, willing to be of assistance, and a true leader among girls was Helen.

STANLEY JOSEPH KRULIKOSKI

"Knowledge comes of learning well retained, Unfruitful else."

Boys' Biology Club 2, Treasurer 3; Junior Usher; Honor Society 3, 4; Mathematics Club 4. Never tardy; no demerits. Southwest School. Trinity College.

Stan deserves the congratulations of both his classmates and the faculty for his fine record both as a student and a musician. His excellent trombone playing was an important factor in the success of both the school band and the orchestra.

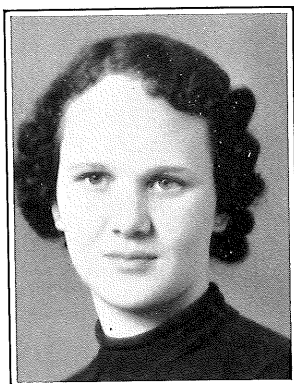

SHIRLEY ELAINE KUEHNLE
"Heidi"

"A penny for your thoughts."

A. A. 1, 3; Girls' League 1, 2, 3, 4; Literary Club 3, 4; Classical Club 3, 4; Swimming Club 4; Mathematics Club 4; Camera Club 4. Naylor School. St. Joseph College.

Shirley's sighs and frowns are familiar to all of us, but we know that they're all in fun. And can she eat up mathematics and understand it?

LILLIAN MARGARET KUKLA
"Lil"

"The only way to have a friend is to be one."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Girls' League 1, 2, 3, 4; Torch Business Board 2, 3, 4; Student Council 1; Agora 3, 4; French Club 3, 4, Vice-President and Secretary 4; Girls' Leaders 4; Swimming Club 4. Never absent. Washington Street School. Comptometer School.

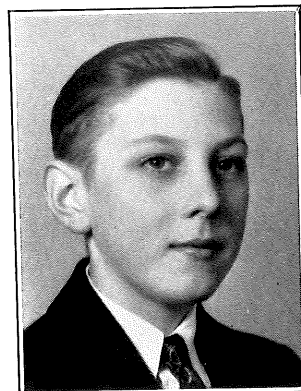

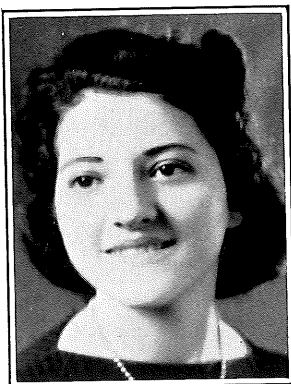

Anyone could get along with Lil because of her sincere amiability and her amusing sense of humor. She was truly an enjoyable addition to any social affair.

JOSEPH FRANCIS KYCIA
"Joe"

"There is, however, a limit at which forbearance ceases to be a virtue."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Boys' Club 1. Never tardy. S. S. Cyril and Methodius School.

Joe was the taciturn type; but he could write excuses for gym so well that even Mr. Allen believed them to be valid.

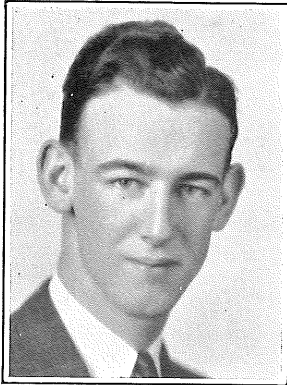

ANTOINETTE MARIE LA CAVA
"Tony"

"Miss not the discourse of the elders."

A. A. 3, 4; Girls' League 1, 2. Never tardy; no demerits. Burr Junior High School.

"Tony" is not the mediocre type: she was reliable, co-operative, and pleasant. Certainly these characteristics will serve her well in the future.

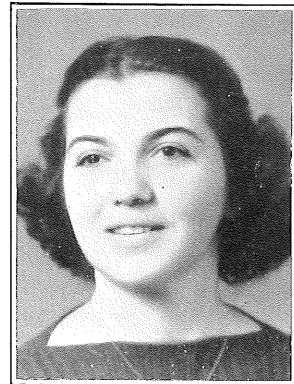

ROBERT JOSEPH LANDRIGAN
"Bob"

"On airy feet he dances time away."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Boys' Club 1, 2. Never tardy. Southwest School. Bentley School of Accounting.

Although Bob was never outstanding, he was always very congenial and agreeable. He always dressed very well and showed himself a master of the art of dancing at our social affairs.

ANNA CARMELA LARAIA
"Ann"

"Speak boldly and speak truly."

A. A. 1. Never tardy; no demerits. Burr Junior High School. St. Francis Training School for Nurses.

Ann's great ambition is to become a nurse, but in addition to this she has a profound interest in swimming. These traits plus Ann's delightful "gift of gab" all go to make her an all-around girl.

ANNA MARIE LARAIA

"Grace was in all her steps, in every gesture dignity and love."

A. A. 1, 2; Girls' League 1, 2. Never tardy; no demerits. Chauncey Harris School.

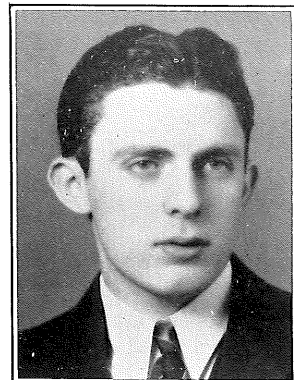

Anna was the girl who believed that there was a silver lining to every dark cloud. At least we gather that from her ever-cheerful countenance.

HAROLD AUGUSTINE LAVERY
"Hal"

"True modesty will there abound."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Boys' Club 1, 2, 3, 4. Washington Street School.

Harold at first gives the impression of being rather serious, but is entirely different once he is with his pals. To see him alone and then with his friends is like seeing two entirely different persons.

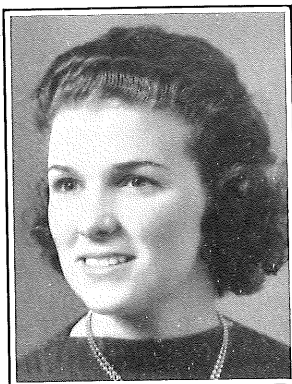

ANNARUTH MARIE LAWLESS

"Come, sing now, sing; for I know you sing well; I see you have a singing face."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Girls' League Representative 1, 2; Junior and Senior Glee Clubs 1, 2, 3, 4; A Cappella Choir 4; Literary Club 4; Girls' Leaders Corps 3, 4. Never tardy; no demerits. Kinsella School.

Annaruth is our contribution to the musical world. Her deep, husky voice has often delighted and thrilled Bulkeley students. But her voice is not her only claim to popularity, for she has been prominent in other extra-curricular activities as well.

LORRAINE ANN LEAVITT "Sis"

"There is a garden in her face."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Girls' League 1, 2, 3; Swimming Club 2. Never tardy; no demerits. Southwest School.

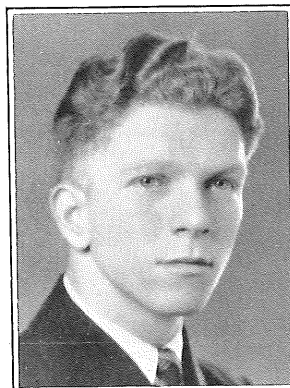

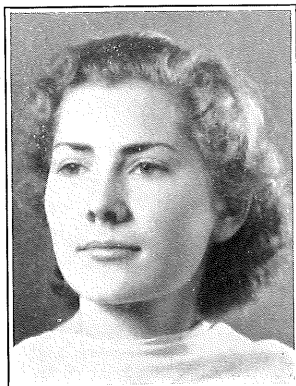

"Sis" is one of the most attractive girls in our class. She has the rare combination of looks and personality.

ROBERT EDWARD LEE "Bob"

"I have learned to prize the quiet lightning deed, not the applauding thunder at its heels that men call fame."

A. A. 2, 3, 4; Art Club 4. Never tardy. North Tonawanda High School, N. J.

Bob is small and has flaming red hair, but not the characteristic fiery temper. Instead he is pleasant and jolly. With his natural speed, he should have been a help to the track team.

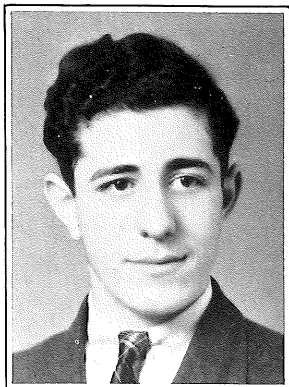

DOROYTH ELIZABETH LE GEYT "Doris"

"O! she will sing the savageness out of a bear."

Upper Class Choir 3, 4; Glee Club 3, 4; Girls' Biology Club 3, 4; Radio Club 3, 4. Never absent; never tardy; no demerits. Burr Junior High School.

Doris was one of the song birds of our class. We were all proud of the appearances she made outside of school, and wished that she could have made more of them in Bulkeley.

SEBASTIAN RICHARD LEGGIO

"Subby"

"It is not permitted us to know everything."

Parnassus Club 3; Boys' Club 3, 4; Boys' Glee Club 3, 4; Librarian 4; Upper Class Choir 3, 4; A Cappella Choir 3, 4; History-Civics Club 3, 4; Legislative Club 3, 4; First Scholarship Prize 1; Honor Society 4. Chauncey Harris School. Trinity College.

"Subby" was a welcome addition to any classroom or club because of his original type of "wise-crack." He knew all the answers and let it be known that his favorite historian was Muzzy.

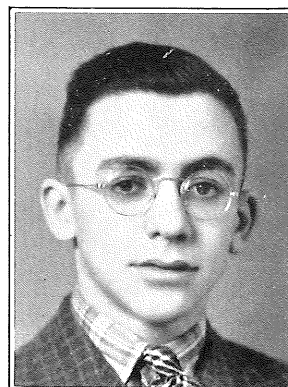

JOSEPH LEONHARDT LEIST, JR.

"Joe"

"Unmannerly a little is better than troublesome a great deal."

Boys' Club 4. Washington Street School.

If Joe succeeds in attending to his own business in life as he has done in school, he will never be called meddlesome or annoying.

LORRAINE ALMA LE LACHEUR

"Come, give us a taste of your quality."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Girls' League 1, 2, 3, 4; Literary Club 3, 4; Classical Club 3, 4; Camera Club 4; Mathematics Club 4. Never tardy; no demerits. Naylor School. St. Joseph College.

Although Lorraine did not talk much, she said a lot in a very few words. Her blushing has been a source of amusement and curiosity to her friends.

ESTHER MARIA LEONARD

"Es"

"The language denotes the woman."

A. A. 4; Girls' Swimming Club 3. Never tardy; no demerits. Seventh Day Adventist Church School.

Esther seems to be the kind of girl who has an unusual affinity for linguistics. This is proven by her activity in the German class. Probably some day she will return to Bulkeley as a teacher of languages.

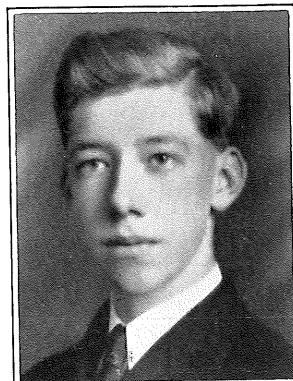

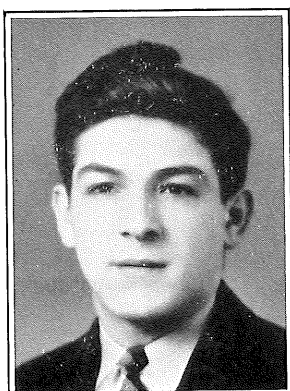

JOHN JOSEPH LESICZKA

"Soft is the music that would charm forever."

Boys' Club 4. Burr Junior High School.

John was small in stature but dynamic in appeal when he sat at the right end of his horn in the newly-organized school band.

DOMINIC FRANCIS LETIZIO

"Shorty"

"Mirth and motion prolong life."

Never tardy. Burr Junior High School.

"Shorty" certainly was a dynamo for work. As soon as school was out he hurried uptown to conduct his newspaper business. This did not affect his school life, however, for he was always surrounded with friends during second recess.

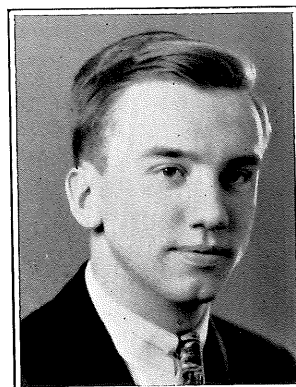

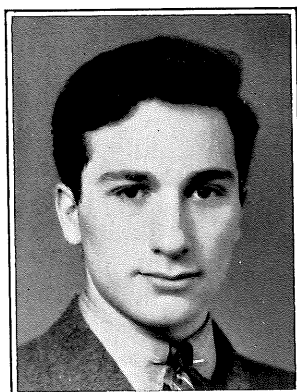

GEORGE HARVEY LEVESQUE

"Slim"

"Stately and tall he moves in the hall."

A. A. 3, 4; Boys' Club 3, 4; Honor Society 4; Football 3, 4, Letter 3, 4; Basketball 2, 3, 4, Letter 3, 4; Baseball 3, 4; Yale Tournament Medal 1936. Never absent. Van Sickle Junior High School, Springfield, Mass. Boston University.

We often hear people remark that studies and athletics do not mix well, but "Slim" has proven the exception to the rule. He has been equally proficient whether on the gridiron, diamond, basketball court, or in the classroom.

HENRY LEVY

"Lev"

"Forsake not an old friend; for the new is not comparable to him."

Washington Street School. University of Southern California.

"Lev" has a retiring but amiable nature. He impresses us as one who would be a real "friend in need."

PATRICIA IRENE LEWIS
"Patty"

"Speech is great; but silence is greater."

A. A. 4; Girls' League 3. Never tardy; no demerits. Burr Junior High School. Merchants and Bankers Business School.

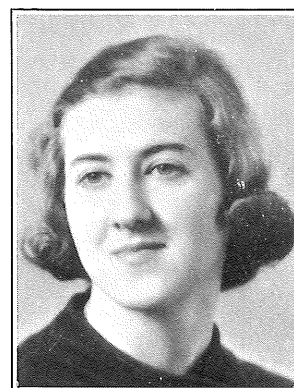

Patty is a girl of few words, but we know she has some bright ideas in the back of her mind. Why not let us in on them, Patty? Could it be bashfulness that holds you back?

GLORIA ELIZABETH LINDNER
"Glo"

"Live to study hard, think quietly, talk frankly."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Girls' League 1, 2, 3, 4, Room Representative 3, 4; Camera Club 3, 4, Executive Council 4; Dial Editorial Board 4; Honor Society 4. Never absent; never tardy; no demerits. Southwest School. Miss Marchant's Secretarial School.

One of our quieter girls, Glo with her gracious manner served as a model many freshmen would do well to follow. She proved that one does not have to be noisy to be popular.

MARIAN DOROTHY LINDNER
"Dockie"

"A deep, genuine sincerity is the foremost characteristic of all people."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Girls' League 1, 2, 3, 4; Girls' Swimming Club 3, 4, Vice-President 4; Glee Club 2; Choir 1, 3, 4; Girls' Biology Club 2, 3, 4, Secretary 3, President 4; Honor Society 3, 4; Room Treasurer; Pin and Ring Committee. No demerits. Southwest School. Cambridge Secretarial School.

"Dockie" is a good sport both socially and athletically. On the dance floor or in the classroom she was always the center of attraction. During her four years at B. H. S. she has been an ardent rooter for the athletic teams.

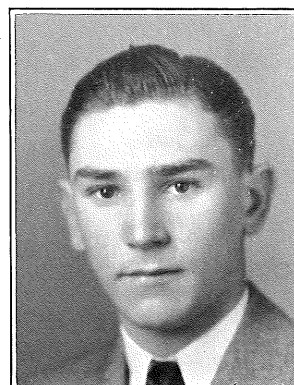

GEORGE HOWARD LINGSWEILER
"Howie"

"It is a silly game where nobody wins."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Boys' Club 1, 2, 3, 4; Junior Glee Club 1. Never tardy. Southwest School. Trinity College.

Howard never entered into sports very much, but he was always an interested spectator. He is very courteous and an excellent listener.

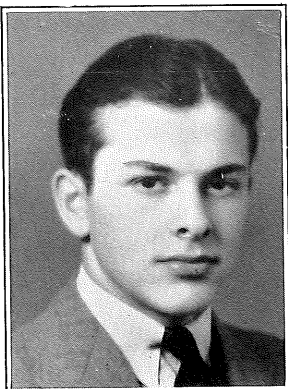

MARCELLA ANGELICA LIZZI
"Marce"

"Early and provident fear is the mother of safety."

Girls' Glee Club 2. Never tardy. Weaver High School.

Marcella says little and keeps to herself, but the friends she does make are true ones. She takes everything calmly and has the gift of always being able to look on the bright side of life.

JAMES JOHN LOMBARDO
"Jimmy"

"Cheerful at morn he wakes from short repose."

Never tardy. Burr Junior High School.

Jim is well known because of his cheery smile and friendly attitude. He always had a good word for everyone: therefore all his classmates admired him greatly.

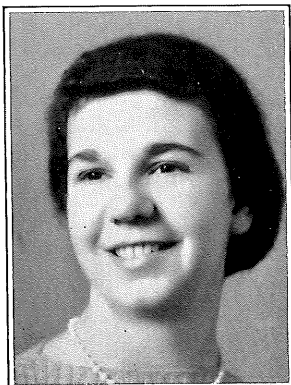

JOHN COOPER LONG
"J. L."

"Who can enjoy alone?"

A. A. 4; Boys' Club 3; Edison Club 4; Ping-Pong Club 3, 4, Fifth Member 4; Track Team 3, 4, Letter 4. Never tardy. St. Thomas Seminary. Connecticut State College.

Johnny always seemed to be developing great plans for the future. At least, that is the impression one received on looking into Mr. Weaver's Chem class. But Johnny's thoughts seemed far from chemistry when it came his turn to recite.

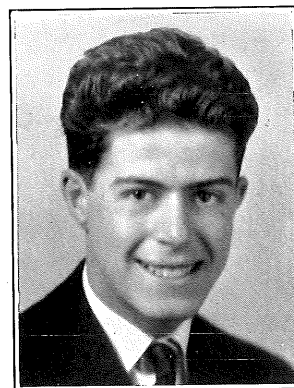

ELNA PAULINE LUDKE
"El"

"Depend on no man, on no friend, but him who can depend on himself."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Girls' League 1, 2, 3, 4; Pin and Ring Committee 4; Gregg Complete Theory Test; Gregg A. G. A.; 60-Word Gregg Test; 80-Word Gregg Test. Southwest School.

Elna's quiet reserve did not indicate a shyness, but rather was her way of not depending upon others. A fine mind and a strong will were hers.

ALISON JANE LUDWIG
"Al"

"Purpose is but the slave to memory."

A. A. 2, 3, 4; Girls' League 2, 3, 4; Ni-No-Van 3, 4; Honor Society 4. Never absent; never tardy; no demerits. Burr Junior High School.

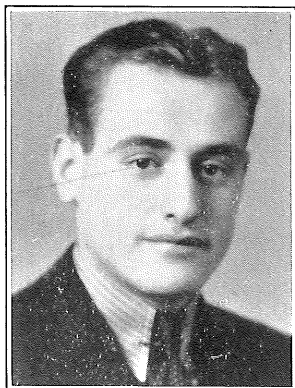

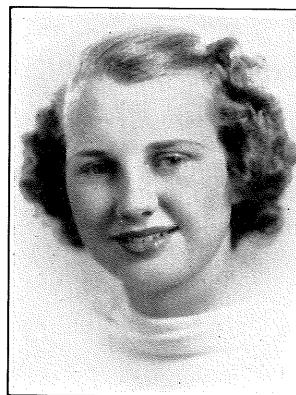

Soft-spoken Al is a girl with a "mind for memory." Her recitations always impressed her classes, and besides being an all-around scholar Al was also known for her pleasant personality.

ELSIE LENA LUDWIG
"El"

"The only way to have a friend is to be one."

A. A. 2, 3; Girls' League 2, 3, 4; Swimming Club 4; Commercial Club 4. Never tardy; no demerits. Burr Junior High School.

Elsie was one of the most sympathetic and admirable girls we have been privileged to associate with. She is one of the minority who never slight an old acquaintance.

JOSEPH PAUL LUMBRUNO
"Joe"

"Jest and youthful jollity."

A. A. 2, 3, 4; Boys' Club 2, 3, 4; Boys' Swimming Club 3, 4; Freshman Football 1; Football Squad 2; Inter-class Basketball 2, 3. Henry Barnard School.

Despite a brusque manner, Joe found popularity in school. His smile betrays a tendency to pranks and practical joking.

AMELIA ANN LUPACCHINO
"Molly"

"And certainly, she was a good fellow."

A. A. 2, 3, 4; Girls' League 2, 3, 4; Girls' Swimming Club 4; Commercial Club 4; Literary Club 4; Girls' Volley Ball 3; Girls' Kickball 3, 4; O. C. A.; Theory Test; 60-80-Word Test. No demerits. Burr Junior High School.

Amelia has proved to be a grand secretary to one of our teachers and should not find it hard to obtain a position after school. Her winning smile will help her in that endeavor.

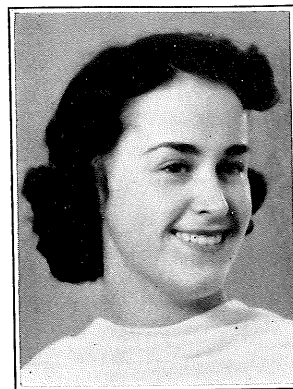

MARJORIE ALICE LUSCOMB

"Margie"

"The king himself has follow'd her when she has walk'd before."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Upper Class Choir 2, 3, 4; Junior Glee Club 1; Girls' Glee Club 3, 4, President 4; Girls' Leaders Corps 3, 4; Commercial Club 3, 4, President 4; National Honor Society 4; A Cappella Choir 4; Torch Bookkeeper 2, 3, Assistant Business Manager 4; Business Manager of the Class Book; Kickball 3; Volley Ball 3. No demerits. Southwest School. Colby Junior College.

Marge is not only one of the most attractive girls in the class but also one of the most earnest helpers in all activities. As Business Manager of the Class Book and Bookkeeper of the Torch, she has shown organization and executive ability which make certain a successful future.

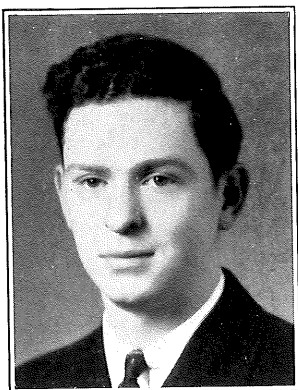

RADFORD WESTON LUTHER

"Red"

"As good natured a man as ever broke bread."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Boys' Club 1, 2, 3, 4; Edison Club 4; Boys' Biology Club 4; Boys' Swimming Club 2, 3; Senior Dramatic Club 4; Mathematics Club 4; Track Team 2, 3, 4. No demerits. Southwest School. University of Maine.

"Red" spoiled all theories about a quick temper's accompanying red hair, for he will be remembered by many for his jovial personality. The amusing tale of how "Red's" hair turned to such a dazzling shade should be known to all humor fans.

MARY KATHRYN LYNCH

"A fair exterior is a silent recommendation."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Girls' League 1, 2, 3, 4; Junior Dramatic Club 1, 2; Art Club 2, 3, 4, Fifth Member 2, 3; Torch Business Board 2; Torch Editorial Board 3, 4, Assistant Editor 4; Senior Dramatic Club 3, 4; Girls' Leaders Corps 3, 4; National Honor Society 4; Student Council 2, 3, Secretary 3; Junior Prom Committee; Kickball 3; Volley Ball 3. Southwest School. St. Joseph College.

Mary seemed to be a magnet for the male sex everywhere she went, for her popularity at dances was enviable. She has a pleasing personality and was always smart in appearance.

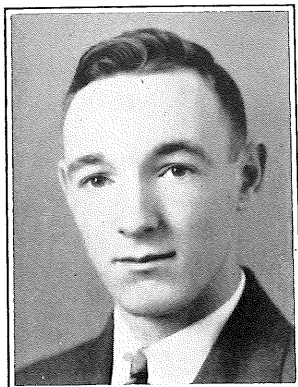

STEPHEN EDWARD LYNCH

"Steve"

"Of my own spirit let me be."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Boys' Club 4; Glee Club 4; Baseball 2, 3, 4, Letter 2, 3, 4, Gold Baseball 4; Inter-class Basketball 1, 2, 3; Torch Board 4; Boys' Swimming Club 4. Never tardy. St. Augustine's School. St. Bonaventure College.

For three years, Steve has been a mainstay on "Babe" Allen's baseball team. Rival pitchers, who at first took "Steve" lightly because of his slight build, learned to respect him after they saw his work at the plate.

HELEN LOUISE VIRGINIA MADDEN
"Penny"

"Faithful friends are hard to find."

Girls' League 1. Weaver High School.

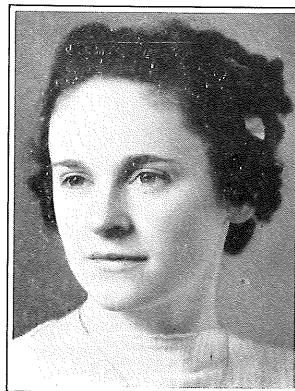

Penny possessed a creative mind which found an outlet in interior decorating and clothes designing. To illustrate the practicality of her ingenuity she was often seen wearing some of her own creations.

EVA CECELIA MAC INNES
"Eve"

"We are more sociable, and get on better with people by the heart than the intellect."

A. A. 2, 3, 4; Girls' League 2, 3, 4. Never tardy; no demerits. Burr Junior High School.

Eve is that sociable, friendly type of girl whom we all like to have near at hand. To add to her social graces, she is one of our best dancers.

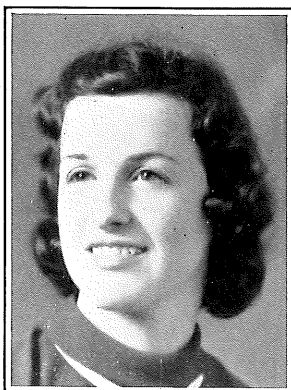

DOROTHY CHARLOTTE MADIGAN
"Dot"

"There is nothing at all in life except what we put there."

A. A. 2, 3, 4; Girls' League 2, 3, 4. No demerits. Burr Junior High School.

Dot didn't participate in many school activities; but perhaps she had other interests! At any rate, she made a number of good friends.

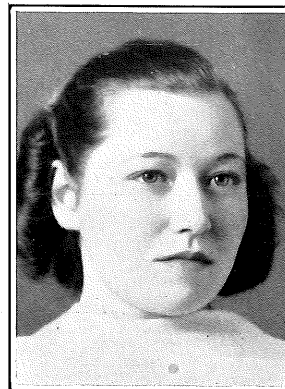

ISABELLE EDITH MAGEE
"Issy"

"She has calm good sense."

Girls' League 4. Never tardy; no demerits. Burr Junior High School. Hartford Hospital Training School.

It seems to us that Isabelle is one of the most conscientious girls in our class, and she certainly has profited from her devotion to her work. We think that her interest in Chemistry will help her to success in nursing.

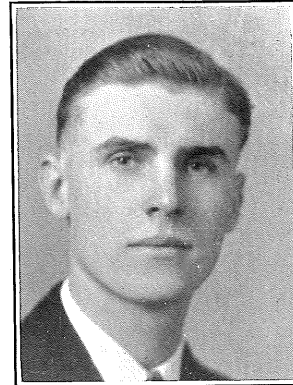

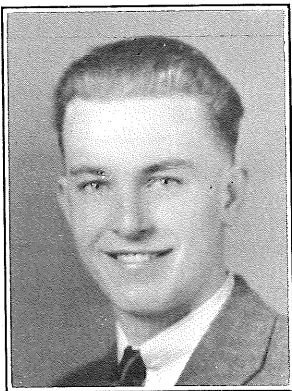

JOHN FRANCIS MAHON
"Mac"

"Here's nothing but fair play, and all above board."

A. A. 3, 4; Boys' Club 3; Parnassus Club 3; Boys' Swimming Club 3, 4; Track Team 3, 4; Letter 4; Football Team 3, 4; Letter 4. St. Augustine's School. Fordham University.

In the classroom and corridors John is a quiet, slightly bashful fellow, but rumor has it that he is quite different once he is free of this great institution. If you ever want to find John, look for his inseparable chum, the Casanova of Bulkeley.

WILLIAM JOSEPH MAHONEY
"Bill"

"The man who smokes, thinks like a sage, and acts like a Samaritan."

A. A. 3, 4; Boys' Club 2, 3, 4; Table Tennis Club 3, 4; Swimming Club 2, 3, 4. Never tardy.

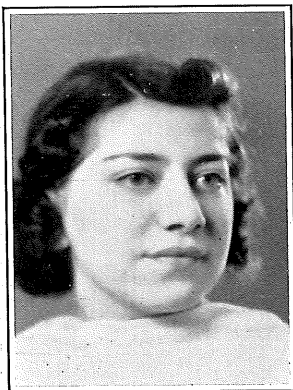

Bill was one boy who believed in being individual. He liked his pipe, and cut quite a picture as he smoked on the way to school every morning.

MARGARET ALICE MAILLET
"Mary"

"I envy no man that knows more than myself, but pity them that know less."

A. A. 2, 3; Girls' League 2, 3, 4, Room Representative 3; Radio Club 3; Commercial Club 4; Honor Society 4. Never tardy; no demerits. Burr Junior High School.

Margaret is one of our most smartly dressed girls, and she also possesses an air of sophistication.

MARY MALLY

"A silent address is the genuine eloquence to sincerity."

A. A. 3; Girls' League 3, 4. Never tardy. Burr Junior High School.

Mary, one of our tiniest girls, has proved to be the ideal girl friend. Just ask one of her many friends.

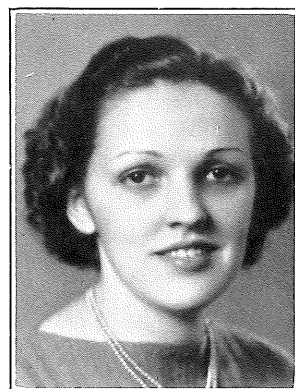

JENNIE NANCY MANCANIELLO
"Jen"

"Silence is more eloquent than words."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Girls' League, 3, 4; Girls' Swimming Club 1, 2, Secretary 3, President 4; Commercial Club 3, 4. Never tardy. Burr Junior High School. Morse Business College.

In her own quiet, unassuming manner, Jennie proved that she was one girl who knew "how to win friends and influence people." The Girls' Swimming Club enjoyed a successful season under her excellent supervision.

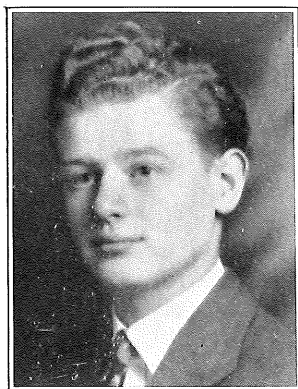

EDNA ETHEL MANDIGO
"Eddie"

"Whose life is a bubble, and in length a span."

A. A. 3, 4; Girls' League 3, 4; Girls' Swimming Club 4; Girls' Leaders Corps 4; Typist for Torch 3; Kickball Team 3. Burr Junior High School. Connecticut State College.

Edna was possessed of an abundance of energy and will power. Her love of sports and remarkable ability in them are assets few people have.

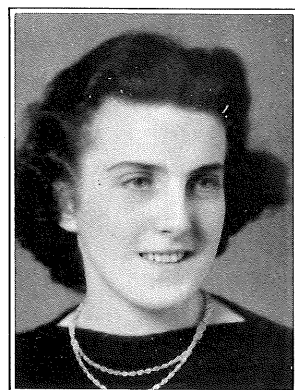

NORMAN MORTON MANN
"Norm"

"He knew whatever is to be known."

A. A. 3, 4; Boys' Club 3, 4; Junior Glee Club 1; Parnassus Club 2; A Cappella Choir 3, 4; Senior Choir 3, 4; Boys' Senior Glee Club 3, 4; Legislative Club 3, 4; History-Civics Club 3, 4; French Club 3, 4; Mathematics Club 4; Honor Society 4. No demerits. Richard J. Kinsella School. Yale University.

Norman was generally classed with our conservatives. A brilliant student, he was always ready to back up his convictions even though it entailed an argument with those in authority.

LUCILLE MARY MANSFIELD
"Lou"

"If knowledge is power, patience is powerful."

A. A. 4; Girls' League 2, 3; Ni-No-Van 3, 4, Vice-President 4. Never tardy. Burr Junior High School.

Lucille is a probable runner-up for the title of "Quietest." She has proved a great help, though, to one of our teachers. You know, Lucille, silence is a virtue.

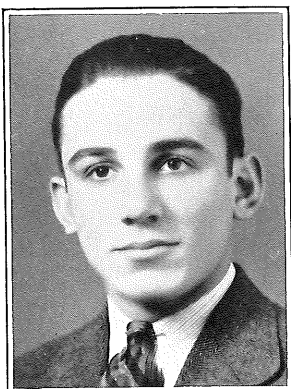

JOSEPHINE JANE MARADEI
"Jo"

"Friendship requires a steady, constant, and unchangeable character."

Girls' League 2, 3, 4. Never tardy. Burr Junior High School.

Jo has been very fond of English, and with her ability in this subject she should go far in the world of business.

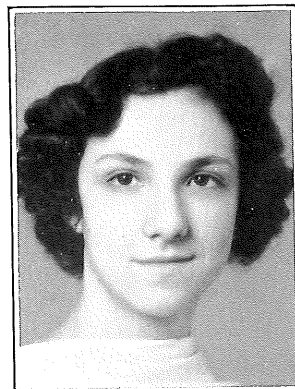

EMANUEL FRANCIS MARASCIA
"Mannie"

"Gayly the troubadour Touched his guitar."

A. A. 2, 3, 4; Boys' Club 2, 3, 4; Boys' Swimming Club 2, 3, 4; Track 3. Burr Junior High School. Northeastern University.

To find "Mannie" one need look only where there is music. As guitar player in "Tiny" Quinn's band, he has often been seen swinging out at Bulkeley dances. In a few short years "Mannie" should be right up on top in some well-known dance band.

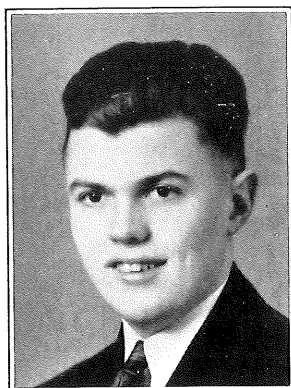

CARMELLA MARY MARCHIONDA

"A lass of infinite jest, of most excellent fancy."

A. A. 2; Girls' League 1, 2, 3; Agora 3, 4; Swimming Club 3, 4. Never tardy; no demerits. Southwest School. Morse Business College.

Carmella has a keen sense of humor which has become known to many of us. She was an enthusiastic member of all her French classes during her years with us.

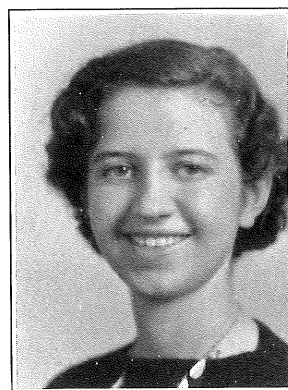

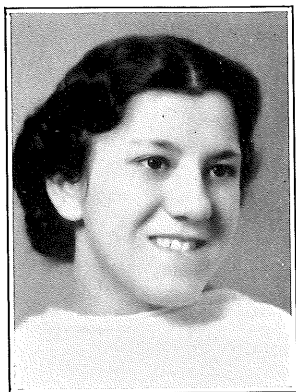

CHARLES JOHN MARTIN
"Jimmie"

"When a man finds not repose in himself it is vain for him to look elsewhere."

A. A. 2, 3, 4; Boys' Club 4. Never tardy; no demerits. Collinsville High School.

Besides attending to his studies and operating a delivery wagon for a well-known chain store, Jimmy has had time to indulge in his favorite pastime of seeing as many movies as possible.

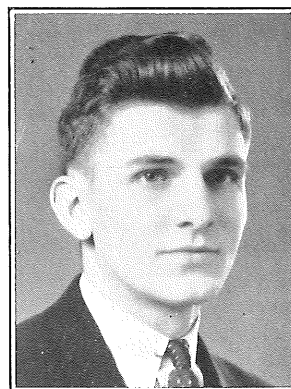

VERONICA ANGELINE MARTINO
"Vera"

"Perseverance and audacity usually win."

A. A. 3, 4; Girls' League 4. No demerits. Burr Junior High School.

Vera certainly did not spend all her time on her studies, for she was very active in sports. However, she did not neglect her studies, as shown by her English marks.

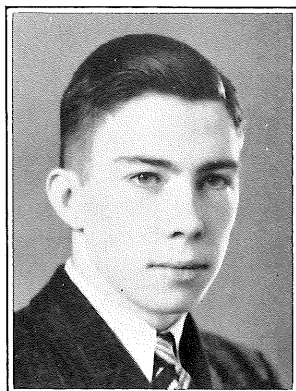

THOMAS SIDNEY MASON
"Tommy"

"There is something in the voice, the countenance, the bearing, and the gesture of a speaker."

Boys' Debating Club 3, 4, President 4; Legislative Club 3, 4, Sergeant-at-Arms 4; Editorial Board of Dial 3, 4; Boys' Swimming Club 3; Ping-Pong Club 3; Track 3. No demerits. Bloomfield High School.

When Tommy wasn't displaying his ability as a speaker, he was leaving an orange on the desk of the girl across the aisle. Tommy's collegiate hat will never be forgotten.

RICHARD EDWARD MCCABE
"Mac"

"Experience teaches slowly, and at the cost of mistakes."

A. A. 2, 3, 4; Junior Dramatic Club 1, 2; Junior Glee Club 1, 2; Student Council 1, 2; Upper Class Choir 3. Never tardy; no demerits. Washington Street School.

Dick surely ought to become a successful banker. After all the experience he has gleaned from being in charge of the classroom banking since his sophomore year, he certainly must have learned all the tricks.

BETTY ANN MCCARTHY

"Thou hast wit at will."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Girls' League 1, 2; Junior Dramatic Club 1, 2. Never tardy. St. Peter's School.

Betty always seemed to be in a good mood and to have some witty remark at the tip of her tongue. If anyone is looking for a side-splitting evening, be sure to include Betty in the crowd.

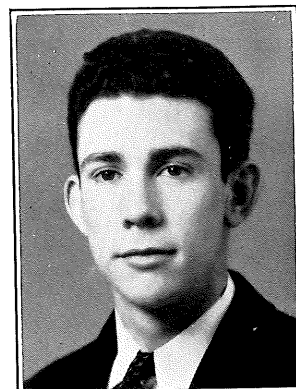

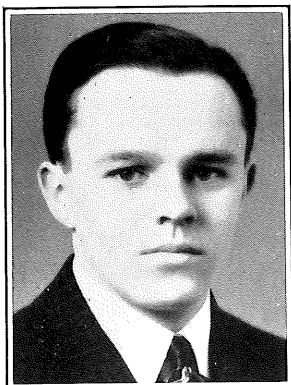

CHARLES JOSEPH MC CARTHY
"Charlie"

"Come, sit down, every mother's son, and rehearse your parts."

Junior Dramatic Club 1, 2; Senior Dramatic Club 4. St. Augustine's School.

Charlie created as many laughs for his classmates and teachers as his namesake does for the radio audiences. Heated discussion on any interesting topic was a source of joy to Charlie.

DENIS ANTHONY MC CARTHY
"Mac"

"What art was to the ancient world, science is to the modern."

A. A. 3, 4; Boys' Club 1. St. Peter's School.

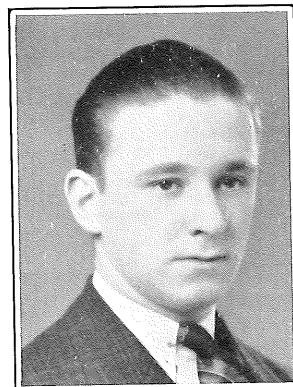

Dennie's uppermost ambition in school was to complete his seventh period lab experiments in less than the allotted time. Perhaps it is because he is a good worker with an active mind that he realized his ambition.

EDWARD HUGH MC CORMACK
"Mac"

"The prudent man looketh well to his going."

Boys' Club 1, 2, 3, 4; Honor Society 4; Parnassus Club 3, 4; Track 2, 3, 4, Letter 3, 4, Captain 4. Never absent; never tardy; no demerits. Immaculate Conception School.

The track team members chose wisely when they elected Ed their captain. His clear thinking and speedy running helped to hasten his team to victory.

MARION FLORENCE MC CROSSEN
"Mac"

"With modest dignity and calm content."

A. A. 2, 3, 4; Girls' League 2, 3; Literary Club 1; Bridge Club 1; Dramatic Club 1; History-Civics Club 4. Burr Junior High School. Hartford Hospital Nurses Training School.

Marion has a lovely pair of dark brown eyes with which she has put a certain youth under her spell. Her conscientious ways should be a great help to her at the hospital.

RUTH ELIZABETH MC CUE

"Literature is the garden of wisdom."

Girls' League 1, 4; Scribblers' Club 2, 3, 4, Secretary 4. Never tardy; no demerits. R. J. Kinsella School.

Writing poetry or short stories was not a task but rather a pleasure to Ruth. Her serious concentration and literary ability made her one of the more valuable members of the Scribblers' Club.

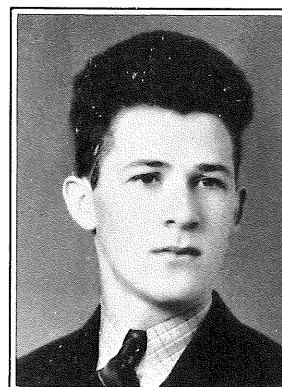

KENNETH EDWARD MC CURRY

"Ken"

"To dread no eye, to suspect no tongue, is the greatest prerogative of innocence."

Basketball Manager 4. Never tardy. Burr Junior High School.

That nice-looking boy with the wavy hair was none other than our own basketball manager. With the remarkable showing of the team this year, surely Ken deserves some credit.

ALICE PATRICIA MC DERMOTT

"I have drunk deep of joy."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Girls' League 1, 2, 3, 4, Treasurer 3, Vice-President 4; Junior Dramatic Club, Treasurer 2; Torch Business Board 2, 3, 4, Circulation Manager 3, 4; Girls' Leaders Corps 3, 4; Girls' Swimming Club 3, 4; Girls' Tennis Club 2, 3; Business Board of Class Book; Agora 3, 4. Never tardy. Washington Street School. St. Joseph College.

Although giving the appearance of a demure miss, Alice contradicted expectations by being a vivacious girl, full of giggles and good humor. Whenever a new fad or new slang word was introduced, you can be sure it was Alice's doing.

LORETTA VERONICA MC GOVERN

"Terry"

"Fortune befriends the bold."

Never tardy.

Along with her topping of red hair and a fiery disposition, "Terry" possessed an infectious sense of humor. Hers was not the kind which thrived on others' jokes, but rather that which furnished the hilarity of the moment.

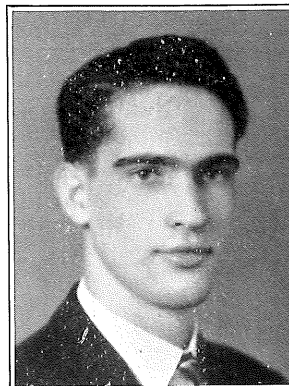

MARSHALL JAMES MC GUIRE
"Mickey"

"Men of light and leading."

A. A. 2, 3, 4; Boys' Club 2, 3, 4; Swimming Club 2, 3, 4, Treasurer 3; Radio Club 2; Boys' Debating Club 3, 4, Vice-President 4; Football Team 3, 4, Letter 4; Student Council 4; Mathematics Club 4, President 4; Track 2, 3. Never tardy; no demerits. Burr Junior High School. Massachusetts Institute of Technology.

Whenever an impressive and fluent speaker from the student body was needed to talk at meetings or assemblies, Marshall was the first to be considered. He was a big success with the fairer sex in his class, and was never missing from school affairs.

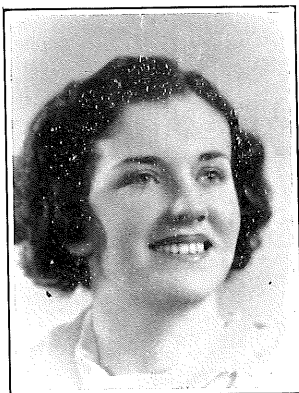

LORETTA ALICE MC KEOUGH
"Laurie"

"Her talents were of the more silent class."

Gregg Shorthand Certificate 3. St. Peter's School.

Loretta's beauty equals her quietness. Even when people aren't aware of her conversation, they immediately notice her good looks.

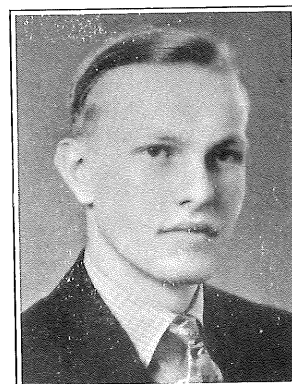

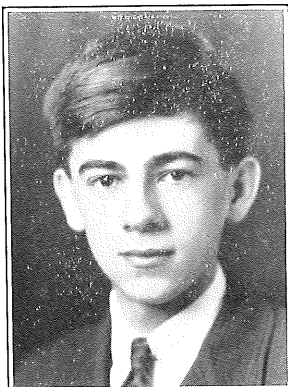

RICHARD RISLEY MC KINNEY
"Dick"

"A merry heart doeth good like a medicine."

A. A. 2, 3, 4; Boys' Club 2, 3, 4; Mathematics Club 4. No demerits. Burr Junior High School. Trinity College.

"Blondie" knew how to apply himself to his books as well as have fun. His intimate classmates knew him as a congenial, good-natured friend with a keen appreciation of humor.

IAN HOTCHKISS MC LAREN
"Mac"

"Our ideals are our better selves."

A. A. 1, 2, 3; Boys' Club 1, 2, 3, 4; Parnassus Club 3, 4; Debating Club 4; Legislative Club 3, 4; National Honor Society 3, 4; Mathematics Club 4. Never tardy; no demerits. Southwest School. Trinity College.

Ian was slow to speak when called on, but he never failed to give the correct answer. His teachers esteemed him highly for his clear, intelligent thinking.

HELEN MARY MCNALLY

"Sweets to the sweet."

A. A. 2, 4; Girls' League 1, 2, 3, 4; Girls' Leaders Corps 4; Commercial Club 3, 4; Torch Business Board 3, 4; Honor Society 4; Room Treasurer 4; Junior Prom Committee 3. Never tardy; no demerits. Washington Street School. Bay Path Institute.

Helen always impressed us as a girl with a sweet disposition and an understanding nature. Endowed with an unusual amount of intelligence, she placed herself in the upper part of her class, and had an abundance of friends.

MARY HELEN MEANEY

"Mae"

"She can be imitated by none, nor paralleled by any but by herself."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Girls' League 1, 2, 3, 4, Room Representative, Lower Class Secretary 2, Secretary 3, President 4; Torch Business Board 2, 3, 4, Assistant Business Manager 4; Junior Dramatic Club 1, 2, Secretary 1, Vice-President 2; Classical Club 1, 2; Junior Glee Club 1, 2; Senior Dramatic Club 3, 4, Fifth Member 3, Vice-President 4; Girls' Glee Club 3, 4; Honor Society 3, 4, President 4; Student Council 2, 3, 4; Girls' Leaders Corps 3, 4, Vice-President 3; Dial Board 4; Mathematics Club 4; Editorial Board of Class Book; Kickball; Volley Ball; Second Scholarship Prize 1, 3. Never tardy; no demerits.

Exceptionally active in extra-curricular activities, Mae proved her executive ability by holding many of the more important offices in the school. Skate, dance, sing, talk—each she could do with equal ease and proficiency, thus making herself one of the most popular girls in any gathering.

FRANCES PALMA MERLO

"Frannie"

"Wit that can call forth smiles even from mourners."

A. A. 2, 3, 4; Girls' League 2, 3, 4; Girls' Swimming Club 2, 3, 4; Commercial Club 3, 4; Camera Club 3, 4. Burr Junior High School. Morse Business College.

Frances keeps everyone laughing with her witty jokes. Where there is gaiety you are sure to find Frances.

BARBARA ANN MEYERS

"Bob"

"Her voice was ever soft."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Girls' League 1, 2, 3, 4; Tennis Club 2; Girls' Swimming Club 3. Never tardy. Southwest School. Miss Marchant's Secretarial School.

Bob's golden locks were the envy of many girls in our class. She never became very well known to all of us, but she has a close circle of intimate friends.

RALPH FRANCIS MICALI
"Mack"

"Nothing great was ever achieved without enthusiasm."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Boys' Club 2, 3, 4; Ping-Pong Club 3, 4; Inter-class Basketball 1, 2, 3. Never tardy. Burr Junior High School. Bay Path Institute.

Mack always considered himself quite a gift to the ladies, but we think he is a far better ping-pong enthusiast.

JENNIE ANN MIELE
"Jen"

"A diligent scholar and the master's paid."

A. A. 2, 3; Girls' League 2, 3, 4. Never tardy; no demerits. Burr Junior High School.

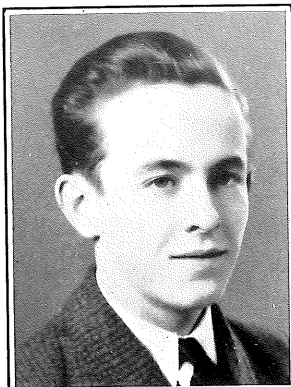

One really had to know Jennie to appreciate her friendly qualities. Unfortunately, her quietness kept this fact from many members of the class. But this was not lost, for those who do know her realize what the others have missed.

ROBERT ABRAHAM MILCO
"Bob"

"Many men may be capable of doing a wise thing, more a cunning thing, but very few a generous thing."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Boys' Club 1, 2, 4. No demerits. Burr Junior High School.

Bob had a vast amount of information about a vast number of subjects. We shall always think kindly of Bob because he was so willing to impart his knowledge at the slightest provocation.

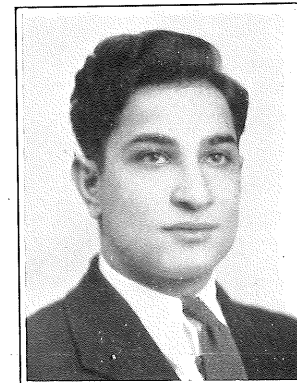

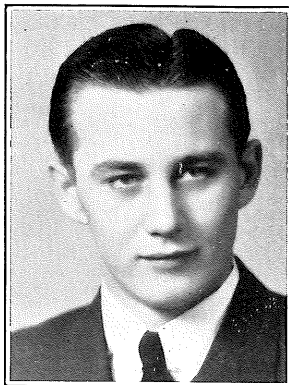

JOHN OSCAR MILES
"Spanky"

"Music is in all growing things."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Boys' Club 1, 2, 3, 4; School Band 4. Never tardy. Washington Street School.

Although "Spanky" was below the average in stature, we were well aware of his presence among us. He did a fine job of playing the cymbals in the school band.

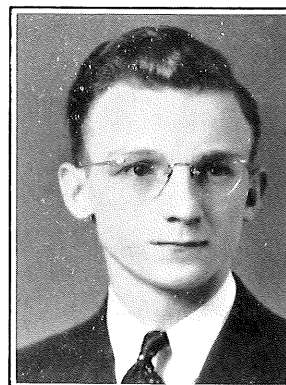

WILLIAM JOHN MILEWSKI
"Big Boy"

"Strength is born in the deep silence."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Boys' Club 2, 3, 4; Baseball 3, 4, Gold Baseball 3. Washington Street School. Fordham University.

Bill is quite a capable baseball player who would certainly have been an honor student if he had hit the books half as hard as he belted the baseball. His popularity at Bulkeley was obtained through a sense of humor and extreme friendliness.

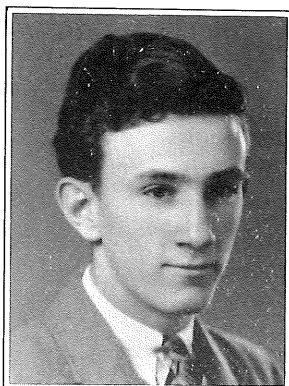

WILLIAM JOSEPH MILIKOWSKI
"Bill"

"Silence is more eloquent than words."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Boys' Club 1, 2, 3, 4. Chauncey Harris School. University of Southern California.

Bill is a silent fellow with a host of friends. His attractive smile and sense of humor have made him popular with the girls as well as the boys.

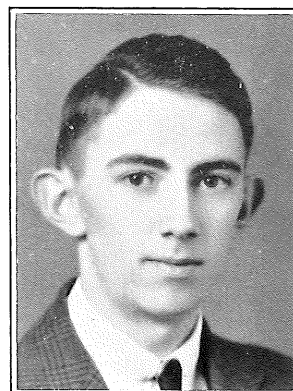

JOHN FRANCIS MILLER
"Wrangler."

"And hears the stormy music in the drum."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Boys' Club 1, 2, 3, 4, Treasurer 4; Baseball 2, 3, 4, Gold Baseball 2. Naylor School. Duke University.

Behind John's supposedly quiet and bashful nature is a fine baseball player. Many times it was John's work that saved the day for our team. He also has a secret craze for Benny Goodman.

LLOYD CHARLES MILLER

"True dignity abides with him alone."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Boys' Club 2, 3, 4. Never tardy; no demerits. Southwest School. Colgate College.

Lloyd was one of the most reserved members of our class, yet dignified, mannerly, and friendly. Occasionally he could be seen strolling through the park with a girl, proving that we were not the only ones who enjoyed his company.

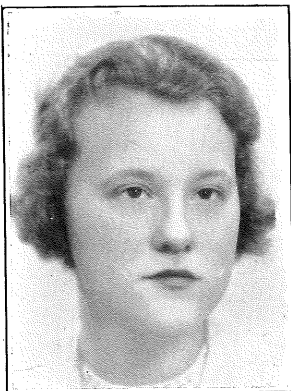

MARIA ANNA MILLER
"Mitzie"

"Devout yet cheerful, active yet resigned."

Girls' Glee Club 4; Ni-No-Van; A Cappella Choir 4. Never tardy; no demerits. Burr Junior High School. McKeown Secretarial School.

Maria is the kind of girl who always has the right answer for any question. She was a valued member of the A Cappella Choir, which is proof enough of her fine character.

MARJORIE BARBARA MILLER
"Marge"

"Words of truth and soberness."

Never tardy; no demerits. Naylor School.

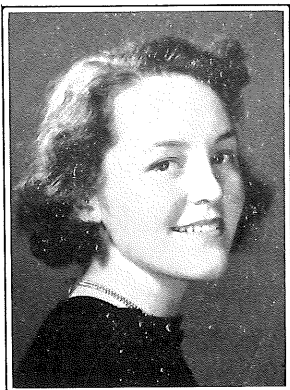

Marge is often serious, but is quite capable of holding her own at times when it comes to fun. She has a very agreeable disposition.

CECELIA ELIZABETH MISTERKA
"Cis"

"There's little of the melancholy element in her."

A. A. 2, 4; Girls' League 2, 4; Commercial Club 4; 60-80-Word Gregg Transcription Awards. Never tardy; no demerits. Burr Junior High School.

Cecelia has great ability along the commercial line, and should have little trouble in finding a position.

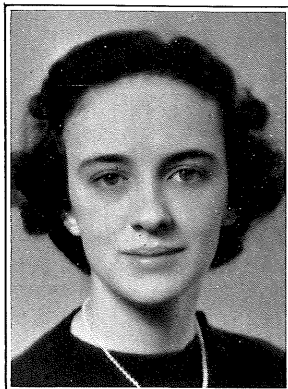

JOSEPHINE SHEILA MOFFETT
"Jo"

"Her step is music, and her voice is song."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Girls' Leaders Corps 3, 4; Girls' League 1, 2, 3, 4; Camera Club 4; Girls' Table Tennis Club 4; Mathematics Club 4; Upper Class Choir 2, 3, 4. St. Augustine's School.

Possessed of unusual charm and grace, Jo made numerous friends wherever she went. She never seemed to get upset, and her disposition can be described as smooth.

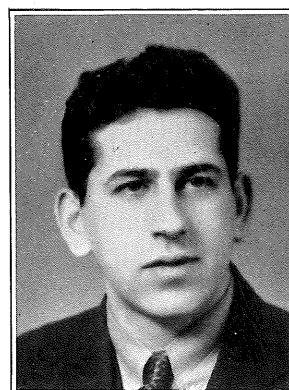

FRANCES ELIZABETH MOLLOY
"Fran"

"Hide not your talents; they for use were made."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Girls' League 1, 3, 4; Girls' Biology Club 2, 3, 4, Vice-President 4; Commercial Club 3, 4, Vice-President 4; National Honor Society 4; Gregg O. G. A. Never tardy; no demerits. Burr Junior High School.

Fran's sweet disposition is well known to many of us. Nearly every marking period her name appeared on the honor roll. She will surely make an able secretary to some executive.

ALFRED PETER MONACELLA
"Monty"

"To talk well is to know well."

Burr Junior High School.

Quiet is hardly the word which would describe Monty best. His boisterous voice could be heard long before he was seen. He claims it is better to let it out than to keep it inside.

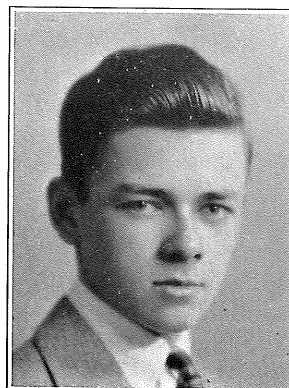

KATHLEEN TERESA MOONEY
"Kate"

"Vivacity is the gift of women."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Girls' League 1, 2, 3; Golf Club 2, 3; Swimming Club 3; Kickball Team 3. Southwest School. Bay Path Institute.

Kate always seemed to be bubbling over with life and fun. Never was she dull for a moment. Kate was also an attractive dresser.

PHILIP STAFFORD MORAN
"Phil"

"What will be will be well, for what is is well."

A. A. 1, 2; Boys' Club 1, 2, 3; Biological Repertory 2. Never tardy. Southwest School. Tufts College.

Only his most intimate friends knew that serious Phil's hobby was modeling miniature airplanes. May you always be so high-minded, Phil.

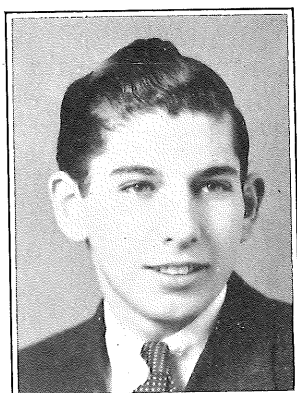

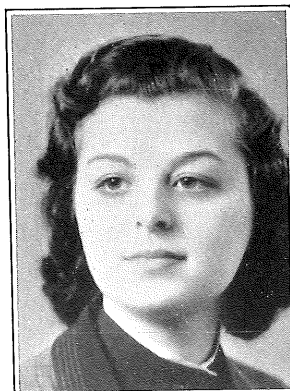

CONSTANCE RITA MORELLI
"Connie"

"All succeeds with people who are of sweet and cheerful disposition."

Girls' League 1, 2; Girls' Leaders Corps 4; Senior Orchestra 1, 2, 3. Never tardy. Burr Junior High School.

Connie is quite a charmer among the boys. Little wonder, with her winning smile and radiant personality.

ALBERT WILLIAM MOREY
"Al"

"All his faults are such that one loves him still the better for them."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Boys' Club 1, 2, 3, 4; Boys' Biology Club 4. Never tardy. St. Peter's School.

Al knew how to take things easily in more than one sense of the word. This habit of his did not result in slipshod work, however—perhaps because he knew how to dilute it in correct proportions.

VERONICA ANN MORRIS
"Vonnie"

"Punctuality is the soul of business."

Girls' League 4. Never tardy; no demerits. Burr Junior High School. Bay Path Institute.

Vonnie was always reserved. She took her studies seriously, but profited from them. She always had a pleasant disposition which won her a close circle of intimate friends.

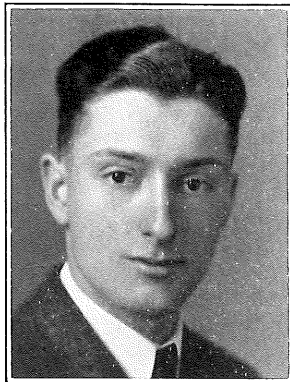

IRENE MORROW
"Sis"

Never tardy. Public School No. 8, Jersey City, N. J.

"Sis" came from New Jersey, but she was not long in making a host of friends. Her sincere companionship was well known to many.

NICHOLAS MARIUS MOTTO
"Nick"

"The basis of good manners is self-reliance."

Boys' Club 1, 2, 3, 4; Legislative Club 3, 4; French Club 3, 4; Dial 2, 3, 4, Assistant Business Manager 4, Publicity Manager 4; Track Team 2, 3, 4; Honor Society 4. Never tardy. Southwest School. Trinity College.

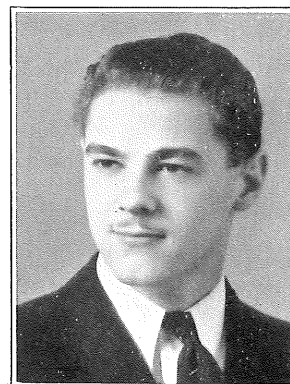

Nick was the possessor of a dominant personality, for he was the acknowledged leader of his set of friends. He was a willing worker—especially for the Dial Business Board.

FRANCIS RUSSELL MOTTRAM
"Foo"

"So much one man can do
That does both act and know."

A. A. 2, 3, 4; Boys' Club 2, 3, 4; Junior Dramatic Club 2; Senior Dramatic Club 3, 4; Stage Manager and Electrician 3, 4; Torch Advertising Manager 3, 4; Assistant Business Manager of Class Book; Honor Society 4. Burr Junior High School.

Sincere and ambitious in his work, witty in his spare moments is Frank. His work as electrician, technician, and actor in the Senior Dramatic Club will always be remembered.

MARY ROSE MOZZICATO
"Muzzy"

"She moves a goddess, and she looks a queen."

Girls' League 2. Never tardy. Burr Junior High School. Morse Business College.

"Cheerful" was the word for Mary. Her ever-present good humor did much to brighten the school corridors.

NELLIE JANET MOZZICATO
"Nell"

"Vivacity is the gift of woman."

A. A. 2, 3, 4; Girls' League 2; Dial Advertising Board 3; Dial Circulation Board 3; Dial Publicity Board 3; Secretary of Dial 4; Modern Choir 4; Commercial Club 3; Typing Staff of Torch 4. Never tardy; no demerits. Burr Junior High School.

Although diminutive in stature, Nell made up for this by having an over-abundance of vitality and energy. As secretary of the Dial, it was she who kept the business end of it running smoothly.

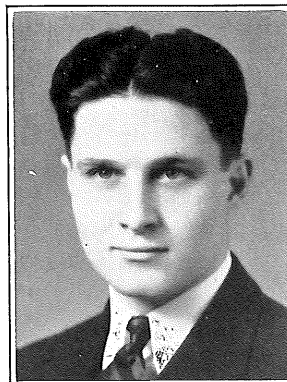

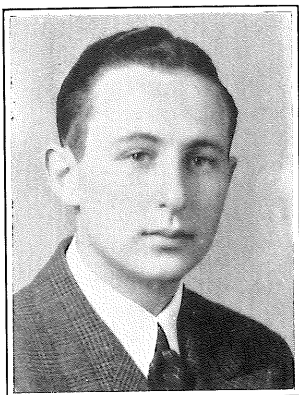

JOHN JOSEPH MULLIGAN, JR.
"Muggs"

"He possessed simplicity and liberality."

A. A. 2, 3, 4; Boys' Club 2, 3, 4. Burr Junior High School.

Quiet and dignified, Jack is one of our better liked students. His interesting conversation and unassuming manners have won for him a host of friends.

ALVIN AARON MULNICK
"Al"

"A man, wise and powerful."

Football Squad 4. Thomas Jefferson High School, New York.

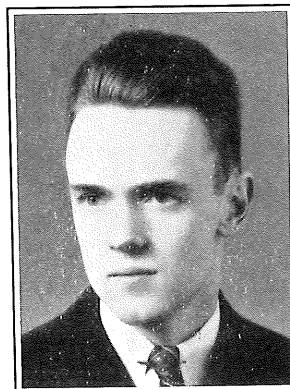

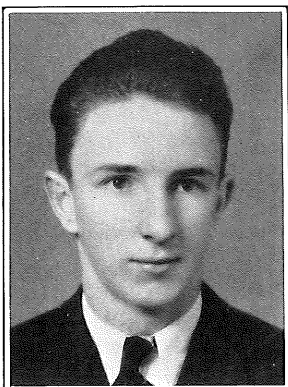

Al came to us from New York, and wasn't here long before he had taken a whole-hearted part in our social life. He was also a member of our football team.

EDWARD JOHN MULREADY

"He stands prepared to meet the worst."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Boys' Club 1, 2, 3, 4; Boys' Glee Club 1; Choir 1, 3, 4; Track 3. Washington Street School.

Ed has one of the most pleasant personalities in our class. He always has a good word for everyone as well as a pleasing smile.

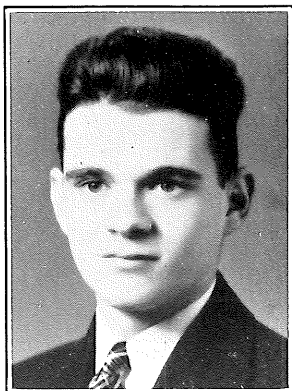

TIMOTHY FRANCIS MURNANE

"Popularity is power."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Boys' Club 1, 2, 3, 4, Vice-President 3; Student Council 1, 2, 3, 4, President 4; Legislative Club 4; Football 3, 4, Captain 4, Letter 3, 4; Inter-class Basketball 2, 3, 4; Baseball 2, 4. Never tardy. Southwest School. Georgetown University.

Not only because Frank was football captain, but also because of his unruffled disposition and smooth terpsichorean tactics, he gained friendship and popularity with both boys and girls. He may be called an "All-American" boy!

RODERICK JOHN MURRAY

"A soft answer turneth away wrath."

Legislative Club 3, 4, President 4; Boys' Debating Club 3; Boys' Biology Club 2, 3, 4, Fifth Member 4; Dial 3, 4; Torch 3, 4, Associate Editor 4. St. Augustine's School. Trinity College.

Although Rod was the butt of many a joke, he never was bothered and always could "take it." His rare kind of humor and his amazing knowledge of the New York stage could be found in his literary contributions.

DOROTHY LOUISE NELSON
"Dottie"

"Whatever is beautiful is also profitable."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Girls' League 1, 2, 3, 4; Literary Club 2, 3, 4, Secretary 4; Classical Club 2, 3, 4, Program Committee 2, 3, 4; Dial Editorial Board 3, 4; National Honor Society 4; Camera Club 4; Junior Dramatic Club 1, 2. Rotary Club Book Prize 3. Never tardy. Southwest School. Connecticut College for Women.

Dot is one girl in our class who is an exception to the rule that intelligence and good looks don't go together. She has a talent for getting good marks, and yet her beauty has attracted many.

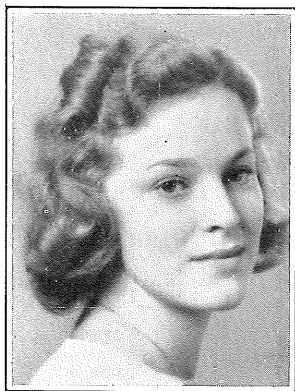

JANICE RUTH NELSON
"Jan"

"Music was a thing of the soul."

A. A. 2, 3, 4; Girls' League 1, 2, 4; Torch Editorial Board 2; Junior Glee Club 1; Senior Orchestra 1, 2, 3, 4; Upper Class Choir 2; Pianist of Upper Class Choir 3, 4; Student Council 3; Inter-High Orchestra 4. Never tardy; no demerits. Southwest School.

The striking resemblance between Jan and Anita Louise has been remarked upon many times. Being the outstanding pianist of our class, she has established herself as an artist in both classical and popular music.

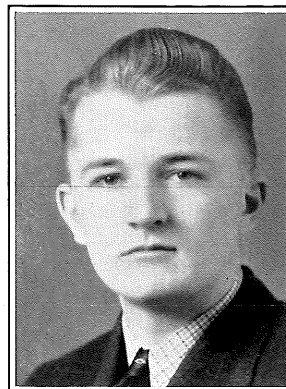

RICHARD FRANCIS NELSON
"Dick"

"It is harmful to no one to have been silent."

A. A. 2, 3, 4; Boys' Club 4. Weaver High School. Trinity College.

Dick always appeared rather sophisticated and cultured. His good looks have been noticed by many of us, and we feel he has the qualities which make up a good businessman.

LUCIE MARIE NESTOR
"Lu"

"Wit that can call forth smiles even from mourners."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Girls' League 1, 2, 3; Golf Club 3; Swimming Club 3; Kickball 3. Weaver High School. Bay Path Institute.

Lu possessed an inexhaustible supply of vitality which seemed to keep people on their toes, even her teachers. Teachers could barely keep a straight face when Lu burst forth with one of her unexpected puns.

BARBARA MILDRED NEWELL
"Barb"

"Whatever is popular deserves attention."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Girls' League 1, 2, 3, 4, Room Representative 3, 4; Junior Dramatic Club 1, 2, Treasurer 2; Senior Dramatic Club 3, 4; Girls' Leaders Corps 2, 3, 4, Treasurer 3, President 4; Agora 3, 4; Classical Club 4; Camera Club 4; Honor Society 3, 4, Treasurer 4; Torch Assistant Circulation Manager 2, Assistant Advertising Manager 3, Assistant Business Manager 4. Never absent; no demerits. Southwest School. Connecticut College for Women.

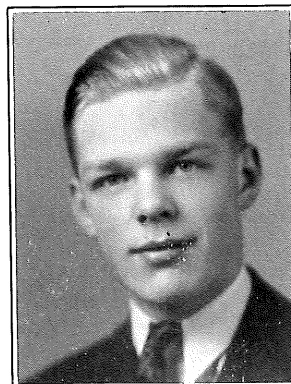

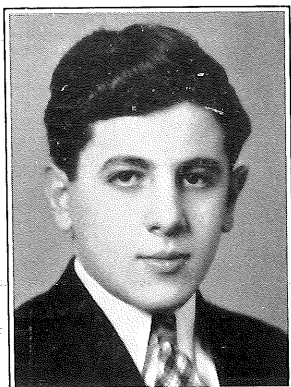

Barbara's athletic ability was rewarded when she was deservedly elected president of the Girls' Leaders Corps. Her sincerity and personality, augmented by an infectious smile, won her many true and life-long friends.

JOHN KENNETH NIELSON
"Jack"

"Faithful friends are hard to find."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Boys' Club 3, 4; Torch Business Board 2. No demerits. Southwest School. Trinity College.

The old saying, "Still water runs deep," could be applied to Jack. Although quiet in an unobtrusive way, he nevertheless had numerous friends who would stand up for him under any circumstances.

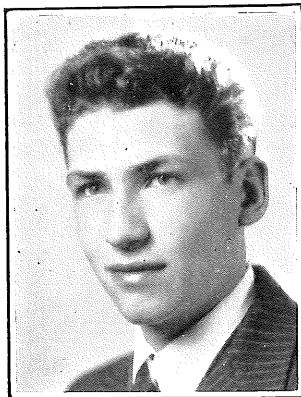

JOHN JOSEPH NIGRO
"Jack"

"A man of manners and morals."

A. A. 3; Boys' Club 2; Swimming Club 2. No demerits. Burr Junior High School. Morse Business College.

Jack was one of our classmates who devoted most of his time to outside activities, which was quite unfortunate for us, since his friends tell us he was a grand fellow.

JOSEPH FRANK NOCE

"Joe"

"If thou dost play with him at any game, thou art sure to lose."

A. A. 2, 3, 4; Boys' Club 2; Basketball 2, 3, 4, Letter 3, 4, Captain 4; Baseball 3, 4. Never absent. Burr Junior High School. Boston College.

Joe was always a star in any basketball game he participated in, which was reason enough for his being chosen captain of the team. Even those who didn't know him were attracted by his personality and smile.

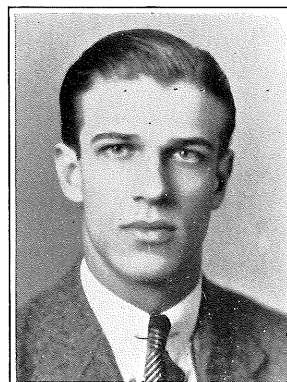

JOSEPH FRANCIS NOLAN

"Joe"

"Nothing succeeds so well as success."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Boys' Club 1, 3, 4; Art Club 4, President 4; Student Council 1, 3, 4; Legislative Club 3, 4; Mathematics Club 4; Junior Dramatic Club 1, 2; Torch Business Board 1, 2; Junior Usher. Washington Street School. Trinity College.

Besides having an amazing amount of dynamic energy which he used in his position as Business Manager of the Dial, Joe had an electric personality which attracted everyone to him. These talents are likely to help him forge ahead in the future.

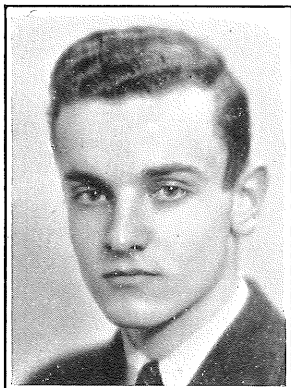

ADOLPH EDWARD NYKILS

"Eddy"

"A gentleman in all things at all times."

A. A. 1, 2, 4; Art Club 4. Washington Street School.

Eddy didn't participate in school life very much when he first entered Bulkeley, but he certainly made up for lost time during his last two years. He had the confidence and respect of all who knew him.

EVELYN MILDRED OBERMULLER

"Evie"

"A thing of beauty is a joy forever."

A. A. 2; Girls' League 2; National Honor Society 3, 4; Girls' Swimming Club 1, 3, 4; Student Council 1; Gregg O. G. A. 3; 60-Word Certificate; Complete Theory Certificate. Never tardy; no demerits. Burr Junior High School.

An air of refinement and culture surrounded Evie wherever she happened to be. Exceptionally nimble fingers turned out knitted dresses and suits which made her one of the neatest and most tastefully dressed girls in the school.

MARY ELIZABETH O'BRIEN
"Betty"

"With kindness there is true joy."

A. A. 3, 4; Girls' League 3, 4; Girls' Leaders Corps 3, 4; Girls' Biology Club 3, 4; Honor Society 4. Never tardy; no demerits. Academy of the Holy Family. St. Joseph College.

Although Betty was in Bulkeley for only two years, she made many true and lasting friendships. Her unaffected manner and genuine enthusiasm won her the respect of both teachers and pupils.

DOROTHY FRANCES O'CONNOR
"Dotty"

"I live in the crowds of jollity."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Girls' League 1, 2, 3, 4, Room Representative 1; Junior Dramatic Club 1, 2; Girls' Leaders Corps 2, 3, 4, Secretary 3, 4; Girls' Swimming Club 3, 4, Treasurer 4; Girls' Biology Club 3, 4; French Club 3, 4; National Honor Society 4; Torch Business Board 2, 3; Torch Typing Staff 4. Never tardy. Washington Street School. Mt. Holyoke College.

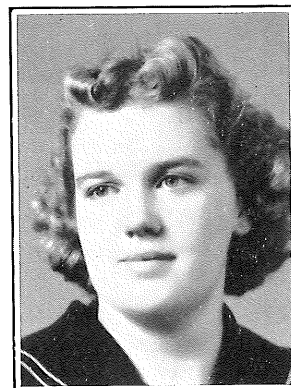

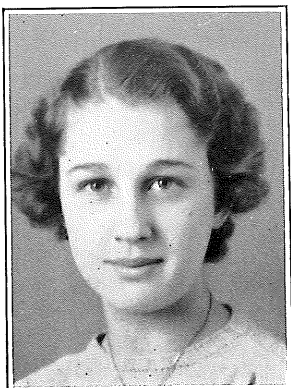

Dorothy was the kind of girl who was always "on the go." She indulged in sports and dancing, one as strenuously as the other, and could usually be found the center of an eager group of stags at any social function.

VIRGINIA MARGUERITE OKERFELT
"Ginny"

"A blithe heart makes a blooming visage."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Girls' League 1, 2, 3, 4; Junior Dramatic Club 1, 2; Classical Club 3, 4, Vice-President 4; National Honor Society 3, 4; Girls' Swimming Club 3, 4; Girls' Leaders Corps 3, 4; Agora 3, 4; Torch Business Board 2, 3, 4, Assistant Business Manager 3, 4; Class Book Business Board 4; Girls' Kick-ball and Volley Ball 3; First Scholarship Prize 1, 2. Never tardy. Southwest School. St. Joseph College.

Ginny, with her incessant good humor and bubbling personality, was one of the most popular girls in our class. Possessed of superior intelligence, she won several scholarship prizes, and is bound for future success and happiness.

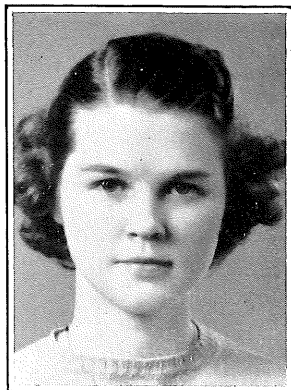

ELEANOR VIOLET OLSEN

"Private sincerity is a public welfare."

A. A. 2, 3, 4; Girls' League 1, 2, Executive Committee; Junior Glee Club 1, 2; Girls' Leaders Corps 1, 2, 3, 4. Never tardy. Southwest School.

The fact that Eleanor had the same friends in her senior year as she had when a freshman speaks well of her even temper and sincerity. But Bulkely did not see so much of her as it would have liked to, because Eleanor led her social life outside of school.

LILLIAN HELEN OLSEN
"Lil"

"Profound sincerity is the only basis of talent as of character."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Girls' League 1, 2, 3; Junior Glee Club 1, 2; Junior Dramatic Club 1, 2; Girls' Leaders Corps 3, 4. Never tardy; no demerits. Southwest School. Cambridge Secretarial School.

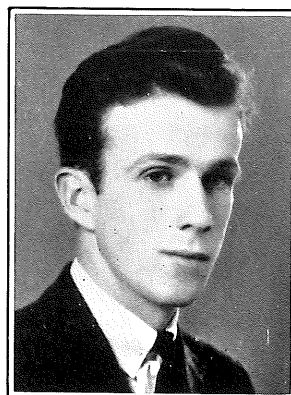

Although not very active in extra-curricular activities, Lillian had many friends both in and out of school. Most of her spare time was spent in organizing church socials and taking leading parts in club plays.

EUGENE THOMAS O'NEIL

"Better late than never."

A. A. 4; Boys' Club 4; Tennis Team 3, 4. St. Thomas Seminary.

Gene was a positively fanatical chemistry student who received good marks in the subject by sheer will power. His winning ways gained him both friends and the tennis championship in school.

MARY ELIZABETH O'NEIL

"Her ways are ways of pleasantness, and all her paths are peace."

A. A. 1, 4; Girls' League 1, 2, 3, 4; Commercial Club 3, 4; Girls' Tennis Club 2; History-Civics Club 4; Honor Society 3, 4. Washington Street School. St. Joseph College.

Mary was another "plugger" who achieved enviable marks in her studies. Dependability was ever noticeable in her character and work.

IRENE JANET OSIAS
"Rene"

"The two noblest of things which are sweetness and light."

A. A. 2, 3, 4; Girls' League 2, 3; Commercial Club 4; Swimming Club 4; Honor Society 4; Torch Business Board 4, Circulation Manager 4, Bookkeeper 4. Bay Junior High School.

Until her senior year at Bulkeley, Irene was practically unknown, but now she has leaped into the limelight. Her sweet face and equally sweet disposition helped her secure a position on the Torch Business Board.

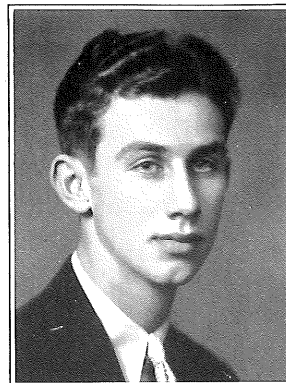

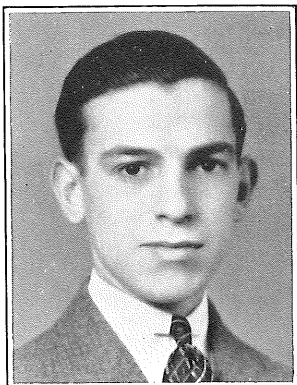

NICHOLAS WILLIAM PACELIA
"Nicky"

"He was a burning and shining light."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Boys' Club 1, 2, 3, 4; Legislative Club 4; Boys' Biology Club 2; Edison Club 4; Track Team 2, 3, 4, Letter 3, 4; Basketball 3, 4, Letter 3, 4; Football 4, Letter 4. Burr Junior High School. University of Syracuse.

Nick was the hero of many sensational athletic achievements in school. He has also been quite the apple of the girls' eyes.

JOSEPH DOMINIC PADULA
"Joe"

"Simple, modest, manly, true."

A. A. 1, 2; Boys' Club 4. Southwest School.

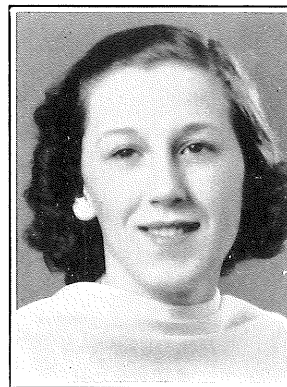

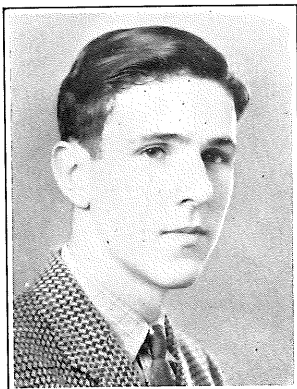

Joe certainly is one of our better-liked students. Even though he was not one of the noisiest fellows, his popularity nevertheless was assured.

LILLIAN ROSE PALKA
"Lil"

"Less judgment than wit is more sail than ballast."

A. A. 2, 3, 4; Junior Red Cross 4. William Hall High School. Business College.

Lil seldom uttered a word in answer to a teacher's question but her endless wit kept her classmates amused. Her blithe and carefree nature seemed to obliterate all worries.

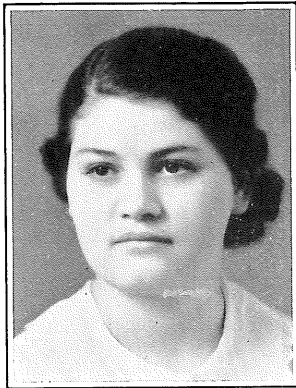

FRANCIS THOMAS PALLOTTI

"He is so good that no one can be a better man."

A. A. 2, 3; Boys' Club 2. Burr Junior High School. Trinity College.

Although Fran wasn't a social light, there were many girls in our class who were very anxious to become acquainted with him. His good looks and ability to dress well in addition to a pleasing personality have made him noticeable.

BARBARA NANCY PALMER
"Babs"

"The glass of fashion and the mold of form."

A. A. 3; Girls' League 1, 2, 3, 4; Art Club 1, 2, 3, 4; Swimming Club 2, 3, 4; Ni-No-Van Club 3, 4. Hillside Avenue School.

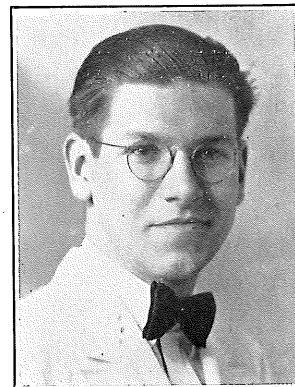

We suggest that Babs open up a dress shop, featuring all the clothes she knits herself. She will also be remembered for her cheerful "Hello."

SAXTON ARNALL PALMORE
"Sax"

"Nothing is impossible to the willing man."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Boys' Club 1, 2, 3, 4; Glee Club 1, 2, 3, 4; Camera Club 4; Dial Advertising Manager 3; Football Squad 4. Southwest Grammar School. Merchant Marine Training.

Sax's interests seemed to be entirely centered on his Biology course and on the weaker sex. It is rather hard to say which claimed most of his attention, but we have a feeling that it is the latter.

ROSE MADELINE PANFILI
"Go Go"

"Virtue is its own reward."

A. A. 2, 4; Girls' League 2, 4; Swimming Club 2, 3, 4; Commercial Club 3, 4; Girls' Leaders Corps 4; Torch Editorial Board 4; Honor Society 3, 4; Kickball 4; Volley Ball 4. Never absent. Burr Junior High School.

Here's a girl whom we all envy for her swimming ability. Perhaps we will see her name in sports headlines in the future.

MARION IRENE PANNONE
"Mayon"

"Vivacity is the gift of woman."

A. A. 4; Girls' League 2, 3, 4. Never tardy. Burr Junior High School.

A very gay and lively person was Marion. She was well liked by everyone and made many lasting friendships in her three years at Bulkeley.

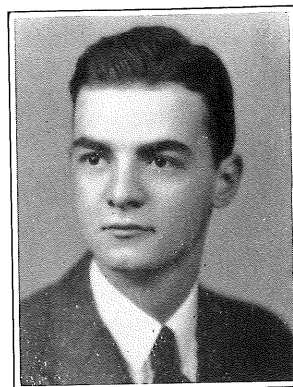

THOMAS CHARLES PAPPAGEORGE
"Papp"

"What's the use of worrying?"

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Boys' Club 1, 2, 3, 4, President 4; Honor Society 4; Student Council 2, 4, Vice-President 4; Junior Dramatic Club 1, 2; Edison Club 4; Legislative Club 4; Junior Usher 3; Torch 2, 3, 4, Editorial Board 2, Humor Editor 3, Assistant Editor 4; Football 2, 3, 4, Letter 3, 4. Never absent; never tardy. Naylor School. West Point.

"Papp" had the "gift of gab" and an obvious sense of humor which promoted him from Humor Editor to Co-Editor of the Torch. He would go out of his way many times to do someone a favor.

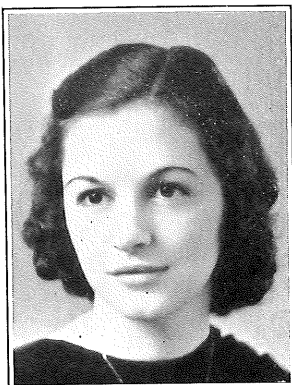

MARY JANE PARANDES
"May"

"It's a person's sincerity and depth of vision that make him a poet."

Girls' League 2, 3; Editorial Board of Torch 3. Never tardy. Burr Junior High School.

Here is a young miss who is possessed of that unusual knack of composing really good poetry. Her various contributions to the school publications were always welcome. We believe that in the near future we shall be reading her poems in the better known periodicals.

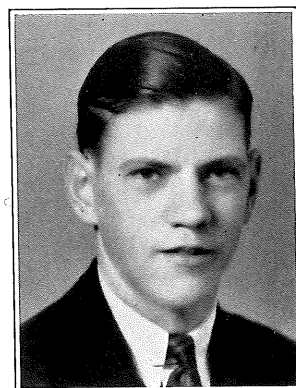

HARRY WALLACE PARKER

"Old practice is worth more than new theories."

A. A. 1, 3, 4; Boys' Club 1, 2, 3. Never tardy. Washington Street School. Hartford Trade School.

Harry had a flare for the practical side of school work, but little use for the theoretical. Trade School should give you much of the former, Harry.

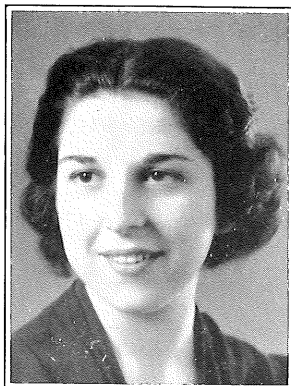

LUCILLE ANN PATERNO
"Lu"

"Ambition is an idol on whose wings great minds are carried."

A. A. 2, 3; Girls' League 2; Upper Class Choir 2, 3. Never tardy; no demerits. Southwest School. University of Alabama.

Lucille has shown herself to be full of worthwhile ambition and the ability to carry it out. She certainly deserves congratulations on completing her high school course in three years.

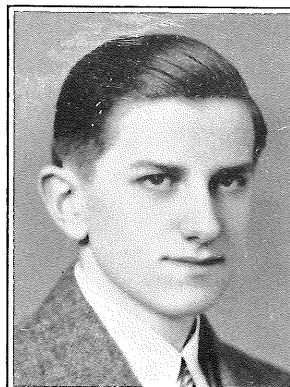

LULU ALICE PERAKOS

"Music is in all growing things."

A. A. 2; Girls' League 1, 2. No demerits. Southwest School. Lulu's interest in piano kept her very busy. As a participant in Girls' League activities she enjoyed all the affairs.

GILBERT HELMER PETERSON
"Gil"

"Speech is great; but silence is greater."

Boys' Club 4. Never tardy. Southwest School.

Gil was one of the quietest boys in our class. Despite this fact, he won recognition for his tolerant attitude toward other more rough and ready individuals.

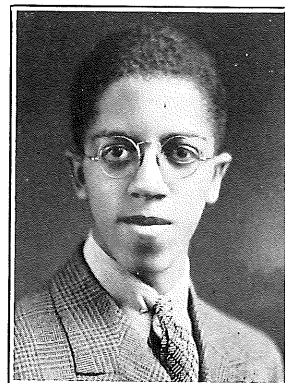

MARY FLORENCE PETERSON
"Lee"

"Gentleness succeeds better than violence."

A. A. 2, 3, 4; Girls' League 2, 3, 4; Gregg Certificates and Awards 3, 4; Honor Society 4. No demerits. Green Mountain Junior College.

We never fully appreciated Mary's presence in the class until she was, unfortunately, absent a month during her senior year. Better luck in the future!

PAUL CONNOVER PETERSON
"Pete"

"And learn the luxury of doing good."

A. A. 2, 3, 4; Boys' Club 4; Senior Choir 2; Boys' Glee Club 3, 4. Never tardy; no demerits. Burr Junior High School. Morehouse College.

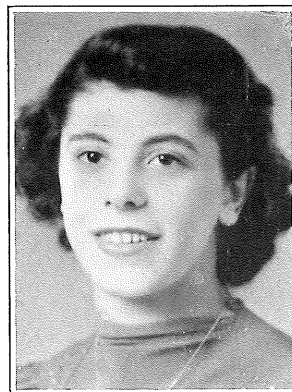

Though Paul was quiet, may it never be said that he was boring. He could often be found the center of an attentive group, rhapsodizing in his own inimitable style on the piano-forte.

CAROLYN ANN PETRECCA
"Carrie"

"Measures, not men, have always been my mark."

Girls' League 2, 3. Burr Junior High School. Carrie had that so-called pep, vim, and vigor. Always on the go, but never forgetting her numerous acquaintances, Carrie will remain in the hearts of her fellow classmates.

JOSEPH PETER PETRIZZO
"Muscles"

"A day for toil, an hour for sport."

A. A. 2, 3, 4; Boys' Club 2; Boys' Swimming Club 2, 3; Baseball 3; Intramural Basketball 2, 3; Inter-class Baseball 2, 3. Burr Junior High School.

Joe was one of the best basketball players in B. H. S. Because of this, many have wondered why he did not lend his efforts to the school team. Besides being a good court performer, Joe is an all-around good fellow.

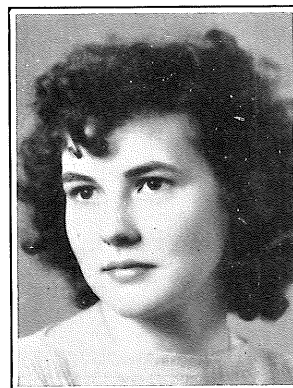

HORTENSE VIRGINIA PHILBRICK
"Horty"

"Whate'er she did was done with so much ease;
in her alone, 'twas natural to please."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Girls' League 1, 2, 3, 4, Room Representative 2, 4; Radio Club 2, 3, 4, Secretary 2, 3, 4; Biology Club 2, 3, 4; Swimming Club 2, 3, 4, Secretary 2; Banking Council 2, 4. Washington Street School. New Britain State Teachers' College.

Hortie's infectious laugh and dimpled smile were her trademarks for those who knew her. The fact that she was always seen with a member of the track, basketball, or football team proves the presence of those qualities which make a good sport.

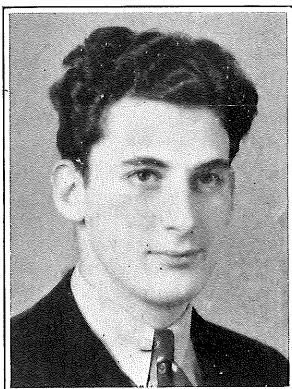

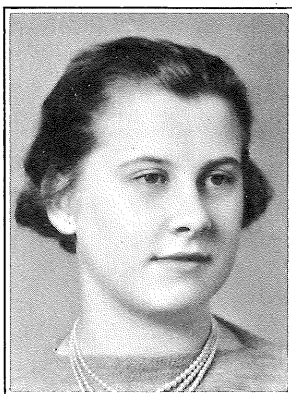

DOMINIC RALPH PICCIOLO
"Pic"

"There is in souls a sympathy with sounds."

A. A. 3, 4; Boys' Club 3, 4; Upper Class Choir 3, 4; School Orchestra 3, 4; Inter-High Orchestra 4. Burr Junior High School. Captain Samson's Aviation School.

We feel quite certain that there is no one who hasn't heard of Picciolo and his trumpet. But we hear his ambition to be a pilot is quite decided. We wish him luck in either line.

ANNA ELIZABETH PIETRYCHA
"Pat"

"The very pink of perfection."

A. A. 4; Girls' League 2, 4; Commercial Club 4; Volley Ball 3; 60-Word Gregg Test; 80-Word Gregg Test; Complete Theory; Honor Society 4. Never absent; never tardy; no demerits. Burr Junior High School.

Anna is the kind of girl who always has a pleasant smile to cheer one up. She studied a great deal, and her good marks show she certainly spends her time wisely.

LAURETTA MARY PIPOLI
"Pip"

"And her voice was the warble of a bird."

Girls' League Representative 3; Swimming Club 2; Girls' Leaders 2; Tennis Club 2; Glee Club 3, 4; Glee Club Ensemble 3, 4; Kickball 3; Volley Ball 3; Honorable Mention Dress Contest 4. Never tardy; no demerits. Burr Junior High School. La Scala School of Music, Milan, Italy.

Lauretta was one of our finer singers of classical music. When she wasn't singing with the Bulkeley ensemble, she was practicing for some outside operetta. We do not hesitate to predict a successful musical career for her.

VICTORIA GERMAINE PIVKO
"Bebe"

"You have a nimble wit."

A. A. 3; Girls' League 1, 2, 3. St. Peter's School. Hartford Hospital Nurses' Training School.

When "Bebe's" a nurse, she won't have any difficulty keeping her patients amused, after the practice she's had keeping many of us entertained in study-hall.

MARY CATHERINE PLOSZAY
"Ripple"

"No friendship is so cordial or so delicious as that of a girl."

Girls' League 1, 2, 3, 4; A. A. 2, 3, 4; Commercial Club 3, 4. S. S. Cyril and Methodius School. Rider College.

Mary was very quiet but had many intimate friends. Even when her arm was broken she showed her perseverance by keeping up in her work at school.

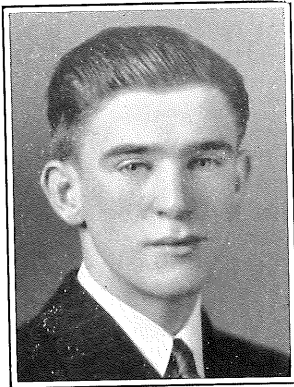

LOIS ELEANORE POAD
"Moses"

"Variety is that divine gift which makes a woman charming."

A. A. 4; Girls' League 1, 4; Swimming Club 4. Never tardy; no demerits. East Hartford High School.

Even though she did make nineteen changes in school, Lois still was well known and well liked. This was because of the forceful personality and the aliveness which were part of her.

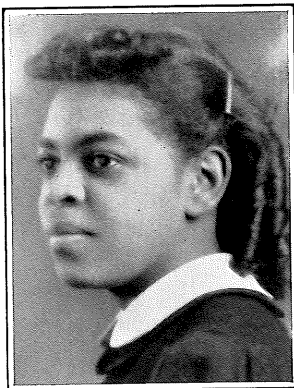

ERNEST MATTHEW PORESKY
"Ernie"

"Rouse the lion from his lair."

A. A. 4; Boys' Club 4. R. J. Kinsella School.

Ernie could always be counted on to furnish an endless amount of mirth wherever he happened to be. Hardly ever serious, Ernie's mirth was contagious, and fun was king wherever he went.

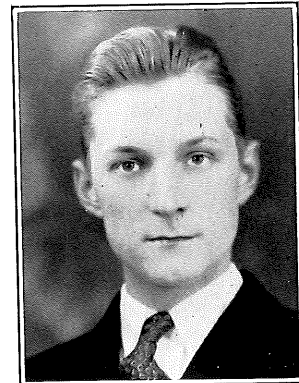

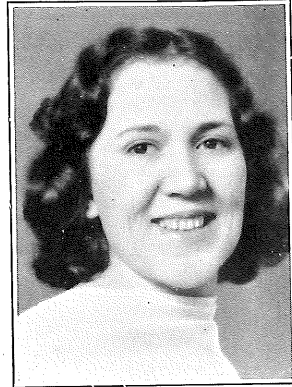

OWEN FREDERICK POLLEYS
"Owe"

"The bounds of a man's knowledge are easily concealed, if he has but prudence."

Boys' Club 1, 2; Biological Repertory 2; Mathematics Club 4; A. A. 1, 2; Track Team 3, 4. Never tardy. Southwest School. Aviation School.

Owen had an unusual amount of keen observation and intelligence behind a twinkling eye and a quiet reserve. His aptitude for higher mathematics will probably serve him in good stead in the future.

EVELYN TRUITT POWERS
"Eve"

"For all her luxury was doing good."

A. A. 2, 3, 4; Girls' League 2, 3; Camera Club 3; Girls' Leaders Corps 2; Upper Class Choir 2, 3, 4. No demerits. Burr Junior High School. Virginia State University.

Eve did not frequent the corridors extensively. However, her friendships, acquired outside school, revealed a wholesome character and a charming personality.

STELLA ELIZABETH PRACON

"Stell"

"Sincerity is the most compendious wisdom."

Girls' League 4; Swimming Club 1, Secretary 1; Literary Club 1; Kickball 3, 4; Volley Ball 3; Table Tennis Club 4; Ni-No-Van Club 4; 60-Word Gregg Test; 80-Word Gregg Test. Never absent; never tardy. Burr Junior High School.

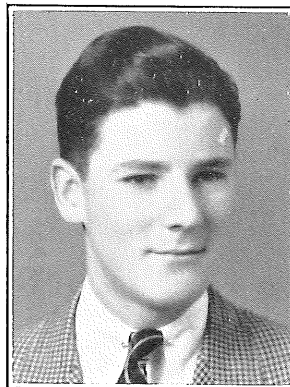

If you wanted to find Stella around school, she could always be found with Mary Ucich, her inseparable friend. Stella's devoted and faithful friendship to her companions marked her as one of the most sincere girls of our class.

PHILIP HENRY PRIOR

"Every man at his best state is altogether vanity."

Boys' Club 4; Commercial Club 4; Legislative Club 4. St. Joseph's Cathedral School.

Phil's peaches-and-cream complexion was the object of many a girl's envy and admiration. Although possessed of a superiority complex, he nevertheless had many friends as a result of his underlying sincerity.

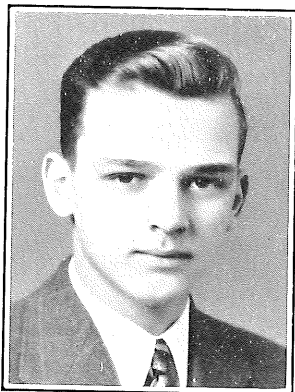

ALPHONSE VINCENT PUADZIUNAS

"Pudge"

"Play up, play up, and play the game."

Basketball 2, 3, 4; Baseball 2, 3, 4. Burr Junior High School. Holy Cross College.

Al was a smooth dancer who could hold his own in any stag line. In the future it is probable he may become a national basketball star, if previous actions can be depended on.

RUTH LORETTA PUGH

"Ruthie"

"Feminine, but nowadays weak."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Girls' League 1, 2, 3, 4. Never tardy; no demerits. Burr Junior High School. Virginia State College.

Ruthie has the very interesting hobby and spends much of her time with her scrapbook. Her conscientiousness has put her high in the esteem of her friends.

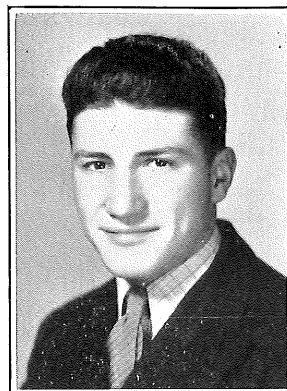

RUSSELL ANDREW PYROS
"Russ"

"Knowledge is proud that he has learned so much."

A. A. 3, 4; Boys' Club 3, 4; Swimming Club 4; Boys' Debating Club 4; Camera Club 3, 4. Never tardy. Weaver High School. Carnegie Tech.

Here is one of our prospective geniuses, imagine, getting 100's in chemistry tests! His aptitude for chemistry was not confined to the school textbook, either. Russ was one of the most congenial and worth-while members of our class.

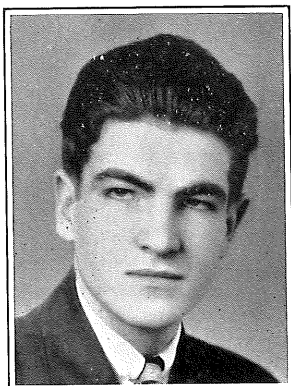

WILLIAM HENRY RACKLE
"Rags"

"Slumber is more sweet than toil."

Never tardy. Concord High School. Northwestern University.

"Rags" came to us not long ago from Concord, Massachusetts, but in his brief stay he has acquired many friends who admired him from the very beginning, especially among the fairer sex. In fact, they were attracted even from as far away as St. Joseph.

MARY ROSALIE RAGNA
"Rags"

"The true use of speech is not so much to express our wants as to conceal them."

Honor Society 4. Never tardy; no demerits. Burr Junior High School. Connecticut State Teachers' College.

Friendship was written all over Mary's face. Her ability to speak French fluently and in a Gallic manner gave much pleasure to her classmates.

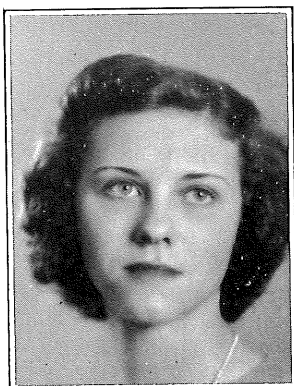

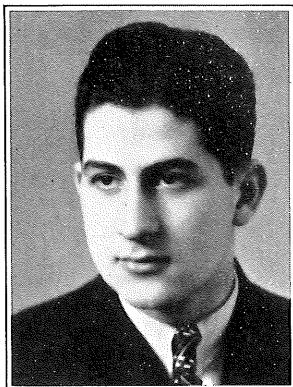

HELEN LOUISE RAMETTE

"Custom reconciles us to everything."

A. A. 1, 2, 4; Girls' League 1, 2; Mathematics Club 4; Girls' Leaders 4. Never tardy; no demerits. Southwest School.

Nonchalant and sophisticated are words which describe Helen. She has a certain charm and the ability to dress very attractively.

SEBASTIAN LOUIS RAMONDETTA

"Subby"

"Ease leads to habit as success to ease.
He lives by rule who lives himself to please."

Naylor School.

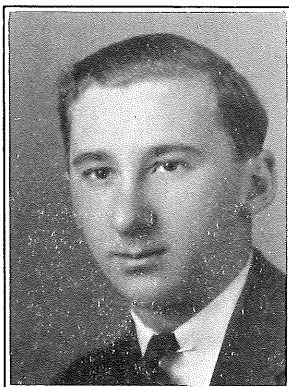

Sebastian has the appearance and smoothness of a Don Juan. A line of broken hearts seems to assert this fact.

FANNY RAPTOPOULOS

"Quietness is best."

A. A. 4; Commercial Club 4. Never tardy; no demerits. Burr Junior High School.

A girl with a quiet nature, Franny derived great pleasure from reading. She was also fond of tennis and played very well.

MARTIN ALFRED RECKNÄGEL

"Rex"

"Joking and humor are pleasant."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Boys' Club 2, 3, 4. Chauncey Harris School.

Rex seemed very shy and reserved on the surface, but once you got to know him his brilliant mind and pleasant sense of humor were evident.

MARION RITA REMPE

"Marr"

"No talent, but yet character."

Ni-No-Van 3, 4, Treasurer 4; Glee Club 1; O. G. A. Award in Stenography. No demerits; never tardy. Burr Junior High School. Morse Business College.

Even Marion's closest friends considered her very quiet and unassuming, but her deep sincerity appealed to everyone.

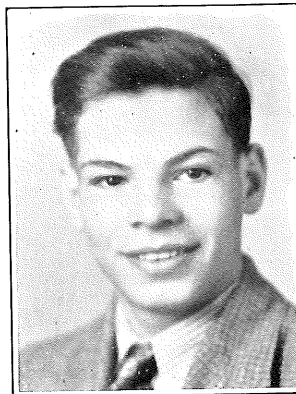

SEBASTIAN NICHOLAS RICUPERO
"Sub"

"Be strong, and quit yourselves like men."

A. A. 3, 4; Ping-Pong Club 3. Burr Junior High School.

"Sub" was always busy with some sport outside of school. But for his lack of weight, he probably would have been one of "Babe" Allen's best athletes.

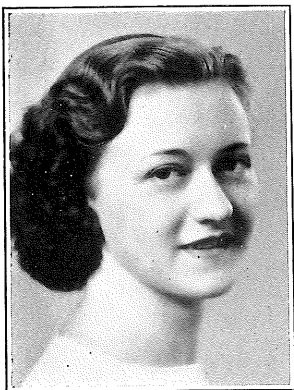

HELEN JANE RILEY
"Janie"

"Business dispatched is business well done."

A. A. 2, 3, 4; Girls' League 2, 3, 4, Room Representative 2; Commercial Club 4; Honor Society 4; Torch Business Board 2, 3, 4, Assistant Circulation Manager 2, Assistant Advertising Manager 3, Bookkeeper 4; Second Scholarship Prize 2; Gregg Certificates 3, 4. Never tardy; no demerits. Burr Junior High School.

As bookkeeper for the Torch, Jane has shown her capacity as a business woman. In addition to that, Jane has remarkable eyes which everyone admires.

MARY-JEANNE ANN RILEY
"Jeanne"

"Solitude is the best nurse of wisdom."

Girls' League 3; Literary Club 3, 4, Vice-President 4; Classical Club 3, 4, President 4; Camera Club 4; National Honor Society 3, 4. No demerits; never tardy. Poughkeepsie High School.

Jeanne's droll wit was a delight to all who met her. In spite of the fact that she came into our class late, she has become a leader in numerous activities.

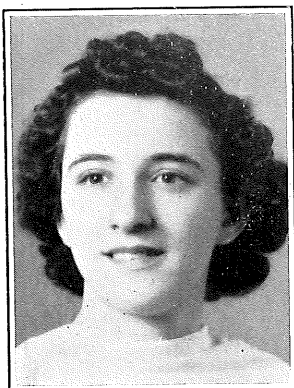

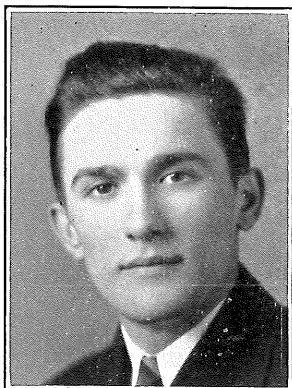

TERESA ANN RIZZO
"Terry"

"Come and trip it as you go,
On the light fantastic toe."

A. A. 2, 3, 4; Girls' Swimming Club 2, 3, 4; Kickball 4; Volley Ball 4. Never tardy; no demerits. Burr Junior High School.

If you want the lowdown on any new dance routines, simply look up Terry: she knows them all. In addition to being a fine dancer she was very diligent in her school work.

HENRY JOHN ROBALEWSKI
"Rub"

"Each mind has its own method."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Boys' Club 1, 2, 3, 4. Southwest School. Trinity College.

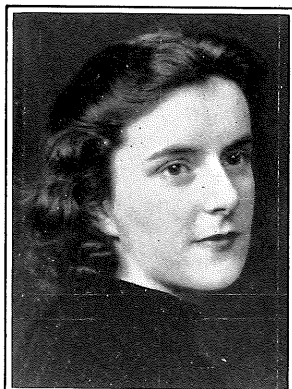

Henry was quite a meek young man when he was out of doors, but when he came to school it was a very different story. He liked particularly to tease the faculty and now that he is gone we wonder what will brighten up their lives.

MARJORIE MILLS ROBINSON
"Midge"

"Wisdom is better than rubies."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Girls' League 1, 2, 3, Room Representative 1, 2, 3; Student Council 1; Honor Society 4; Dial Circulation Board 1; Biology Club 3, 4, Treasurer 4; Classical Club 4; Mathematics Club 4; Second Scholarship Prize 1. Never absent; never tardy. Southwest School. Connecticut State College.

Midge's ability to get six A's every marking period did not develop an air of superiority, but rather gave her a gracious attitude which was sincere and pleasing. Most of her interest in the future will probably be in Trinity and bacteriology.

RITA ANNE ROBINSON

"A friend is worth all hazards we can run."

Burr Junior High School.

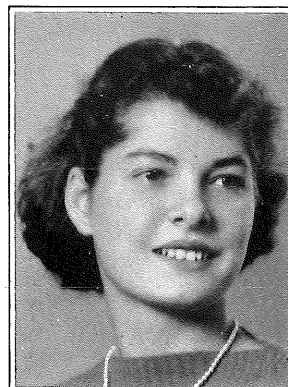

Ready wit and a friendly smile are two of Rita's characteristics. Wherever she is, she will have many friends.

HOPE CAROLYN ROOD

"Speak little, but speak the truth."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Girls' League 1, 2; Girls' Swimming Club 3, 4; Agora 3, 4; Mathematics Club 4. Southwest School. Middlebury College.

A great deal of Hope's time outside of school was spent in practicing on the piano. She also was a diligent mathematics student. Her freshness and unaffectedness attracted many friends.

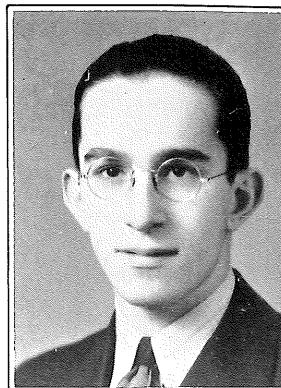

JULIUS SIDNEY ROSEN

"'Tis good will makes intelligence."

Chess Club 2, 3, Treasurer 4; Radio Club 3, 4, President 4; Edison Club 3, 4, Vice-President 4; Dial 3, 4, Co-Editor 4; Honor Society 3; Junior Usher 3; Class Prophet. No demerits. Burr Junior High School. Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute.

Besides possessing a subtle wit, Julius had an amiable disposition and a good nature which never changed. His high scholarship and diligent loyalty to the Dial were rewarded by his being appointed co-editor of the publication.

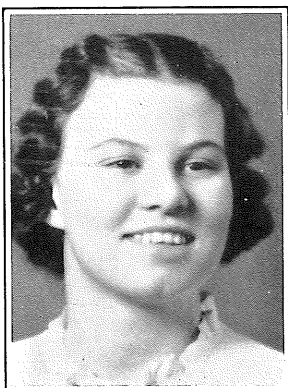

ALTA AGNES ROSS

"Sis"

"Cheerfulness is an offshoot of goodness and of wisdom."

A. A. 3, 4; Girls' League 2, 3, 4; Girls' Ping-Pong Club 4. Never absent; never tardy; no demerits. Burr Junior High School.

Alta's constant smile and cheery hello are enough to put us in a good mood at any time of day. She has always taken a keen interest in all the world about her.

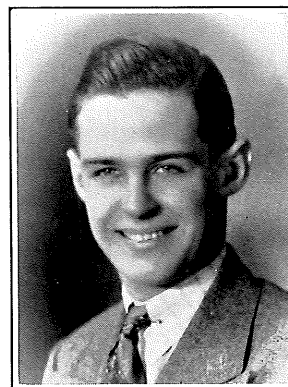

RICHARD MELVIN ROY

"Dick"

"What a man has, so much he is sure of."

Troop Junior High School.

There was nothing timid in Dick's make-up. Throughout his stay at Bulkeley he was known for his hilarity and his mischievous pranks.

PHILOMENA ROSE RUBINO

"Phil"

"Speech is silver; silence is golden."

A. A. 2, 3, 4; Girls' League 2, 3; Glee Club 1. Never tardy. Burr Junior High School.

Although not particularly intimate with the majority of the class, Phil had all the qualifications of a sincere, faithful friend. Her rare but infectious smile was worth waiting for.

HELEN GERTRUDE RUNDBAKEN

" 'Tis good will makes intelligence."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Girls' League 1, 2, 3, 4, Room Representative 4; Junior Dramatic Club 1, 2, Secretary 2; Girls' Biology Club 3, 4, Secretary 4; Agora 2, 3, 4. No demerits. Washington Street School.

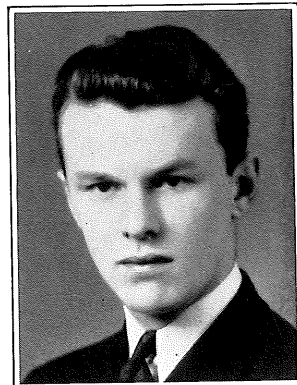

Helen deserves every ounce of credit possible for her conscientiousness and clear thinking. As a helper and worker there were few who surpassed her.

HOWARD LEWIS RUSSELL
"Howie"

"The gift of gaiety may itself be the greatest good fortune."

A. A. 4; Boys' Glee Club 2, 3, 4; Dial Art Staff 4; Torch Business Staff 4; Senior Dramatic Club 4; Biological Repertory 3; Upper Class Choir 2, 3, 4; Art Club 4; A Cappella Choir 4; Football 2. Southwest School. Pratt Institute.

When Howie wasn't flirting with a pretty girl, his antics were causing some class to go into hysterics, or he was cutting up in the corridors. Apparently Howie's only serious moments occurred in College English 8.

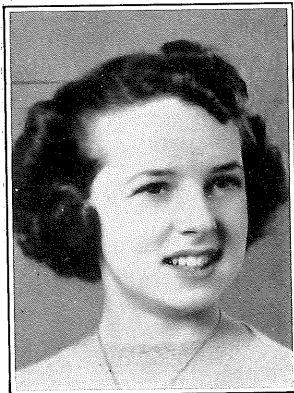

SHIRLEY BOND RUSSELL
"Shirl"

"A fair exterior is a silent recommendation."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Girls' League 1, 2, 3, 4; Junior Dramatic Club 2; Girls' Leaders Corps 3, 4; Girls' Golf Club 3; Business Board of Torch. Never tardy; no demerits. Washington Street School. Colby Junior College.

Shirley has always been one of the fashion models in our class. We hear she was quite the "belle" at the beach every summer, too.

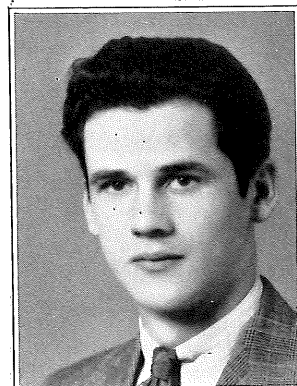

DANIEL FRANCIS RYAN
"Danny"

"For the love of laughter, hinder not the humor of his design."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Boys' Club 1, 2, 3, 4; Boys' Glee Club 1, 2, 3, 4, President 3, 4; Upper Class Choir 2, 3, 4; Student Council 1, 2; Legislative Club 2, 3, 4, Treasurer 3, President 4; Torch Editorial Board 2, 3; Debating Club 3; Senior Dramatic Club 3, 4; Business Board of Class Book. Washington Street School. Trinity College.

Danny has a manner which has put him high in the opinion of all his classmates. He has clearly shown a capacity for leadership and companionship that will take him far in life.

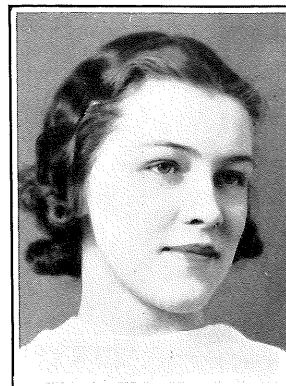

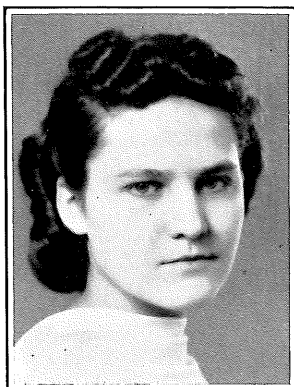

OTTILIE GUNHILD RYDBERG
"Ott"

"True ambition there alone resides."

A. A. 1; Girls' League 4. Never tardy; no demerits. Washington Street School. Morse Business College.

Ott's ambition is to be a model, but she has decided that she will learn telephone operating first. She would make a good housewife, since she likes home economics very much.

ELEANOR MARCELLA SADASKY

"An individual who is neat in his person is neat in his morals."

Girls' Glee Club 2, 3, 4; Upper Class Choir 3, 4; Girls' Swimming Club 1, 2; School Orchestra 1. No demerits; never tardy. Burr Junior High School.

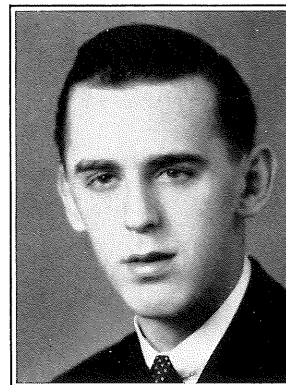

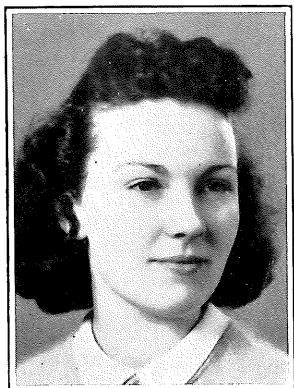

Eleanor never put herself out to be particularly friendly with anyone, but her stunning clothes were the envy of many a girl. Her faithful participation in the musical affairs of the school also merits praise.

STEPHEN HENRY SAGAN
"Steve"

"Both silent, when thine is need, and speaking in season."

Boys' Club 2, 4; A. A. 2, 3, 4. Never tardy. Washington Street School.

One of the strong, silent types, Steve has created quite a furor among the feminine element at Bulkeley. His friends find him dependable and interesting.

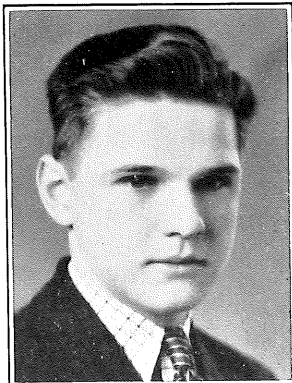

BARBARA SAGE
"Bob"

"A thing of beauty is a joy forever."

A. A. 2, 3, 4; Girls' League 2, 3, 4; Agora 3, 4; Honor Society 3, 4; Girls' Swimming Club 3, 4; Secretary 4; Classical Club 4; Mathematics Club 4; Treasurer 4; Torch Editorial Board 4; German Club, Vice-President. Burr Junior High School.

A combination of good humor and natural beauty have won Barbara the admiration of many of the boys as well as the girls in our class. Nevertheless, Barbara always preferred a certain "Art," one of our former football heroes.

WILLIAM KING SALLANT
"Bill"

"O, it is excellent to have a giant's strength."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Boys' Club 1, 2, 3, 4; Track 2, 3, 4. Burr Junior High School. University of Southern California.

In Bill were combined a soft heart and a boyish enthusiasm which resulted in a pleasing personality. It was not out of the ordinary to hear him rave about "the best looking girl in the school," or have him ask you to "feel that muscle."

FLORENCE IRENE SANDBERG

"Those about her from her shall read the perfect ways of honor."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Girls' League 1, 2, 3, 4, Executive Committee 3; Upper Class Choir 2, 3, 4; Girls' Glee Club 2, 3, 4, Librarian 3, 4; Junior Dramatic Club 1, 2, President 2; Girls' Leaders Corps 3, 4; Agora 3, 4, Executive Committee 3, Annual Debate 3, Vice-President 4; Senior Dramatic Club 3, 4, President 4; Editor of Class Book; Mathematics Club 4; A Cappella Choir 3, 4; Girls' Golf Club 3; Torch Editorial Board 3, 4; Torch Business Board 2; Honor Society 3, 4, Secretary 4; Student Council 1, 3, 4, Secretary 4; Junior Prom Committee 3. South west School.

Flo has always had a host of admirers, and why not? She is one of the most popular girls in our class, and one who has always been willing to help in any way she could. She has shown leadership and capacity in many activities. In addition to these accomplishments, Flo has always been surrounded at every social affair.

MAY INGEBOG SANDBERG
"Inkie"

"A true friend is a friend forever."

Junior Dramatic Club 1. Never tardy. Naylor School.

May's interests have been outside school: she is very much interested in religion. May has made a good number of friends during her high school career.

HELEN GAY SANDLIN

"A heart at leisure from itself,
To soothe and sympathize."

A. A. 2, 3, 4; Girls' League 2, 3, 4; Torch Business Board 4; Girls' Swimming Club 2, 3, 4; Commercial Club 3, 4. No demerits. Burr Junior High School.

Helen was always ready with the correct answer or an intelligent reply in English class. There were several teachers whose lives were made much brighter by her quiet but efficient assistance during her last year in school.

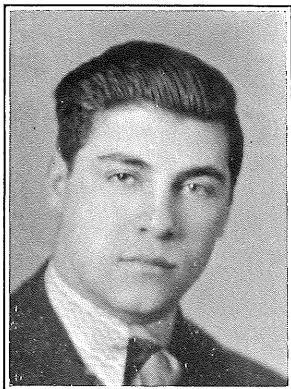

PRISCILLA SANFORD
"Pris"

"No one can be perfectly happy till all are happy."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Girls' League 1, 2, 3, 4; Girls' Swimming Club 3. Southwest School. Cambridge Secretarial School.

Pris is one of the few girls who could complete her high school career without making one enemy. No one could dislike her, for she is sincere, tolerant, and good company.

DOMINIC SCANDURA
"Don Ameche"

"A thousand hearts beat happily."

Track Team 4. Burr Junior High School.

Don excelled in both social and athletic activities. The girls will remember him as a flashy dancer, while the boys will remember him as a powerful track man and football player.

PASQUALE ANTHONY SCANDURA
"Pat"

"Without danger the game grows cold."

Baseball 3, 4, Letter 3, 4; Football 2, 3, 4; Letter 3, 4. Chauncey Harris School.

Pat has a temperament that allows him to take any setback with a gracious smile. He made a fine record on the Bulkeley gridiron.

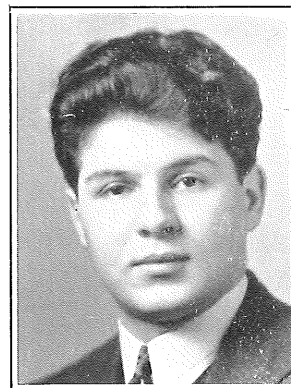

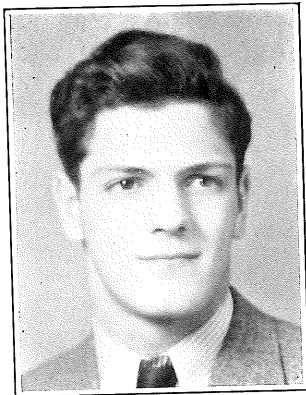

ANGELINE MARIE SCAVULLO
"Ann"

"The faith she has in tennis."

A. A. 3, 4; Girls' League 3, 4. Never tardy. Burr Junior High School.

Ann did not spend most of her time at her studies, but liked to engage actively in different sports. Her favorite ones are tennis and skating.

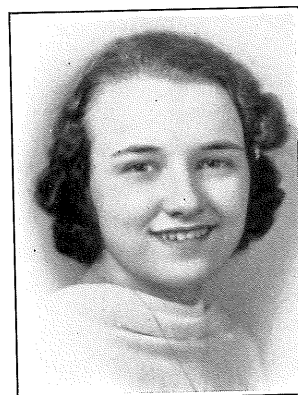

PASQUALE DAVID SCELZA
"Sailor Pat"

"He goes from strength to strength."

A. A. 3, 4; Football 3, 4; Letter 3, 4; Basketball 3, 4, Letter 3, 4. Brown Street School.

"Sailor Pat" majored in sports at Bulkeley. With the fight and zeal displayed for his team, he should capably tackle any other career.

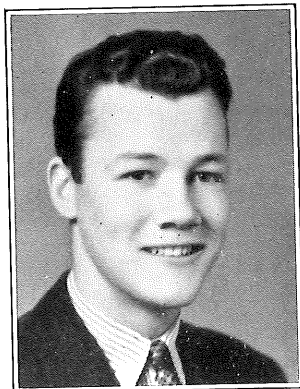

ENA THERESA SCHIAVONE
"Eve"

"Skill to do comes of doing."

Never tardy; no demerits. Burr Junior High School. St. Francis Training School.

Ena is the demure type of damsel who lets her accomplishments speak for her. When she leaves our midst, there will be a noticeable let-down in the emotions of the so-called stronger sex.

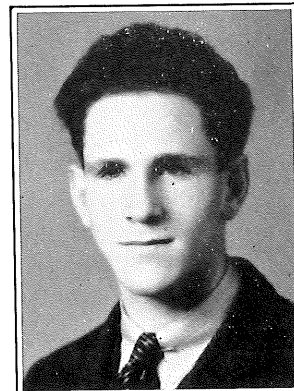

JAMES RUSSELL SCOTT
"Dap"

"Studios of elegance and ease."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Boys' Club 1, 2, 3, 4, Secretary 4; Student Council 4; Junior Dramatic Club 1, 2, President 2; Ping-Pong Club 4, Treasurer 4; Swimming Club 4; Tennis Team 3, 4. Never absent; never tardy; no demerits. Southwest School. Bates College.

Though fond of fun at times, Jim was more inclined to be serious. His whole-hearted co-operation in his classes showed the earnestness with which he attacked his school work. We are looking forward to seeing Jim well established in later life.

JOHN JOSEPH SCULLY
"Skul"

"He lives at ease that freely lives."

Boys' Club 2; Football 3, 4, Letter 4. Burr Junior High School.

John is the typical strong, silent fellow who is so well liked by everyone. He never had much to say in school but his work on the football team clearly demonstrated his talents. John is rarely seen without his inseparable friend, Mahon.

VIOLA ANN SHEA
"Vi"

"I that please some, try all."

A. A. 2, 3, 4; Girls' Leaders 2, 3, 4; Swimming Club 3; Golf Club 3. Burr Junior High School. Morse Business College.

Vi certainly seems to be the vivacious type of girl, for she is a prime favorite among all the girls as well as the boys. Wherever she is present, hilarity is king.

FLORENCE MARGARET SHEREN
"Flossie"

"Modesty is the beauty of women."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Girls' League 1, 3, 4; Commercial Club. Never absent; no demerits; never tardy. Burr Junior High School. Morse Business College.

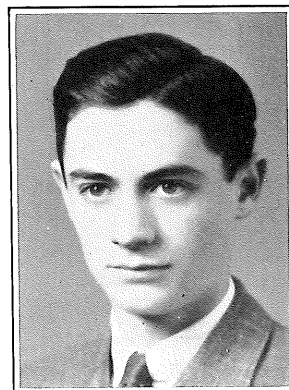

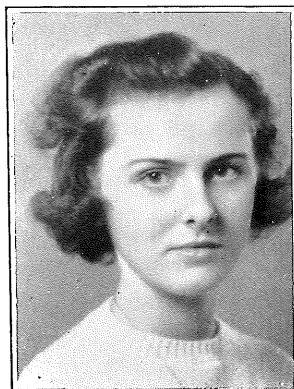

Flossie shows her aptitude for business in this formidable trio of "never absent, never tardy, and no demerits." Then, too, she has cultivated one of the strongest of our school friendships with Francis Malloy, proving her social tendencies.

MILTON WEBSTER SHERMAN
"Milt"

"Silence is a perfect herald of joy."

Boys' Club 4; Biological Repertory 4; Legislative Club 4; Track Squad 3. Medford Vocational School. Curtiss-Wright Technical Institute of Aeronautics.

Milt is a rather quiet fellow but he gets along well with people. Deeply interested in airplanes, he will probably be one of our future aviation experts.

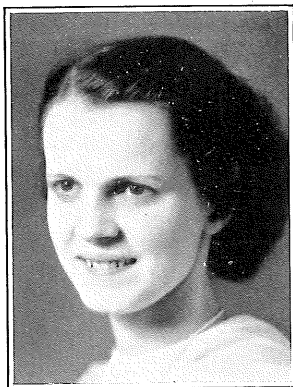

DOROTHY MAE SHERWOOD
"Dottie Mae"

"Soft words win hard hearts."

A. A. 1, 2, 3; Girls' League 1, 2, 3; Girls' Biology Club 3, 4; Literary Club 3, 4; Girls' Leaders Corps 3, 4; Upper Class Choir 3, 4; Girls' Glee Club 3, 4, Vice-President 4; Accompanist for Junior Glee Club 3. Never tardy; no demerits. Southwest School. Colby Junior College.

Dot is the quiet but attractive type. During her stay at Bulkeley, she has made many friends because of her pleasant smile and ready-to-help manner.

MARIAN ELEANOR SKINNER
"Mae"

"Silence is the best ornament of women."

A. A. 1, 2, 3; Girls' League 1, 2, 3; O. G. A. Shorthand Certificate; 60-Word Gregg Shorthand Test; 80-Word Gregg Shorthand Test. Never tardy; no demerits. Washington Street School.

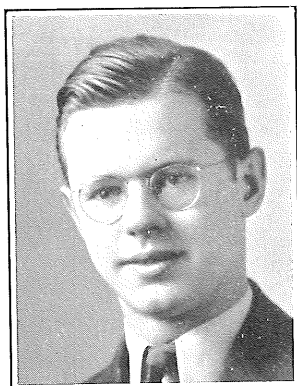

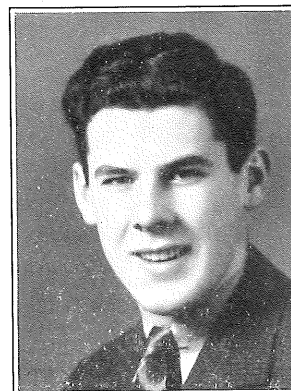

Mae is a conscientious worker, and no teacher has ever had the opportunity to complain of inefficiency on her part. Mae has many good points, but we think she is particularly outstanding for her refinement of manner.

CHARLES THOMAS SLATTERY
"Slatts"

"God takes care of boys and Irishmen."

Boys' Club 1, 2, 3, 4; A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4. Never tardy. Washington Street School.

"Slatts" is a typical Irishman—blustering, but generous to his friends and thoughtful of them. His life at school offers strong testimony of this.

DAVID ARTHUR SMITH
"Red"

"Gentleman is written legibly on his brow."

Southwest School.

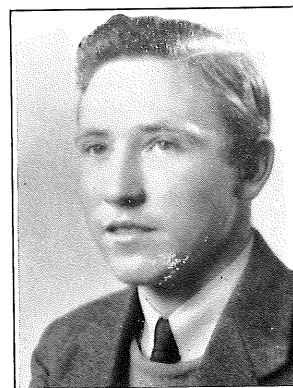

"Red" was the kind of person who believed in having a few true friends rather than a large number of acquaintances. With his extraordinary ability to spell, he was a great help to those who didn't want to use a dictionary.

ADAM SMITH
"Smithy"

"The hand that follows intellect can achieve."

A. A. 4; Boys' Club 4; Junior Usher 3; National Honor Society 4. No demerits. Southwest School. Trinity College.

Quiet and unassuming, Adam was a prime favorite among the faculty as well as among his fellow students. He might well be pointed to as a gentleman and a scholar.

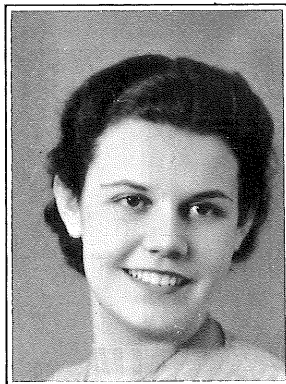

DOROTHY ELEANOR SMITH
"Dot"

"I live in the crowds of jollity."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4. Girls' League 1, 2, 3, 4. Room Representative 1, 2, 3; Freshman Glee Club 1; Senior Choir 2, 3, 4. Never tardy; no demerits. Southwest School. Hartford Secretarial School.

Dot is the type of girl who appears to like the social rather than the studious life, for she is a regular attendant at all the school dances and other activities.

DOROTHY MARIE SMITH
"Dotty"

"Friend more divine than all divinities."

A. A. 2, 3, 4. Never tardy. Burr Junior High School. St. Francis Training School.

Ever willing to lend a helping hand to her classmates, Dotty has become one of the most popular girls in the school, and we predict a great future for her.

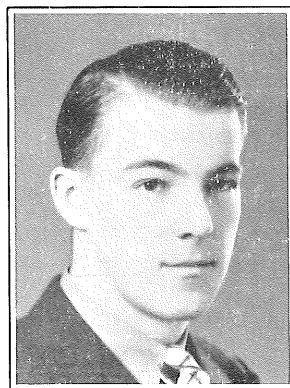

WARREN HARRY SMITH
"Bubb"

"A good name is rather to be chosen than great riches."

A. A. 1, 2, 3. Never tardy. Burr Junior High School. Southern Methodist University.

"Bubb" seemed to have lost interest in school for a while, but later came back to renew old acquaintances and to become a member of our class.

DOROTHIE PAULINE SNEYD
"Dottie"

"A gentle heart is tied with an easy thread."

Never tardy; no demerits. Wethersfield High School.

Dottie is a friendly young lady who never worries a great deal about anything. She spends, but doesn't waste, her time in seeking worthwhile pleasures.

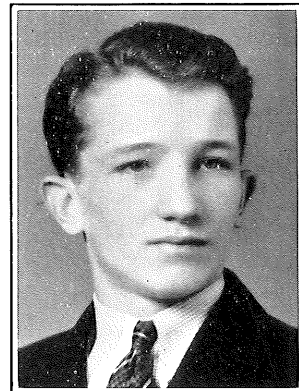

JANE THERESA SOBOL

"One keen-sighted in matters of business."

A. A. 3, 4; Literary Club 1; Junior Dramatic Club 1, Secretary 1; Girls' Glee Club 1; A Cappella Choir 1; Swimming Club 3; Kickball 3, 4; Volley Ball 3. No demerits. Burr Junior High School. Morse Business College.

Any prediction for Jane must be made in the field of law. She has won quite a reputation for prompt and accurate answers in her Business Law class.

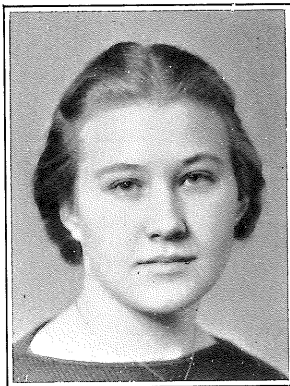

PETER PAUL SOLAK

"Humor is the pensiveness of wit."

Never tardy. S. S. Cyril and Methodius School.

Pete quite frequently was the cause of much hilarity in his classes. The witty answers which he gave usually had the class in hysterics. We're sorry to see him go.

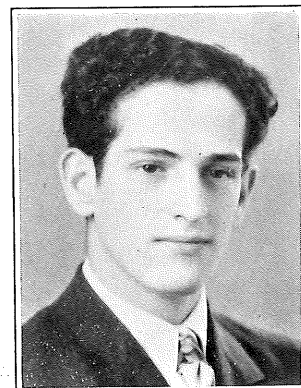

FRANCES MARY SOPELAK
"Fran"

"Loose now and then a scattered smile, and that I will live upon."

A. A. 4; Volley Ball 3; Gregg Complete Theory. Never absent; never tardy; no demerits. Burr Junior High School.

Fran's smile is sure proof of her good nature. As a result no one can say that Fran suffers from lack of company.

WILLIAM VINCENT SPAZIANI
"Spuzzie"

"Studies serve for delight, for ornament, and for ability."

Burr Junior High School.

"Spuzzie" regarded his stay in school simply as a medium between himself and a position in later life to which he aspired. With this object in mind he worked diligently to remove, as well as possible, any obstacles in his path.

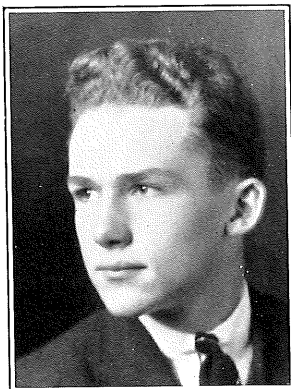

MARY THERESE SPIRITO

"She with all the charm of woman."

Junior Dramatic Club 1, 2, 3, 4. Never tardy; no demerits. Richard J. Kinsella School.

And everywhere that Mary went—a spirit of good fun prevailed. Because of her keen wit and cheerful personality, Mary never need worry about running out of friends.

OTTO ALFRED STAEHR

"Lep"

"His talents were of the more silent class."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Boys' Club 1, 2, 3, 4; Parnassus Club 3; Honor Society 4; Junior Usher 3; Class Treasurer 4; Ring and Pin Committee; Tennis Team 3, 4. Never absent; never tardy; no demerits. Southwest School. Trinity College.

Otto swings a mean racquet as easily as he obtains A's on his report. In addition to these two assets, he makes a handsome appearance.

LOUIS JAMES STAGER

"Lou"

"Who does not mix with the crowd knows nothing."

A. A. 3, 4; Boys' Club 3, 4. Never tardy. Barnard School, Manchester, Conn.

Lou is quick to agree with the wishes of his friends—which accounts for the fact that his company is so much desired.

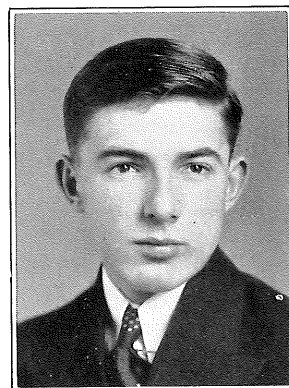

DORIS HUGH STALLWORTH

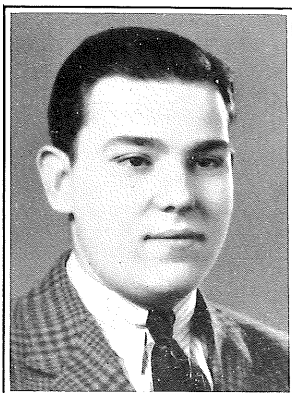

"Jerry"

"Without a shadow of affectation."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Girls' League 1, 2, 3, 4; Freshman Choir Accompanist; Girls' Glee Club 1, 4; Camera Club 4; Executive Committee 4; Classical Club 4. No demerits. Burr Junior High School. Oberlin College.

Doris has proved to be one of the kindest and best-natured girls in our class. Although she attends to her studies diligently, she also takes time out for fun.

JAMES JOHN STARR
"Jim"

"He would talk; Lord, how he would talk!"

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Boys' Club 1, 2, 3, 4. Never tardy. Southwest School.

Most of us know Jimmy for his care-free, good-natured ways. He has always been willing to help anyone in any way he could, especially when it comes to a lift in his car.

IRENE BARBARA STAWECKI
"Nina"

"I have always said and felt that true enjoyment can not be described."

Girls' League 1. S. S. Cyril and Methodius School.

Nina is a great roller-skating fan and spends much of her time on that sport. Perhaps this is why we were not fortunate enough to have her in attendance at all our school affairs.

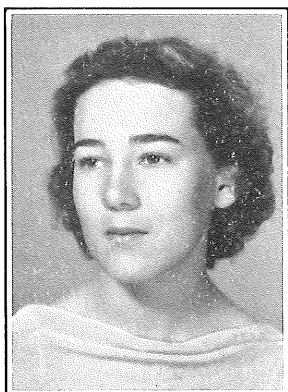

GRACE MARIE STEDMAN
"Lynne"

"A clever woman rules as much of the world as she cares to rule."

A. A. 1, 2, 3; Girls' League 1, 2, 3; Student Council 1; Camera Club 3, 4; President 4; Girls' Leaders 3; Orchestra 1, 2, 3, 4; Girls' Glee Club 2; Upper Class Choir 2, 3, 4; Dial Editorial Board 4; Girls' Swimming Club 3. Southwest School.

Grace has many accomplishments, one of the best known being her mastery of the violin. Her bright, expressive features go well with her musical ability.

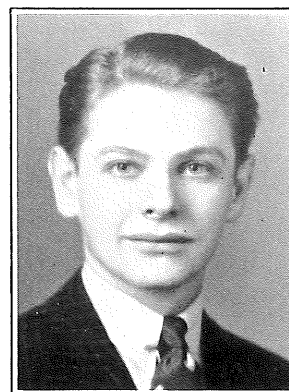

MORRIS ALBERT STEINBERG
"Mushie"

"Work bears witness who well does."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Boys' Club 1, 2, 3, 4; Torch 2, 3, 4, Business Manager 4, Advertising Manager 2, Assistant Business Manager 3; Honor Society 3, 4, Vice-President 4; Boys' Debating Club 2, 3, 4, Secretary 4; Senior Dramatic Club 3, 4, Executive Committee 4; Student Council 1, 3; Junior Dramatic Club 1, 2, Vice-President 2; Legislative Club 2; Biological Repertory 2, Secretary 2; Mathematics Club 4; Edison Club 4; Junior Usher 3; Second Scholarship Prize 1. Never tardy. Washington Street School. Massachusetts Institute of Technology.

Morris is a hard worker and one who has been active in many fields of extra-curricular activities. He has been efficient in all of them and is known to us as a good all-round sport and a natural leader.

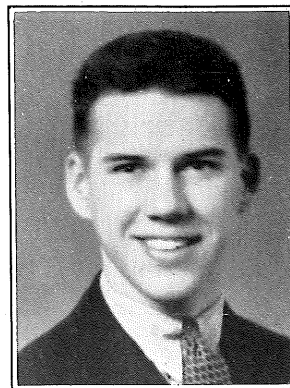

ALMON GERARD STEVENS
"Bud"

"There is no greater delight than to be conscious of sincerity on self-examination."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Boys' Club 2, 3, 4; Senior Dramatic Club 4; Biology Club 4; Edison Club 4; Hi-Y Club 4; Track 2, 3, Letter 3; Football 3. Never tardy; no demerits. Southwest School. Princeton University.

Bob Daly's track team suffered a decided setback when "Bud" was forced to resign because of his health. "Bud," however, demonstrated his ability on the cinder track during his sophomore year.

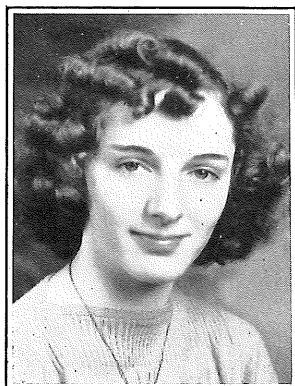

BERNICE HELENA STEWART
"Pepper"

"True happiness is to no spot confined.
'Tis here, 'tis everywhere."

Swimming Club 4; Kickball Team 3. Never tardy. Burr Junior High School.

"Pepper" is an irrepressibly happy person. She sees the bright side of everything and is always able to keep up the spirits of a party. We need more optimistic people like Bernice.

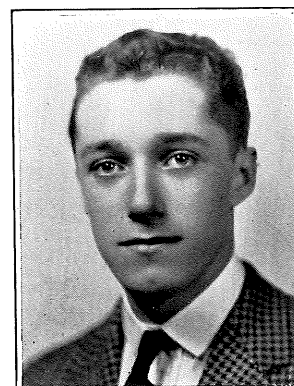

ROBERT CALEB STOCKWELL
"Bob"

"Having wisdom with each studious year."

A. A. 4; Boys' Club 1, 2, 4; Table Tennis Club 4; Intramural Basketball 3; Tennis Tournament 4. No demerits. Southwest School. Trinity College.

Bob was a thoroughbred sport. One could almost always find him, of a winter night, either coasting or skating in Goodwin Park. But more important, he was a "good sport" in the classroom.

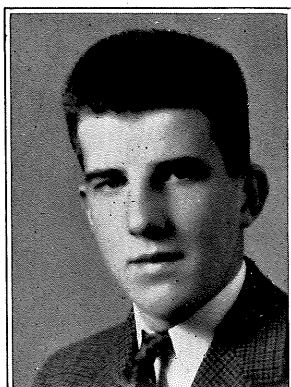

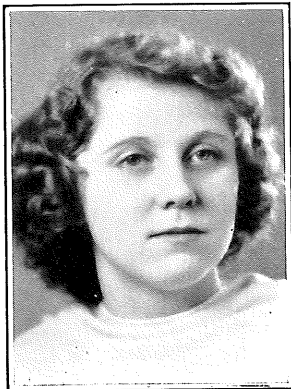

STANLEY CHARLES STRAITE
"Stan"

"A man devoted to pleasure."

A. A. 2, 3, 4; Boys' Club 2, 3, 4; Boys' Swimming Club 4; Football 4; Track 4. Never tardy. Washington Street School. Duke University.

Stan was the principal leader of the "Shoot Straight" boys. He was ever the gentleman, both with the girls and the boys. A free talker, he would discuss any topic at all with you—even "the coming thickness of egg shells."

GERTRUDE ELIZABETH SULLIVAN
"Gert"

"I worked with patience, which means almost power."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Girls' League 1, 2, 3, 4; Camera Club 3, 4; Glee Club 1; Complete Theory Test; 60 and 80-Word Speed Test. Never tardy; no demerits. Southwest School.

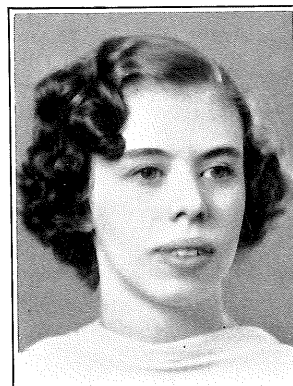

Gert possessed a large quota of friends in the class, both because of her likable personality and the fact that she was always ready to help a "friend in need."

BERTHA LOUISE STROM
"Bert"

"That sweet bondage which is freedom's self."

A. A. 2, 4; Girls' League 2, 4; Girls' Swimming Club 4; Kickball 3. Never tardy. No demerits. Burr Junior High School. St. Francis Hospital Training School.

Bert is the carefree sort of girl who doesn't have to pay much attention to her studies to get along. She devotes most of her time to the opposite sex and to dancing, and is a pronounced success at both.

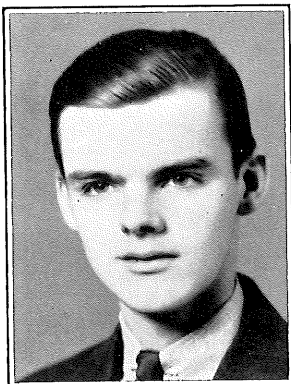

HENRY FRANCIS SULLIVAN
"Sully"

"All sense of hearing and of sight enfold in the serene delight and quietude of sleep."

A. A. 3, 4; Boys' Club 2, 3; Boys' Biology Club 3, 4; Science Club 1. Burr Junior High School. State Police Training Barracks.

"Sully" always feels laskadaisical, and he would rather sleep in class than figure out problems. However, we don't think this is a fault, but an art.

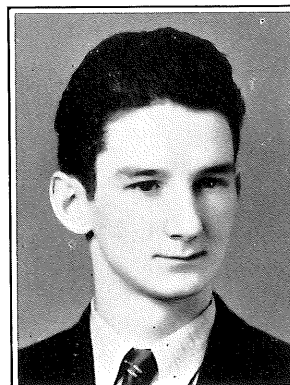

JOHN DANIEL SULLIVAN

"There burns in him an incessant fire."

William Hall High School.

"Sully" breezed his way through his four years' stay at Bulkeley with apparently no restraint from homework. Probably he spent his time reading.

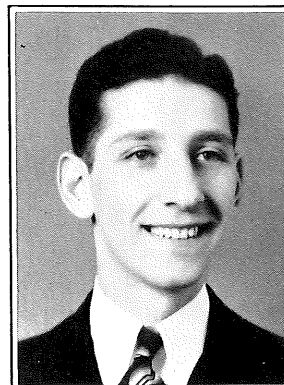

CELES ANTHONY TANGARONE
"Bob"

"It is better to be beloved than honored."

Boys' Glee Club 2, 3, 4, Vice-President 4; A. A. 2, 3, 4; Boys' Club 2, 3; Indoor Table Tennis Club 3, 4, President 3, 4; History-Civics Club 3, 4, Fifth Member 4; Camera Club 4; A Cappella Choir 4; Radio Club 4; Intramural Basketball 2, 3. Burr Junior High School. Connecticut State College.

Bob has a cheerfulness of spirit and a versatility that all admire. This was of importance in forming the Boys' Ping-Pong Club.

FRANCES MARY ELIZABETH TASSONE
"Happy"

"True wisdom is the price of happiness."

A. A. 2; Girls' League 4. Never tardy. Burr Junior High School. Nurses' Training School.

"Happy" always looked forward to her English class because, as she says, she could talk all she wanted to in that class. She has always been a carefree girl.

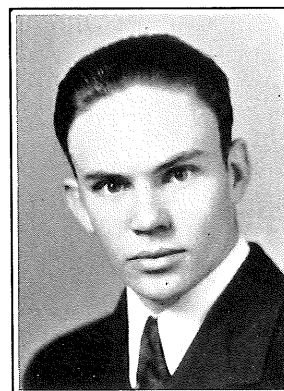

RICHARD FRANK THOMPSON
"Dick"

"A little labor, much health."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Table Tennis Club 3; Camera Club 4; Cheerleader 3, 4; Sports Board of Torch 4; Track Team 3, 4. Never tardy; no demerits. Southwest School. Springfield College of Gymnastics.

Dick is a firm believer in that original slogan, "Play before work." Whenever we see him, he is in a reclining position. Perhaps he concentrates best that way.

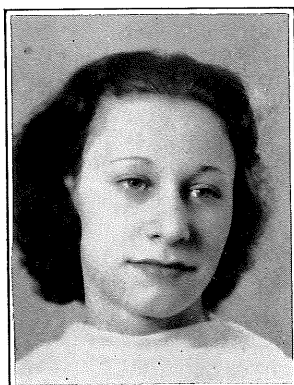

RUBY MAE TIERNEY
"Dimples"

"In a cheek appears a pretty dimple."

Junior Dramatic Club 1; Junior Glee Club 1; Dodgeball 1. Burr Junior High School. Morse Business College.

"Dimples" doesn't seem to be the kind of girl who likes books, but perhaps we are wrong, for she is constantly seen in the bookroom with Miss Sinnott.

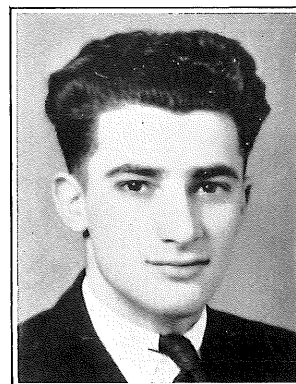

JULIE LUCILLE TOCE

"Whenas in silks my Julia goes . . ."

Girls' League 1, 2, 3, 4; Dial Business Board 4. Never tardy; no demerits. Washington Street School.

Julie is very attractive and is always daintily and stylishly attired. She has a pleasant personality, and never fails to smile charmingly when addressed.

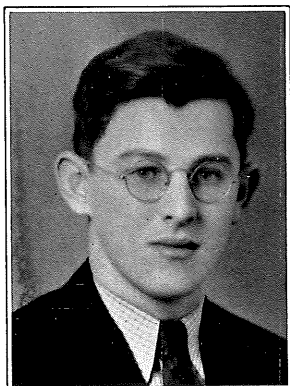

SAMUEL PETER TOLISANO
"Tol"

"So much they talked, so very little said."

A. A. 2, 3, 4; Stamp Club 3, 4, Vice-President 3; Art Club 4, Treasurer 4; Edison Club 4, Advertising Committee 4; Table Tennis 4; Track Team 3, 4; Cheerleader 4. Never tardy. Immaculate Conception School.

Sam can hardly be called the strong, silent type of person, for wherever a great commotion or loud roar was heard, you can rest assured Sam was in the middle of the goings-on.

ROBERT STEPHEN TOMASSI
"Bob"

"He thought as a sage, though he felt like a man."

A. A. 3, 4; Boys' Club 3, 4; Glee Club 2. Never tardy; no demerits. Burr Junior High School. Trinity College.

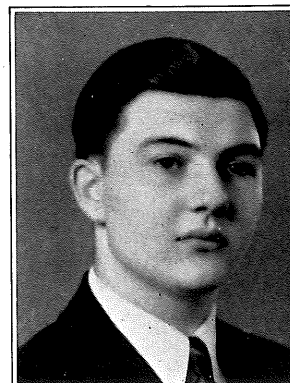

Bob's sunny disposition certainly made a hit with his fellow students, and we know that with such an asset Bob will have a satisfactory career.

GINO LOUIS TORDONATO
"Tornado"

"Of all noises I think music the least disagreeable."

Boys' Club 4; Boys' Glee Club 4; Upper Class Choir 4; School Orchestra 4, Concertmaster. Never tardy; no demerits. East Hartford High School.

Gino is a musician. His main devotion seems to be toward his violin. With such a love for music and such perseverance, he will do well in the musical field.

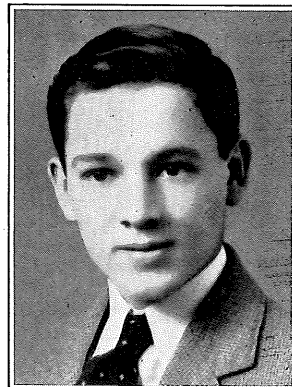

FELICE JOSEPH TORZA

"To do easily what is difficult for others is the mark of talent."

A. A. 4; Boys' Club 4; Golf Club 4. Never tardy; no demerits. Wethersfield High School.

"Fleecy" is a quiet and unassuming fellow who is seen more than heard. His modesty makes for him many friends. He is also a golfer of some note, and will certainly go places.

MARGARET MARY TROIANO "Marge"

"'Twas a strange riddle of a lady."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Girls' League 1, 2; Camera Club 2; Torch Board 2, 3, 4, Business Staff 2, Advertising Board 3; Girls' Leaders Corps 4. Never tardy. Washington Street School. Connecticut Teachers College.

We all wonder how Marge managed to watch the football games and wander around the field at the same time. Marge was a popular gal with the boys both in and out of Bulkeley.

ANNETTE LORRAINE TROMBLEY "Anne"

"Her words are trusty heralds to her mind."

A. A. 3, 4; Girls' League 2, 3, 4; Girls' Leaders 4; Dial Business Board 3, Assistant Business Manager 4; Junior Red Cross 4. Never tardy; no demerits. Burr Junior High School. Pennsylvania State.

The fact that Annette didn't start as a freshman with our class didn't keep her from becoming well liked by many of its members. She has found time to be of service in quite a few extra-curricular activities.

ANNE JANE TRONOSKY "Annie"

"Studiosness merits the highest praise."

Girls' League 2. Weaver High School.

Through her diligence in study and general conduct, Annie became well liked by the faculty. That can't be said for everybody, Annie.

MARY CLAIRE TRYMBULAK
"May"

"The cautious seldom err."

A. A. 2, 3, 4; Girls' League 1, 2, 3, 4; Radio Club 2, 3; Swimming Club 3, 4; Commercial Club 4. No demerits. S. S. Cyril and Methodius School. Boston University.

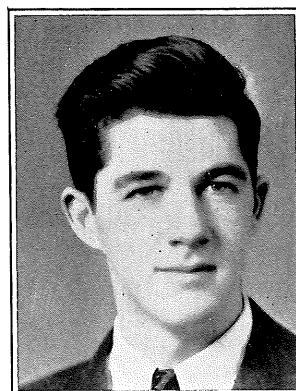

May is one girl who certainly hates to recite in class, because, she claims, what's the use of reciting when it's a well-known fact that you know your lesson? We'll take your word for it, Mary.

BERNARD FRANCIS TURLEY
"Bernie"

"Men of few words are the best men."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Boys' Club 1, 2, 3, 4; History-Civics 3, 4; Junior Glee Club 1, 2; Ping-Pong Club 4; Senior Orchestra 3, 4; Upper Class Choir 3, 4; Camera Club 3, 4. Never tardy. Washington Street School.

Bernie is quiet until just a few close friends are about, and then he is a different person. Sad to mention, however, he confines his social endeavors to outside gatherings.

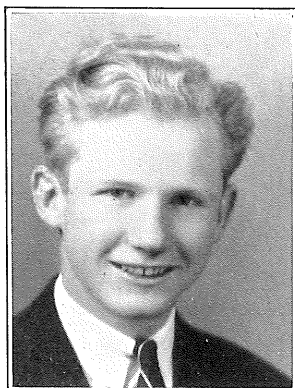

ROBERT ATKINSON TWIBLE
"Bob"

"God will not love thee less, because men love thee more."

A. A. 2, 3, 4; Boys' Club 4; Student Council 3; Ping-Pong Club 3; Junior Prom Committee; Junior Usher; Class Treasurer 4. Never tardy; no demerits. Burr Junior High School. American Institute of State Banking.

Bob is the sort of chap who never makes himself conspicuous in the corridors, but that doesn't mean that he's a "shrinking violet." Quite the contrary, his friends tell us.

MARY NATALIE UCICH

"I have always said and felt that true enjoyment cannot be described.

A. A. 2, 4; Girls' League 2, 4; Literary Club 1; Ni-No-Van 4; Girls' Table Tennis 4; Kickball 3, 4; Volley Ball 3. Never tardy; no demerits. Burr Junior High School.

Although Mary is tall, it does not seem to have been a handicap. She was captain of her kickball team which she easily led to victory against all opponents.

BARBARA LILLIAN USKELA
"Barb"

"Let your speech be always with grace."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Girls' League 1, 2, 3, 4; Commercial Club 4. No demerits. Burr Junior High School. Green Mountain Junior College.

Barb had that soft, mellow voice that is so characteristic of charm and poise. Her very blond hair was the envy of many of her classmates.

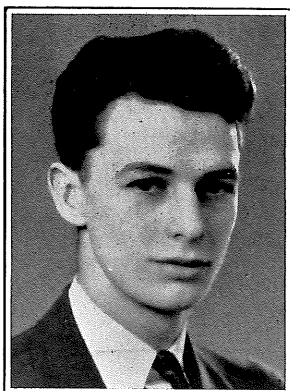

ROBERT EMMET VANNIE
"Bob"

"Patient of toil; serene amid alarms."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Boys' Swimming Club 2, 3; Baseball 2, 3; Intramural Basketball 3; Inter-class Basketball 3. St. Peter's School.

Bob certainly was envied by many of his fellow students for the manner in which he dressed. He was always conservatively attired, and this attracted the eyes not only of the other boys but also those of the girls, among whom he was a prime favorite.

FLORENCE EMMA VERMILYEA

"I keep silence because I approve the plan."

Girls' League 1, 2. Never absent; never tardy; no demerits. Washington Street School. Morse Business College.

Florence was undoubtedly our most reserved girl. We often wondered if there was anything that could break down her extreme calm, but we never found out. However, we all liked her.

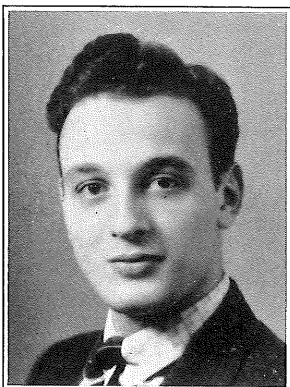

GEORGE EBEN VIBBERTS, JR.

"Wisdom is better than rubies."

A. A. 4; Boys' Club 4; Edison Club 3, 4; Biological Repertory 4; National Honor Society 3; Junior Usher 3; Boys' Debating Club 4; German Club 4. Never tardy; no demerits. Seventh Day Adventists Church School.

Where scholastic ability is desired, there George belongs. He didn't mingle with the fairer sex, but this did not lower the number of his admirers.

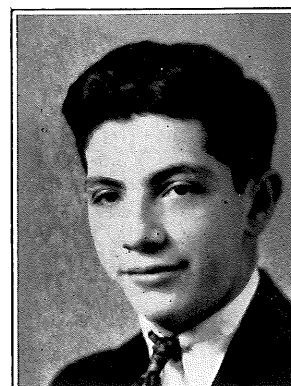

DOROTHY THERESA VICINO
"Dot"

"Neatness is a crowning grace of womanhood."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Girls' League 1, 2, 3, 4; Radio Club 2, 3, 4; Girls' Swimming Club 2, 3; Girls' Glee Club 4; Upper Class Choir 2, 4; History-Civics Club 4. Washington Street School. Connecticut State College.

Dot was a girl who could see through some of the chemistry problems which the others couldn't understand. She had a talent for looking well groomed.

FRED JOSEPH VIGGIANO

"Sentimentally I am disposed to harmony; but organically I am incapable of a tune."

A. A. 3, 4; Boys' Club 3, 4. Never tardy. Burr Junior High School.

Fred can very accurately be described as the "hidden soul of harmony." It appears that he can't wait for the school day to end, in order that he may get home and practice his trumpet. Who knows, maybe he's another Clyde McCoy.

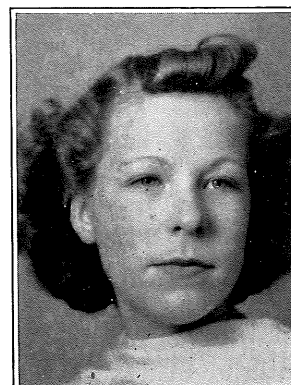

ELEANOR MAE WADSWORTH

"Her bright smile haunts me still."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Girls' League 1, 2, 3, 4; Girls' Leaders Corps 4. Southwest School.

Although Eleanor did not mix with the majority of the class, her pretty dimples and ready smile gave us a hint of her happy disposition.

WANDA SADIE WAGNER
"Cally"

"A merry heart maketh a cheerful countenance."

A. A. 3, 4; Girls' League 2, 3; Girls' Biology Club 3; Girls' Swimming Club 4; Girls' Leaders 4. Never tardy; no demerits. Burr Junior High School.

Cally was particularly interested in the affairs and meetings of the Girls' Leaders Corps and the Girls' Swimming Club. She informs us that she is contemplating pursuing designing and dressmaking in the future. If color combinations and attractiveness are conducive to success in this field, we are certain she will succeed.

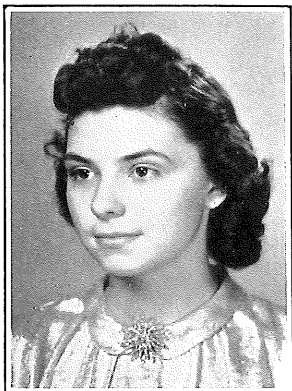

ALICE LEITA WAILER
"Al"

"And she was fair as is the rose in May."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Girls' League 1, 2, 3, 4. Washington Street School. Business College.

Alice really wasn't as indifferent to people and things as she sometimes appeared. According to her friends, Alice was friendly and entertaining once you "broke the ice."

DOROTHY TERESA WALCZAK
"Dot"

"Still achieving, still pursuing,
Learn to labor and to wait."

A. A. 4; Girls' League 1, 2, 3; Senior Dramatic Club 3, 4; Girls' Glee Club 4. Never tardy; no demerits. Southwest School. University of Alabama.

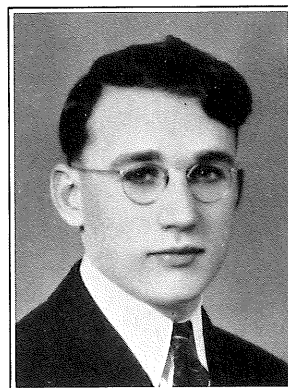

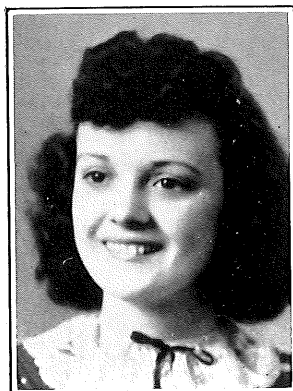

Perhaps the reason that Dot didn't participate more extensively in school activities was her interest in the University of Alabama. In school Dot was very neat in appearance and had a smile for all her friends.

EDWARD JOHN WARD
"Scoop"

"He thought as a sage, though he felt as a man."

Boys' Club 1, 2, 3, 4; Junior Dramatic Club 1, 2; Senior Dramatic Club 3, 4; Edison Club 3, 4, Secretary 3, 4; Radio Club 3, 4, Fifth Member 3, 4; Boys' Debating Club 4; Track Team 2, 3, 4. St. Peter's School.

Ed was such a riot with his jokes that he even kept himself amused. As an actor in the Dramatic Club he had many opportunities to make his humor known to all.

MAE AGNES WARD

"As a dream when one awaketh."

A. A. 1, 4; Girls' League 1, 3, 4; Torch Business Board 4; Girls' Leaders 4. St. Augustine's School.

Mae personifies rhythm and beauty combined. Her dancing feet will carry her far in the future wherever great talent is needed. Best of luck to you, Mae.

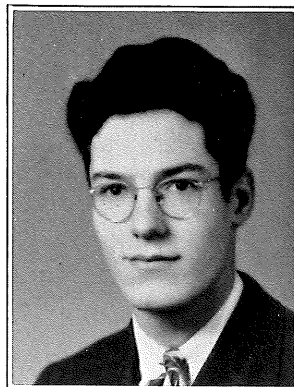

PATRICIA LOUISE WARE
"Patty"

The noise of many waters."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; French Club 3, 4; Girls' League 1, 2, 3, 4, Room Representative 1; Girls' Leaders 2, 3, 4; Girls' Glee Club 2; Swimming Club 3, 4; Biology Club 4. Never absent; never tardy; no demerits. Southwest School. Mt. Holyoke.

Pat with her jolly personality never seemed to lack popular escorts. She spent most of her time entertaining callers and attending School affairs.

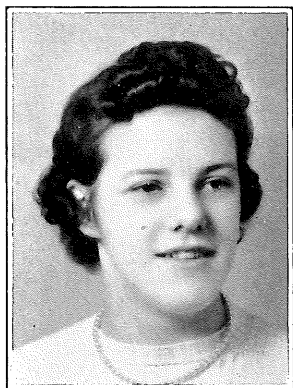

EARL GOULD WARNER
"Goo-Goo"

"In friendship I early was taught to believe."

A. A. 2, 3, 4; Boys' Club 2, 3, 4; Ping-Pong Club 3, 4; Cheerleader 2, 3, 4, Manager 3, 4, Letter 3. Never tardy; no demerits. Burr Junior High School. Northeastern University.

Without "Goo-Goo" as cheerleader to spur our teams to victory, Bulkeley would have suffered badly. He was eager and ambitious to lead his classmates in a rousing school yell.

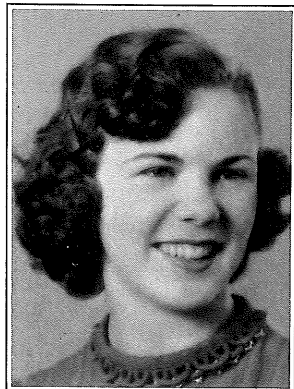

IRENE JACQUELYNE WHEELER
"Rene"

"Live truly, and thy life shall be
A great and noble creed."

A. A. 2, 3, 4. Never tardy; no demerits. Southwest School. New Britain Teachers' College.

Irene set the styles for many of the Bulkeley girls. Though one of the youngest members of our class, she possessed a dignity that would have done credit to a much older student.

PHYLLIS MARIAN WATTS
"Phil"

"I love a friendship that flatters itself in the sharpness and vigor of its communications."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Girls' League 1, 2, 3, 4; Camera Club 3, 4; Executive Committee 4; Junior Glee Club 1; Kickball 2, 3. Southwest School. Cambridge Secretarial School.

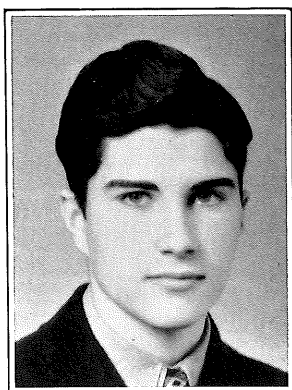

Brusque, ready, always on the go—that's Phil. Her deep voice had a friendly greeting for everyone.

EUNICE MARIE WHITE
"Eun"

A. A. 2, 4; Girls' League 4; Girls' Swimming Club 1; Commercial Club 4. Never tardy; no demerits. Burr Junior High School.

Eunice was small but impressive, and never forgot a friend when once she had made his acquaintance. The constant motion of her jaws became so customary that even the teachers couldn't guess the secret.

RAYMOND JOSEPH WHITE
"Ray"

"Heard melodies are sweet."

A. A. 2, 3, 4; Boys' Club 4; Art Club 2, 3, 4. Never absent; no demerits. Burr Junior High School.

MAIDA WHITING
"Honey"

"The ideal of courtesy and grace."

A. A. 4; Girls' League 2, 3. Never tardy; no demerits. Burr Junior High School.

"Honey" is certainly an appropriate nickname for Maida, because she was well known throughout her stay at Bulkeley for her sweet and charming manner.

ROBERT HAROLD WILLIAMS
"Bud"

"The faith he has in tennis."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Boys' Club 1, 2, 3, 4; Table Tennis Club 4; Tennis Team 3, 4, Manager 4; Room Treasurer 4. Never tardy. Southwest School.

Even if the Tennis Club is unknown to some students, "Bud" deserves a great deal of credit for his work in the club. Not only that, but "Bud" was also an ardent supporter at the basketball games and all the school affairs.

GRACE LILLIAN WILSON
"Gracie"

"Jest not with the eye, or with religion."

Never tardy; no demerits. Brighton High School, Vermont. Moody Bible Institute, Chicago, Illinois.

Gracie has a dignified manner and a serious aloofness that fit her perfectly for religious work.

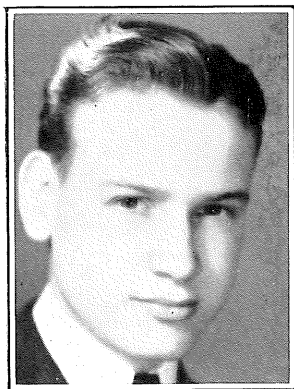

FRANCES LORRAINE WINIS
"Fran"

"The soul of sweet delight can never be defiled."

A. A. 2, 3, 4; Girls' League 1, 2, 3, 4; Executive Board 3, 4; Junior Dramatic Club 1, 2; Torch Business Board 3, 4; Mathematics Club 4. Kinsella School. St. Joseph College.

That cute little girl who could be found in the Torch room every Friday during her free period was Frannie. Her petiteness and cuteness have kept her well supplied with escorts during her high school days.

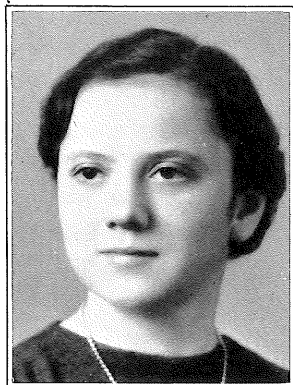

ROBERT KENNETH WINTER
"Bob"

"Life has its heroes."

Boys' Club 2; Ping-Pong Club 4. Burr Junior High School.

Bob was the only member of the class who made the "Parade of Youth." He obtained this distinction by discovering a fire and saving several lives. Besides being known as a hero, Bob will be remembered for his keen wit.

ROSE WOROBEL
"Rosie"

"Few things are impracticable in themselves; and it is for want of application, rather than of means, that men fail of success."

A. A. 2, 3, 4; Girls' League 2, 3, 4; Agora 3, 4; Camera Club 4; Classical Club 4; French Club 4; Honor Society 4; Girls' Leaders Corps 4; Torch Business Board 3, 4; Mathematics Club 4. Never tardy; no demerits. Lawrence Street School. Colby Junior College.

If perseverance at a task merits reward, something big is in store for Rose. She has a great deal of intelligence and is willing to help others with their difficulties.

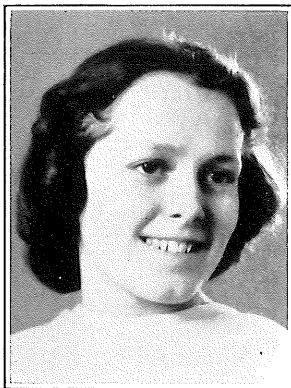

WILLIAM ALOYSIOUS YEAGHER
"Bill"

"A merry heart maketh a cheerful countenance."

A. A. 2, 3, 4; Art Club 4; Radio Club 4; Edison Club 4; Ping-Pong 3, 4; Boys' Club 2, 3, 4. Hartford Public High School. Saskatchewan University.

Bill clearly shows us that it isn't only size that counts, for he has obtained a host of sincere friends. Girls couldn't understand why they weren't blessed with such beautiful eyes as Bill has.

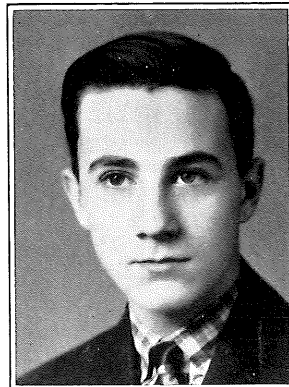

DORIS HELEN YORGENSEN
"Dot"

"No company is far preferable to bad, because we are more apt to catch the vices of others than virtues."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Girls' League 1, 2, 3, 4; History-Civics Club 4; Camera Club 4; Girls' Swimming Club 3, 4; Kickball 3, 4. Never tardy. Washington Street School. St. Francis Training School for Nurses.

Doris has what is commonly called "school spirit." No football game was complete without her lusty voice helping the team along.

WALTER STANLEY ZEKAS
"Zeke"

"A generous friendship no cold medium knows."

Chauncey Harris School.

The boys have certainly appreciated Zeke's willingness to drive them to school. This illustrates his generosity and consideration toward his friends.

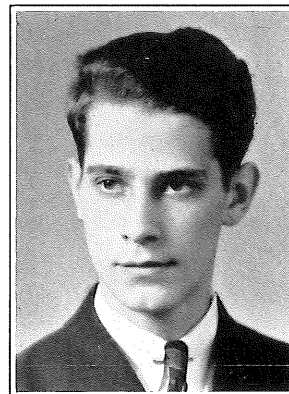

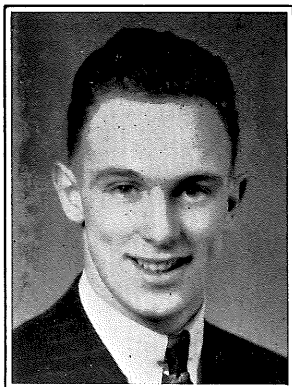

ADA STELLA ZEMBRUSKI
"Ada"

"All our misfortunes are due to our not being able to be alone."

Girls' League 4. Never tardy; no demerits. Hartford Public High School.

Ada must have taken Greta Garbo seriously. But they say genius is found in those who live by themselves.

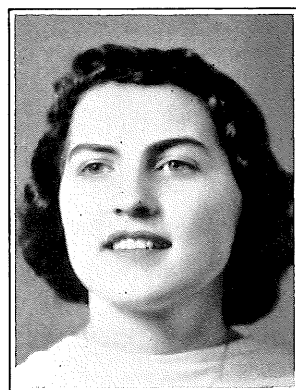

GEORGE LOUIS ZIEGLER
"Zig"

"His limbs were set in manly mould,
For hardy sports or contest bold."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Boys' Club 1, 2, 3, 4; Torch Business Board 4; Swimming Club 1, 2, 3, 4; Upper Class Choir 3, 4; Boys' Glee Club 3, 4; Inter-class Basketball 2, 3, 4; Track 2, 3, 4; Freshman Football; Football 2, 4, Letter 4. Naylor School. Duke University.

"Zig" has proven himself a versatile and capable athlete. Unfortunate injuries prevented his becoming a Bulkeley headliner. Better luck in college, "Zig."

HELEN IRENE ZIEMINSKI

"Who knows useful things is wise."

A. A. 2, 3, 4; Girls' League 2, 3, 4; Swimming Club 2, 3, 4; Girls' Leaders 2, 3, 4; Ni-No-Van 4; Honor Society 3, 4; Commercial Club 4; Salutatorian. Never absent; never tardy; no demerits. Burr Junior High School. University of Southern California.

That modest reserve of Helen's was not due either to arrogance or shyness, but to a hard concentration on her studies. Her high standing is only one of her rewards for perseverance.

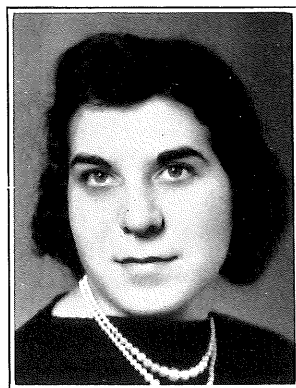

SABINA HELEN ZIEMINSKI
"Seb"

"If thou desire to be held wise, be so wise as to hold thy tongue."

A. A. 4; Girls' League 1, 2, 3, 4; Ni-No-Van Club 4; Girls' Swimming Club 2, 3; Radio Club 1. S. S. Cyril and Methodius School. Bay Path Institute.

Although she was quiet and reserved in the classroom, Sabina could wax voluble when with her friends outside of school. Roller skating was her favorite pastime, and it was with no little eagerness that she looked forward to such parties both in and out of school.

ANGELINE SANTINA ZINGARELLI
"Jerry"

"Victory belongs to the most persevering."

A. A. 4; Girls' League 1, 2, 3, 4. No demerits. Hartford Public High School.

Angeline thought shorthand "got under her skin," but she stood it for two long years. Her biggest triumph was the day she passed her Gregg Transcription test.

DOROTHY IRENE ZUROWSKI

"As gentle as the zephyrs blowing the violet."

A. A. 2, 4; Girls' League 1, 2, 4; Torch Business Board 2, 3, 4; Junior Red Cross, President 4; Ni-No-Van 4. St. Peter's School. Lanston Monotype Institution.

Dorothy's favorite pastime is reading. The results of this valuable amusement are well shown in her English and geology classes. She was elected the first president of the Junior Red Cross Association newly organized at Bulkeley.

DOROTHY LOUISE JUNE BURCH

"Her very frowns are fairer far than smiles of other maidens are."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Girls' League 1, 2, 3, 4; Freshman Choir 1; Upper Class Choir 2, 3, 4. Southwest School. Willimantic Teachers' College.

Dot is one of the most petite and prettiest girls in our class. Her good looks and ability to dress attractively have made her a model girl.

SOPHIE MARY BYSTROSKA

"Sophia"

"She'll play a small game rather than stand out."

Never tardy; no demerits. Hartford Public High School.

Sophia was never very loquacious. However, once she was on the tennis court, she forgot her customary habits and blended exceptionally well into the spirit of the game.

MARY MARGARET FOX

"Culture is the passion for sweetness and light."

Battle Creek High School, Battle Creek, Michigan.

Although she arrived at Bulkeley just a few months ago, Mary was made an honorary member of the Literary Club. No wonder, with her past record as a literary light on her own school paper. Very chic, these girls from the Middle West!

JAMES JOSEPH FRANCOLINE

"Use pastime so as not to lose past time."

Jimmy is a stellar baseball player. Last spring he was a rookie sensation at the Cardinals' training camp when he hit a homer off Dizzy Dean. We wish you more and greater records, Jimmy.

BERNARD EDWARD HEENEY

"Berney"

"He sits high in all the people's hearts."

Dramatic Club 3, 4; Legislative Club 3, 4. No demerits. Burr Junior High School.

Berney was very popular with the ladies but he also had many friends among the boys. His assistance with the scenery guaranteed the complete success of the Senior Dramatic Club presentations.

GEORGE LEWIS MOTOLA

"Kic"

"As happy as the livelong day."

Burr Junior High School.

"Kic" certainly never let anything bother him, for his joviality has made him the life of any gathering. He is also a musician of some note.

SARA LEAH ROTTENBERG

"Sally"

"There is only one success—to be able to spend your life in your own way."

Never tardy; no demerits. Newington High School.

Sally entered Bulkeley in her senior year. Too bad she did not come here sooner, for we are sure that she would have entered into the school life whole-heartedly.

HELEN MARIE WARNOCK

"Softly speak and sweetly smile."

Cranston High School. Connecticut State College.

In the few months that Helen was with us here at Bulkeley, she became highly esteemed in the minds of her fellow students. We wish her the best of luck in her future work.

CHRISTIAN GEORGE ZWICK

"His virtues were his arts."

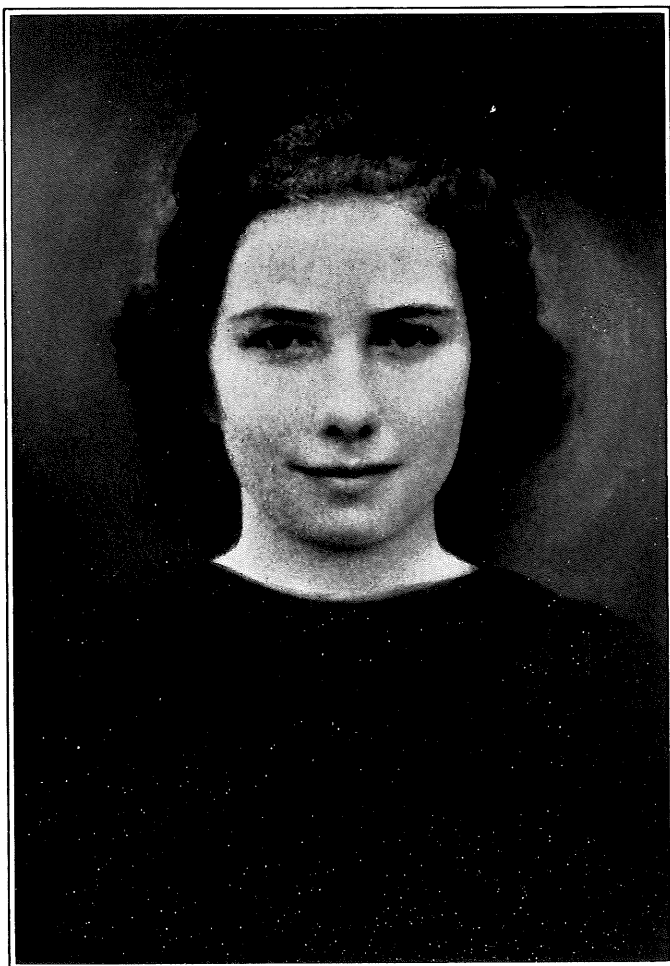

A. A. 1, 2; Boys' Club 1, 2; Art Club 3, 4. Washington Street School.

Although Chris is not very well known to many of us, his big cheery grin was very welcome to those who did know him. That smile ought to get him far in life.

CHAIRMAN'S ADDRESS

Parents, Teachers, and Friends:

Following the custom of previous classes, we are gathered here for a night of entertainment. Representatives have been chosen by our class to record our history, foretell the future, dispose of our worldly goods, and present other forms of entertainment. As this is the largest class ever to be graduated from this school, we have found it necessary to seat the stronger half of our class in the audience and the more attractive half upon the platform. Since this is our final meeting as undergraduates, we hope that you will help us make this a most successful and enjoyable evening.

Throughout our four years in this school, we have not only studied and worked, but we have experienced many enjoyable and unforgettable moments. We have made many life-long companions, and to you, parents, teachers, and friends, whose guidance has inspired us for the past four years, we wish to express our appreciation.

And so, on behalf of my classmates, it is my privilege to bid you all a most cordial welcome to our Class Night exercises.

T. FRANCIS MURNANE

CLASS ORATION

OUR OWN TIME AND PLACE

NE hundred years ago, Ralph Waldo Emerson gave utterance to the Literary Declaration of Independence when he delivered his oration, "The American Scholar", at Harvard University. It was a clarion call urging us to stand on our own feet, to be independent, though not unconscious, of Europe and the past—to be independent of all but ourselves. It was Emerson who urged upon us that "self dependence and self trust are vital parts of education." He said, "Books are for the scholar's idle time—Life is our dictionary. Of course, he who puts forth his total strength in fit actions has the richest return of wisdom." Can we, who are now to leave high school, do better than follow his precept, "Free should the scholar be—free and brave"—and "at home in his own time and place"?

Our own time and place—the United States in the twentieth century. Some of us, if we live to be eighty, will see the century turn into the two thousands, but most of us will see no century turn. Our history lies within these nineteen hundreds. An old proverb says, "He who would bring home the wealth of the Indies must carry out the wealth of the Indies." What task have we here? What will our wealth from the Indies be? The first fact that is going to press itself upon most of us is the need to earn a living, to feed, clothe, and shelter ourselves happily. Our work may lie in the CCC Camp. Lowly, you say? Yes, perhaps, if it is lowly to be a factor in the preservation of the forests. Today we can say with pride that our forests are no longer in jeopardy. Earlier in our history as the colonies grew, axes were swung at the primeval forests in our own neighboring White Mountains until the slopes were stripped of trees. Today, though we take some 20,000,000 board feet a year, the growth of wood is amply protected by national and state law. We may become factory hands or insurance company workers. We may be no more than a rivet in the bridge spanning some broad river. We may have a big or a little part in some vast engineering project which represents what is taking place around us. In Colorado is Boulder Dam, something much greater than any single person, and yet now that it is completed, a man can command by a few dials enough power to release tons of water, turn huge turbines, and light great cities for thousands of people many miles away. Our trail may be that vaguely charted one of the air. When we see the green and red light of the mail plane soar above us at night and pass over the horizon, we silently salute the courage and strength these every day men have. In John Collins, the noted test pilot, we had one of these. Just recently he died as his plane, a screaming silver streak, crashed to the earth. Among us too are those who will travel the adventurous path—always in danger—sometimes, we trust, in safety.

In the United States, that land of broad rivers, vast prairies, magnificent mountains, and fertile valleys, we can travel far and still be at home, if we will. We can go from a tranquil New England town to a flat prairie city, and on to a western mining camp. New York, Chicago, San Francisco—New Orleans and Washington, D. C., completes another circle for us. In wealth and beauty our land is limitless. Most of us have visited the White Mountains and have been thrilled by their magnificence as we rode northward along highways, in many places cut through solid rocks. As we stopped at a lookout and gazed at the side of a huge cliff opposite, it seemed that nature had dropped a tapestry, tinted in yellow and red, with backgrounds of deep purple and flaming gold. As we went through the flume, we saw masterpieces of mosses and shrubs woven on granite and slung from all sides of the engulfing rocky gorge through which ominous sounds of rushing water roared. From the base of Mount Washington we viewed hills which looked like plump bankers with their heads in the clouds. No place for a banker's head, we admitted. But the scenic beauty and greatness compared to our frail bodies sent chills through us. Now, as we become more financially independent, we shall like to see, among other wonders of our country, the Grand Canyon of the Colorado and the South Dakota Black Hills.

Three thousand miles east and west—three thousand miles north and south—we can travel among our own countrymen, no barriers stopping us, no visas necessary. As we read about the European countries and the tragedies of so many homes where the iron hand of militarism bears down on the people, we cannot help but thank God that we are Americans and live in this blessed country. Our democratic nation with its soul-inspiring freedom and its peace and tranquillity is far superior to the dictatorial countries of Europe, whose people are gradually being crushed in their straight-jackets of regimentation and domination. A dictatorship can mean only one thing—a people dismayed by doubts, relinquishing a birthright in the hope that an omnipotent ruler may at least put bread into their hungry mouths. In the years that we face, our self trust and self dependence must be the steady flame that burns for democracy.

In knowing our own time and place we must realize that this life is but a series of interwoven paths along which we are pushed by time. Between us and our success is a labyrinth through which we must pass, and whether we are to find our way to accomplishment, fame, and success will depend upon our ability to overcome the blocks and bars that mean failure, and upon our ability to keep to the right path when an easy slip is near. It will be necessary for us to know the way, to know our time and place. Emerson says, "The world, this shadow of the soul or other me, lies wide around." He does not picture for us the simple loneliness of solitary study that was the outlook of past scholars. Instead, ours must be a strenuous and encompassing life, and if we are to be at home in our own time and place, can we wish to be otherwise than "strong to live as well as strong to work"?

THOMAS SIDNEY MASON, JR.

CLASS ESSAY

“* * * * AND THY LIPS FROM SPEAKING GUILE”

SOMEONE once wrote, “The tongue—how small a thing, its work how vast!” The tongue is very small in proportion to the rest of the body, yet, through its power of speech, it is capable of determining the difference between happiness and sorrow. A cheery greeting may brighten the day for a lonesome person; a kindly word of praise may encourage a timid soul; a few friendly words may mean much to a shut-in. On the other hand a malicious remark may cast a cloud of suspicion over a life; a sarcastic word may cause the loss of a dear friend; an angry, carping criticism may arouse the fire of revenge and hatred in some breast. The damage that a thoughtless word may do is incalculable.

In the book of Proverbs we find the statement, “Life and Death are in the power of the tongue.” In one minute a slanderous tongue can wreck a life’s work, ruin a spotless reputation, or even blot out a life. Truly the tongue is “an unruly evil, full of deadly poison.” From the time we were old enough to comprehend right from wrong, our parents have warned us. “If you can’t say something good about a person, don’t say anything at all.” Yet still the world is full of rumor, slander, and gossip.

This glorious advantage of speech, which man alone possesses, should not be abused. Everyone realizes the evil the tongue can do, and everyone agrees that gossip, rumor, and slander only pollute our daily conversation. Yet wherever there is conversation such evils inevitably creep in—in street cars, at social gatherings, at business conferences, in school, and even in church. Twenty centuries ago the Roman poet, Virgil, wrote: “Rumor, than whom no other is more swift, by exerting her agility, grows more active and acquires strength on her way; small at first through fear, soon she shoots up into the skies, and, hiding her head among the clouds, yet stalks along the ground. She is a monster, hideous, immense. By night, through shades of earth, she flies buzzing, nor inclines her eyes to balmy rest. Watchful by day, she perches either on some high housetop, or on lofty turrets, and fills mighty cities with dismay, as obstinately bent on falsehood and iniquity as on reporting truth.” Who has described rumor and its evils better than this? Who can dispute its power after hearing Virgil’s eloquence?

If Virgil found this subject important, and if this evil has come down through the ages unchecked, I think it is important enough for us to consider as we go out of our carefree school life into the great world.

The need of checking this evil becomes more vital as civilization progresses. With the perfection of the radio, words take on a greater importance. Once, not so long ago, if our words, unwittingly, conveyed the wrong impression, we could be consoled by the fact that they could offend only those within range of our voices. Today the radio carries our words to countless listeners the world over.

It is important to choose every spoken word carefully, for words have the power to cause great unhappiness. Words are more deadly than bullets, sabres, or bombs, whose work is quick and merciful. Words can make deep scars on human hearts, which neither medicine nor time can heal. A few words from the loose tongue of a jealous, angry, or embittered person can cause infinite suffering. Homes have been broken up by misunderstanding, and ghastly tragedies have happened, leaving orphaned children. All this strife because some unthinking persons could not control their tongue! And still these tongues go on wagging, leaving heart-rending distress, utter ruin, and even death in their wake.

Plutarch wrote, "When Demartus was asked whether he held his tongue because he was a fool or for lack of words, he replied, 'A fool cannot hold his tongue'." No one desires to be termed "a fool." Let us, therefore, remember, as we take our places in the world, that the right words can mean so much, while the wrong may produce a lifetime of suffering. It is just as easy to say beneficial things as harmful ones. Can we not visualize the havoc the tongue can wreak? Can we not keep unvoiced thoughts that may further slander, rumor, and gossip? The power of speech was entrusted to us by our Creator. We must not betray this trust.

Our school days now are o--ver, We bid our school good--bye. We'll Our chance you gave us, Bulke-ley, Our days of work were fun, And not for---get the good times, that were ours at Bulke-ley High. So tho' they are now clos---ing, there are friend-ships we have won. Fair we ex---tend with grate-ful hearts our thanks for gui-dance true, To school, we all now re---a--lize, our task has just be-----gun, But tea-chers who with pa-tience led our paths thru hard-ships new. And so we'll we will strive to car-ry on un--til suc-cess is won. And so we'll

Sing of thy: glo--ry, we'll hold dear thy name, We'll tell the well known sto--ry, of the school that won its fame. And now tho' we leave thee, it's not a real good--bye; For we'll be back to give our cheers for dear old Bulke-ley

High.

CLASS HISTORY

Scene—The stage is set as a radio studio. In the back sit some of the members of the class, representing the studio audience. On the back wall may be seen such signs as "Quiet Please", or "No Smoking." In the center of the front of the stage is a new, shining microphone. At one side of the stage is a sign which keeps flashing in red letters, "On the Air." Stacked near the microphone are signs for directing the audience, such as "Silence", "Applause", or "Laughter."

CHARACTERS

Look-back-a-scope Demonstrators—Barbara Newell and Paul Hickey

News Announcer—Julius Rosen

Women's Commentator—Marjorie Robinson

Announcers for "Have You a Treasure?"—Otto Staehr and Barbara Sage.

As the scene opens—News announcer walks up to microphone, looks at watch, and waves to side of stage. Lighted sign, "On the Air" starts flashing, and announcer holds up sign saying, "Silence."

LADIES AND GENTLEMEN:

For the first time in the history of broadcasting, a new development is being demonstrated here tonight, June 22, 1960. Our sponsors have given us the privilege of introducing to you the latest appliance to be attached to the microphone, the Look-back-a-scope. What could be more profitable or interesting to us as members of the Bulkeley graduating Class of 1938 and to you, the radio audience, than to look back to the fall of 1934, when this class entered Bulkeley? We take you back twenty-six years to the Bulkeley High School.

Twenty-six years ago in 1934, we took up our pencils to start our work at Bulkeley High. We look back upon that year and upon our records established there with a strange combination of regret and joy. Within the walls of Bulkeley, we gathered facts and ideas; we argued and quibbled; we tasted of education and wisdom in our daily contacts with the men and women of our faculty, and in the written words of our books.

During that year of 1934, we were Freshmen, and as such we didn't do much. It wasn't all due to shyness, but rather to regulations. We weren't permitted to try for positions on teams; we were prohibited from joining all upper class activity, for the majority of clubs have no place for lowly Freshmen. Finally, we got a start when the Junior Dramatic Club was formed. Under the presidency of John

M. Carey, the newly-formed club presented its first play, "The Pampered Darling", with the support of Barbara Couch, Mary Meaney, Dorothy Nelson, Barbara Newell, Dot O'Connor, Thomas Pappageorge, and James Scott.

Once the ice of activity was broken, we branched out into many lines. From the poetic pen of Marjorie Fay there came her first published contribution to the Dial. Bill Cotter and Marjorie Robinson shortly afterwards became members of the same monthly periodical, and we were ably represented on the Student Council by John M. Carey, John McNally, Daniel Ryan, Hope Barton, Marjorie Fay, Chester Frohock, Lillian Kukla, Richard McCabe, Florence Sandberg, and Robert Vannie.

After that year we no longer had to cram for those dreaded exams, nor were we compelled to attend school in the afternoon, for Bulkeley was now on a single session. We survived that first year resolved to settle down and really go somewhere in the Sophomore year.

Our Look-back-a-scope now takes us back twenty-five years to the year 1935. When we returned in the fall—a greatly changed group—we said, "We'll show 'em; now we know the ropes." It was at this time that our members were swelled by the addition of the first graduates of the Junior High System. From Burr Junior High they came, 171 strong.

In that year "Sonny" O'Neil started to lay the foundation for Bulkeley's tennis team, and John Carey showed the rest of the golfers how to hit a ball and keep it rolling.

It was during this same Sophomore year that the Dial sponsored a "Miss Bulkeley" contest in which Catherine Kinsella, Ruth Hinkleman, and Florence Sandberg were among the first ten.

At the same time, Julius Epstein and Thomas Pappageorge became members of the Editorial Board of the Torch, the same board of which they were to be editors in the Senior year.

Pat Scandura, Eddie Casey, Tom Pappageorge, and Walter Galuszka were attempting to gain a place on Bulkeley's football team, but that was to come later. George Levesque did all right that year in basketball, as did Nick Pacelia.

"Bud" Stevens, Dick Sutherland, Ed McCormack, Johnny Long, Jack McMahon, and "Red" Luther were doing their bit toward making Bob Daly's track team a winner.

"Time marches on." Look! now you can see Bulkeley twenty-four years ago. That was the fall of 1936, when we returned as "jolly juniors". By that time we were really in the swim. Mary Lynch and Joe Nolan were elected officers in the Student Council, and many of our classmates were climbing to positions of importance on the Torch and Dial boards.

In track Bill Saillant, Bill Cotter, Nick Pacelia, Sammy Tolisano, and Jack McMahon helped Bob Daly to chalk up several victories. The team had tough sledding that year, however, being forced to walk to one of its meets, owing to two blowouts.

Johnny Miller, "Chubby" Bachand, Ernie Goodrich, "Red" Wilkos, and Al Puadziunas warmed the cockles of "Babe" Allen's heart by bringing home the City championship in baseball. In tennis, "Sonny" O'Neil and Otto Staehr won many a match, while John M. Carey was busy hitting that little white pill around to become our champion golfer. There—after all that, never let it be said that our class isn't sport-conscious.

But don't think we didn't excel in other fields at the same time. Nineteen of us were elected to the Honor Society, and sixteen boys became Junior Ushers. Hope Barton and Stanley Krulikowski became members of the Inter-High Orchestra, and Thomas Mason and Florence Sandberg took part in the annual debate between the Boys' Debating Club and the Agora.

During our Junior year Parents' Night and Sports Night were inaugurated, the former, to help parents to become better acquainted with our school, the latter, to help defray expenses of assemblies. Roller skating was the craze of the moment. It first invaded the Bulkeley gym and won its popularity in January of this year. The childhood pastime in a new setting was sponsored by the Classical Club. The Torch got in on the ground floor and gave two skating parties. The ever-increasing crowds attested to the success of the ventures.

The crowning event of the year was the Junior Prom with John M. Carey as chairman. Never before in the history of the school was there such a Prom. Little work was done in classes for a week preceding the event. Finally when the sunset settled down to dusk, stylishly dressed couples started to appear, and before long the strains of music made the huge crowd syncopation-conscious. For four hours—hours never to be forgotten—the greatest event of Junior Year continued.

And now we gaze back with our mechanical device upon the last year we spent within the walls of Bulkeley, 1938!

Seniors at last! After three years of struggling, we finally became the rulers of the school. No longer were we as green as the unripe apples that used to give us tummy-aches. At this time, we preferred to be addressed as Miss and Mr. No longer did we bother too much with homework, for we could think up, and get away with, rather expert excuses, excuses that practice has made perfect. We just couldn't miss an evening's entertainment for all the homework in the world. Ankle socks became far below the dignity of senior girls, and so they now wore silk hosiery. A few privileged members of our class even raised mustaches—members such as Al Granatek and "Foo" Mottram. We were now looked up to by the lower classmen, and their respect was sought and gained.

Mary Meaney was elected president of the Girls' League and the Honor Society. Frank Murnane led the football team and directed the activities of the Student Council.

Tom Pappageorge became president of the Boys' Club; Julius Epstein acted as editor of the Torch, while Russell Case and Morris Steinberg led the same paper to one of the most successful of recent seasons.

The Dramatic Club, with Florence Sandberg as president, presented a real old-fashioned melodrama, with several members of our class in the cast, Shirley Hayes, Charlie McCarthy, Dot Hazard, the roving reporter, and Frank Mottram.

The Agora and the Boys' Debating Club presented an exceptionally interesting debate with Helen Rundbaken, Rose Worobel, and June Lawrence, representing the girls, and Russell Pyros, Norman Mann, Paul Hickey, and Marshall McGuire representing and defending the sterner sex.

One of the most popular boys' clubs was the Legislative Club. With Danny Ryan and later with Roderick Murray as speaker, this club held many interesting meetings, some of them with the Agora and the History-Civics Club here at Bulkeley, and one with our neighbors in East Hartford.

The Dial, headed by Marjorie Fay and Julius Rosen as editors and Bill Cotter and Joe Nolan as business heads, became a greatly improved periodical. So great was its increased popularity that the magazine had one of the best years in its evistence.

The Mathematics Club, with Bulkeley's heartbreaker, Marshall McGuire, as president, and the German Club also came into existence during our Senior year. Also the Bulkeley Band, which henceforth will spur our teams on to victory with its martial fanfare, was formed, and gained such members as Stan Krulikowski, Maurice Guillet, and Russ Case.

This year Florence Sandberg proved to be the most popular girl of our class when she was elected to represent Bulkeley in the D. A. R. contest.

On the gridiron McGuire, Murnane, "Bud" Kinniry, Bachand, Joe Kinniry, George Levesque, Tom Pappageorge, and John F. Carey did themselves proud in behalf of Bulkeley and the class of '38. On the basketball court, Joe Noce, Levesque, Puadziunas, and Nickie Pacelia, comprising almost the whole Bulkeley team, gained many victories for dear old B. H. S.

The competition for highest ranks was very keen that year. Out of the first and second scholarship prize winners of earlier years, Milton Gross, Mary Meaney, Virginia Okerfelt, Morris Steinberg, Sebastian Leggio, Marjorie Robinson, H. Jane Riley, and William Cullina, emerged our valedictorian, William Cullina, and our salutatorian, Helen Zieminski.

At last we laid our pencils aside; our work was finished. From this you have probably gathered that our class was the peppiest, wittiest, smartest, most popular, most cultured, and above all the biggest bunch of bluffers and braggarts that ever spent four years in Bulkeley. We have given you a glimpse into the past. Now we shall sign off to let you hear the latest news of the day.

BARBARA NEWELL
PAUL HICKEY

CLASS PROPHECY

Announcer—Good evening, ladies and gentlemen. Again through the courtesy of some of our leading business firms we bring to you the latest news, as of today, June 22, 1960. First, for the news from foreign lands. United States Ambassador Paul Hickey has been trying in vain for several weeks to come to a trade agreement with Dictator Julius Epstein. The dictator, however, refuses to coöperate. Ambassador William Cullina is busy in Spain, seeking aid for American citizens there who are endangered by the new Spanish revolution, instigated by Santiago Fernandez. Also from our foreign correspondent comes news of the Olympic games where Edward McCormack, Sam Tolisano, Edward Ward, and John Long are bettering the records that they set at Bulkeley.

We have just received the following sports flash: Otto Staehr has at last reached Forest Hills—he is now ball-boy.

And now for news of the nation. At Congress, that crusading Congresswoman, Rose Worobel, has started a new movement for shorter hours and more pay, urged on, one is led to believe, by the lobbying of William Mahoney.

(Pause) Now for a word from one of our sponsors. Are you feeling weak? Are your muscles flabby? Do you lack ambition? Write today to that man of muscles and vitality, America's most perfectly developed man, George Levesque. We quote a few lines from one of the many testimonials he has received: "Until I took your course I was small and puny and weak as could be, but today I am a man," signed Alphonse Puadziunas.

Our news continues. From the scientific world comes the knowledge that Norman Mann has just pierced the fourth dimension, much to the chagrin of Sebastian Leggio who was working toward the same end. And for the newest work being done in the hospitals there are those up-and-coming nurses, Marjorie Grote and Dorothy Hansen, operating for the good of the world by removing the vocal chords of Gino Tordonato. And for the ultra-modern in hospital technique, there is Dr. Milton Gross who has developed a system by which he skillfully cuts away at his patients to the soft and soothing rhythm of his own record of "Saint Louis Blues." And now, another advertisement.

Dr. Nicholas Motto, your dentist, says, "Why be bored by other people? Come up and visit my office."

To continue our scientific news, George Vibberts has recently patented the newest development in the automotive line, a Ford without springs. If we aren't mistaken, we thought he always had one. Also in the automotive line is George Jacobsen, who has just patented the fool-proof automobile that he can drive just as well with one hand as with two.

Ladies and gentlemen, trade at Pacelia's market, where the accounts are capably taken care of by Dot O'Connor.

A flash from the courthouse: Attorney Robert Williams has just won the case of the State versus William Cotter. Cotter was charged with trying to vote twice. Judge Morris Steinberg rendered the verdict for the defendant.

For all of you interested in art, William Cowing, Director of Art at the Avery Memorial, announces the arrival of a collection of modernistic paintings by Howard Russell. In the realm of science Thomas Beakey has produced a new invisible dandelion.

For all the sports fans, we bring you the latest baseball score. The Hartford Laurels defeated the Wethersfield Stripers by a score of 9-0. Starring for the Laurels were Pat Scandura, Steve Lynch, and Chubby Bachand. The manager of the Stripers, Alphonse Granatek, the strike-out king, says, "We would have won, but my men couldn't get a break." Others claim, however, that he was blinded by his moustache. "Googoo" Warner has just won the national hog-calling contest. And, for a closing remark, it seems that Charlie McCarthy just can't live down that ugly rumor that he can't get along without Edgar Bergen. Keep tuned to this station, ladies and gentlemen, and you will hear the women's side of the news, with Marjorie Robinson, featuring the movie, stage, and radio previews. (Chimes) This is WBHS, Hartford.

Marjorie Robinson: Hello, friends. Again I bring you the woman's side of the news. First tonight is the news that the women have invaded yet another field. This time there has been founded a new school for women barkers, started by Phyllis Watts, Josephine Guzzy, and Rose Cummings to train women for circus and carnival work.

If you are fond of pets, if you are a lonesome old maid, if you crave affection, buy an alligator or cat from Helen Ramette's exclusive pet farm.

City Clerk Jane Riley announces that William Saillant has been appointed Dog Catcher for the city.

For a few choice remarks, I have selected these from Dot Hazard's gossip column: "It has been rumored that Virginia Okerfelt has been planning on Renovating with Ernie Goodrich. She claims that he is fonder of baseball than he is of her. Also, Radford Luther is still blazing a trail after Jane Hollings."

Ladies, have your beauty work done at Philip Prior's beauty shop, where reconditioning of all kinds is done by those experts, Irene Osias and Helen Rundbaken.

We hear that the new comedy sensation, Shirley Kuehnle, has just been awarded the role of stooge to Mr. Stoddard in his new play, "Could I Write a Book About Bulkeley!" Another new sensation is Christy Discenza, who is reviving the old custom of street singing; and a young lady who has made quite a name for herself on the musical comedy stage is Mae Ward.

For expert fitting of stylish clothes go to Shirley Russell's women's shop, where you will see the latest dresses modeled by Hortense Philbrick and Mary Lynch. You may also be interested in the children's department, where Shirley Temple clothes are modeled by Franny Winis, and Freddie Bartholomew suits for boys are modeled by Billy Yeagher.

Florence Sandberg, one of the leading women's college presidents, has just made a startling change in the curriculum by adding a course in "How to be Non-chalant" by Dockie Lindner. Another teacher is Irene Wheeler, who now has as her greatest problem child, Thomas Mason, III. For news of one of the newest plays on the New York stage, we recommend "The Face on the Refrigerator Shelf" written by Dorothy Sherwood and starring Roy Carcaud, who has as his new leading lady, Kay Kinsella.

A few memories of the Class of 1938 were recalled recently, especially that of Mr. Fellows' mortification over Doris LeGeyt's mistake with the petri dishes. And speaking of memories, Bud Stevens can't forget the day that Barbara Sage helped him with his Solid Geometry.

Get your ice cream from those two good-humored Good Humor men, Danny Ryan and Jimmy Starr.

And now for our choice of programs on the air. We think we'll give four bells to Charlie Slattery's new program with Adeline Gauruder very capably taking the part of Tizzy Lish, and Patty Ware taking the part of the human chatterbox, Arline Harris. For music, there is the delightful crooning of Annaruth Lawless, to the accompaniment of Russ Case's torrid trumpet and orchestra. For a best bet, we recommend that you listen to "Have You a Treasure?" which follows immediately after this program.

Rev. Adam Smith's church services will be broadcast tomorrow morning. Good night. (Chimes) This is WBHS, Hartford.

Otto Staehr: We present now, "Have You a Treasure?" Millions of dollars are left every year to unknown people who never collect them. In order to get in touch with some of these people, we bring you this program where we find ancient wills and read them to you over the air. If you find yourself named, please communicate with the executors of the will, so that you may claim your legacy. This time we have found a very old will. The writing is rather faded, but with great difficulty we can make out the following:

Otto Staehr and Barbara Sage read the WILL.

Otto Staehr: If, as we said before, your name appears, please contact the executors immediately. This concludes our broadcasting schedule for this evening. Good night. This is WBHS signing off.

CLASS WILL

We, the Class of 1938 of Bulkeley High School, allegedly sound in mind and body, do hereby declare this our last Will and Testament, and bequeath these our most precious possessions to the following:

To Dr. Feingold and Miss Dargan we leave our sincere appreciation for their untiring patience and never failing interest in us.

To the Juniors we bequeath the privilege of using the school elevator.
To the Sophomores we donate a couple of pins to help deflate their swelled heads.

To the Freshmen we leave a box of Wheaties—they need them.
To Mrs. FitzGerald we leave a noiseless pencil sharpener.
To Mr. Coburn we leave a few blue neckties.
To Mr. Daly we leave a bicycle to use when the track team has his car.
To Miss Kane we leave a soundproof telephone booth.
To Mr. Cocks we leave seven or eight more hairs.
To Sam Tiller we bequeath an apron that fits him.
To Mrs. Johnson we leave a pair of roller skates as a facility for getting around the halls.

To Mr. Stoddard we leave the memories of G-Man Kelly of Stamford.
Ann Cavellier and Shirley Hayes leave their dancing ability to Mr. Soby's dancing classes.

Bill Chamberlain gives up his freckles to 222. Maybe counting them would reduce the boredom.

Leo Czarnota bequeaths his cut-up cats and dogs to the biology department.

Ruth Bliss and Janette Elmore leave their conscientiousness to Mary McGrail.

Jimmie Dodson leaves his English humor to Mrs. FitzGerald.

Alexander Edgar and Jack Nielson leave their mask of quietness to anyone capable of getting away with it.

Peggy Bottomley and Dorothy Nelson bequeath their politeness to Freshmen who run through the corridors.

Al Euliano leaves his evasiveness to Juniors who don't do their homework.

Hope Barton and Stan Krulikowski leave their music ability to keep harmony in Mr. Coburn's Chem class.

Bob Milco leaves his "line" to the cooking room for drying towels.

Ruth Hinkleman and Eleanor Bransfield bequeath their artistic ability to help decorate the clubroom.

Robert Fillatti bequeaths his enormous vocabulary to the future dictionary makers.

Jim Scott's red jacket is contributed to keep the Torch going.

Alice Cooper's driving ability is left to the Safe Driving Course.

Marge Luscomb leaves Mr. Hart, to his regret.

Johnny Miller bestows his love for swing upon Miss Rayner.

"Bud" Kinniry leaves his nonchalance to Charlie Hatch.

Lucien Grillo's "bum" jokes are left to Mr. Jenkins.

Eva MacInnes, Mary Antonucci, and Barbara Collins leave their red hair to brighten up 169 on a rainy day.

Gwen Gardner donates her drag with Mr. Stoddard to some fish net company.

To Mr. Wilson, Dick McKinney leaves his nickels and dimes.

Betty McCarthy and Priscilla Sanford leave their loquacity to Barbara Treworthy.

The posture of Albert Johnson is left to Kerin Horan.

We leave Frank Mottram to help Frannie Malloy in the cafeteria.

Roderick Murray leaves Ruth Dawson with tears in his eyes.

Alice McDermott's vivacity is left to Ruth Holcomb.

Barbara Meyers and Joe Moffett leave their quietness to the Torch Room.

Marge Robinson leaves her knack of throwing spitballs to some innocent-looking lower classman.

Ken McCurry leaves his curly hair to freshman girls who need permanents.

Ian McLaren leaves his surplus essays to the Parnassus Club.

Marge Troiano and Barbara Guilmartin bequeath their beer jackets to Miss Francis.

Julius Epstein leaves his executive ability to some aspiring politician.

Grace Stedman leaves her ability to get places fast to the track team.

Ray Bouvier leaves his flashy clothes to Hart, Schaffner & Marx.

The Smiths leave their names to those lower classmen whose names cannot be pronounced.

Celes Tangarone leaves his ping pong ability to "Babe" Allen.

Jean Kennedy contributes her ability to write short stories to the Dial for use next year for "a bigger and better Dial."

We leave Richard Thompson to the Philip Morris Company as a double for Johnny.

Eleanor Olsen bequeaths her soft, delicate voice to Mr. Cook.

Howard Russell leaves his demerits to anyone who wants them.

Barbara Newell and Tay Hill leave their athletic ability to Hartford High.

Janice Nelson leaves her ability to play the school song to her successor.

Joe Noce leaves many heartbroken girls.

We leave Kay Mooney, Pat Kirby, and Lucy Nestor at Kramer's.

Joe Nolan leaves his position as business manager of the Dial gladly.

Nellie Mozzicato regrettably leaves the Dial Room.

Tom Pappageorge and Marshall McGuire leave their drag with the faculty to two up-and-coming athletes.

Eugene O'Neil leaves his supreme tennis ability to the captain of next year's tennis team.

Chester Frohock and Julius Rosen bequeath their scientific knowledge to the Peabody Institute.

Stan Straite leaves his butch haircut to the Fuller Brush.

Marge Fay leaves her fickleness to Betty Due.

To Elliot Stein we leave Jack Carey's charming smile.

George Ziegler gives his dimples to Mr. Williams.

In Witness Whereof, We the Testator and Testatrix of the Class of 1938, herewith set our hands and seal at Hartford, Connecticut, this twenty-second day of June, Anno Domini, one thousand nine hundred and thirty-eight.

POEM

AT THE DAWN OF TOMORROW

Down through the still and empty halls, Their silence itself a sound, Walk ghosts—ghosts—ghosts. And all these ghosts are memories— All broken fragments Of Yesterday.	The ghosts ever paint with a steady, sure brush Pictures of yesterday, But their pictures, too, Are memories. Memories Of other days When the still and empty halls Echoed the vibrant life within. Memories Of youthful friends, The true and the firm, The measure of Happiness; Memories, too, Of other ties, Not quite so steadfast and strong, Now dim in forgetfulness. These are the memories The ghosts recall, These are the pictures they paint.
In quiet procession, one by one, Endlessly filing, Endlessly whisp'ring, Reliving the years that have slipped from their grasp— The ghosts take this way of remembering. This is their way of recalling the Past, This is their way of bringing it back. I hear their whispering; Their murmuring. Like a fleeting dream, Now it is clear, Now it is fading, But never quite dying away. Like a bird from its ashes, Pictures arise From the muffled hush of the voices Endlessly murmuring, Endlessly whispering.	Out of the still and empty halls To the sunshine of Today, Walks Youth—Youth—Youth, Its Past behind, its eyes ever forward, Bright in the Dawn Of Tomorrow.

MARJORIE FAY

WHAT NOW, LITTLE SCHOLAR?

Time, the child of great Infinity—
Presiding o'er the fates of men, alike—
And so affecting them and their environment—
Obtrudes upon the class of Thirty-Eight,
Just as we pass another milestone now.
Grave time re-echoes shrill to all the youth:
"What now, little scholar?"

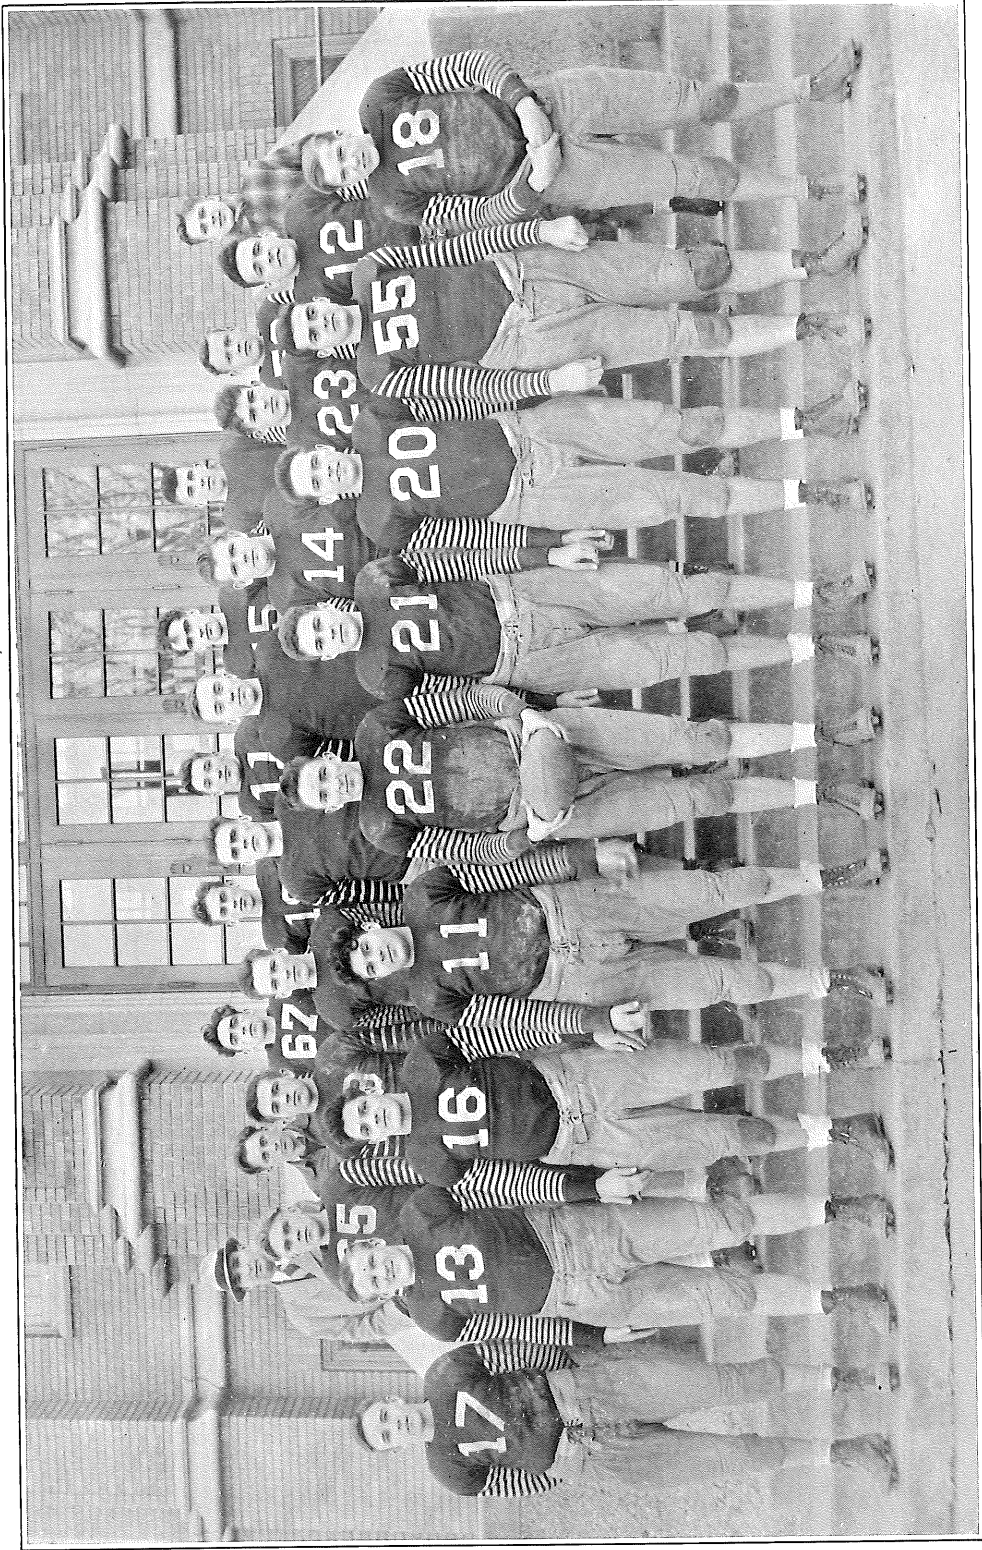

Few from this great class awaken now;
By Reverie the greater part is led.
They wander through enchanted lands of Hope;
And here amid these castles in the air,
Familiar to all men, mature or young,
Appears as if by Magic's hand, Time's sneer:
"What now, little scholar?"

Reality returns those led astray.
And some desire a life more erudite;
And gather 'round the gates of learning then;
The rest soon flow and ebb with Fortune's tides—
In the metropolis—on farm or sea—
Yet sounds the faint re-echo of Time's taunt:
"What now, little scholar?"

Inquiry is in vain, my doubtful friends,
Since future decades can reveal alone
That which the Fates shall have in store for us
On Life's great highway, or its brief by-path;
And so far-reaching is Time's fearful scythe;
There is no choice; his challenge take or shun—
"What now, little scholar?"

ADAM SMITH

THE FOOTBALL TEAM

According to pre-season dope, the Maroon gridiron squad was supposed to have one of its most successful seasons, but the advance information was quite false.

The team started off with a bang, trouncing Crosby by the score of 13 to 0 in a home game. Traveling to West Haven, the Maroon squad was beaten by a powerful West Haven team in the last two minutes of play. They then conquered Worcester by the score of 7 to 0. The first inter-city game with Hartford High ended in a 0 to 0 tie in a thrilling game. The team then finished the season without another victory, but let it be said to the credit of the team that it had one of the best line defenses in the state.

BASKETBALL

With six lettermen returning from last year's basketball team, "Babe" Allen looked forward to the 1937-'38 season with high expectations. Noce, Puadziunas, Levesque, Grogan, Pacelia, and Granato formed the nucleus of this year's squad.

The Maroons got off to a fast start, winning their first three games by one-sided scores. Rockville, West Haven, and Trade were the victims of the fast Bulkeley quintet. Noce and Puadziunas led the Bulkeley attack with Murphy, a reserve, showing some classy basketball. The Bulkeley squad received its first set-back when it was defeated, 41-33, by a hard-fighting Blue and White team from Hartford High. In spite of this defeat, the Maroon and White hoopsters came back strong to chalk up two victories over Meriden and New Britain. One of the major upsets of the scholastic season occurred in the next game, when Weaver, a decided underdog, knocked off the highly-touted Bulkeley five by a 33-27 score. The Bulkeley team got started again and strung up seven consecutive wins. New Britain, Hartford, West Hartford, Meriden, Trade, Rockville, and Weaver succumbed to the fast, smooth-working Maroons. Al Puadziunas, who played well all season, was the hero of the Hartford High game. With B. H. S. trailing in the final seconds of the fourth quarter, Al evaded his guard to toss in two quick hoops and give Bulkeley a 25-24 win. In the second Weaver game, the Green and White squad was trounced to the tune of 54-32. For the third time during the season, Joe Noce went on a scoring spree, swishing the cords for twenty-one points. A revamped West Haven quintet proved superior to our team in the return game. The downstaters gained revenge for an early season defeat by trouncing Bulkeley, 34-26. In the last game of the regular season, West Hartford was taken into camp by a 37-28 score.

"Babe" Allen took the squad down to New Haven for the state Class A basketball tournament but the team was eliminated in the first round by a classy Naugatuck team, which was defeated only by Manchester in the semi-finals of the tournament.

BASEBALL

Because of the return of many veterans, the 1938 baseball season appeared brilliant for Bulkeley. In the first inter-scholastic game, "Red" Wilkos pitched Bulkeley to a 6 to 5 victory over Hall High. Trade was defeated 5 to 4 with "Red" Hannon on the mound, and "Nonnie" Zazzaro's hitting was the feature.

Among the veterans who returned this year were Steve Lynch, John Miller, both chosen on last year's "all-city" team, Bill Milewski, Ed Bachand, Al Puadziunas, Ernie Goodrich, and "Red" Wilkos. New standouts were Joe Petrizzo, Gordon Guy, "Red" Hannon, and the brilliant "Nonnie" Zazzaro.

The team took the lead for the city title by defeating Weaver by a score of 7-5. Then New Britain landed the team its second set-back, 4-1, at New Britain. But this did not stop our boys, for they outslugged Hartford High 8-5, and then defeated Trade for the second time by a score of 7-5. Once more the boys defeated Hartford High 4-1, in a well-played game. This victory brought the city title to Bulkeley for the second consecutive year. Next West Hartford handed the team a surprise defeat 7-5. And so, as we go to press, we find the team with the following record: Won 6—Lost 3—Won the city championship. Two left to play.

TENNIS TEAM

Tennis, at Bulkeley, serves a two-fold purpose: first, to promote a greater interest in the game among the students, and, secondly, for inter-scholastic competition.

Mr. Williams took over the task of faculty adviser of the team this season, relieving Mr. Weaver, and did a mighty good job of it.

The team was slow in getting started this year as only one letter-man, "Sonny" O'Neil, returned from last year's team. The Maroon and White racqueteers, however, had a fairly good season, with "Sonny" O'Neil, Jim Scott, Otto Staehr, Phil Moreau, and Manager "Bud" Williams doing their best to uphold the high standards of Bulkeley.

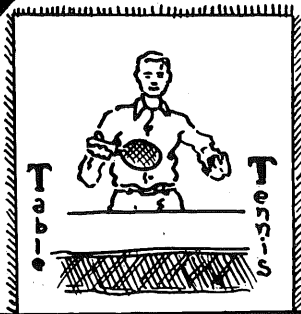

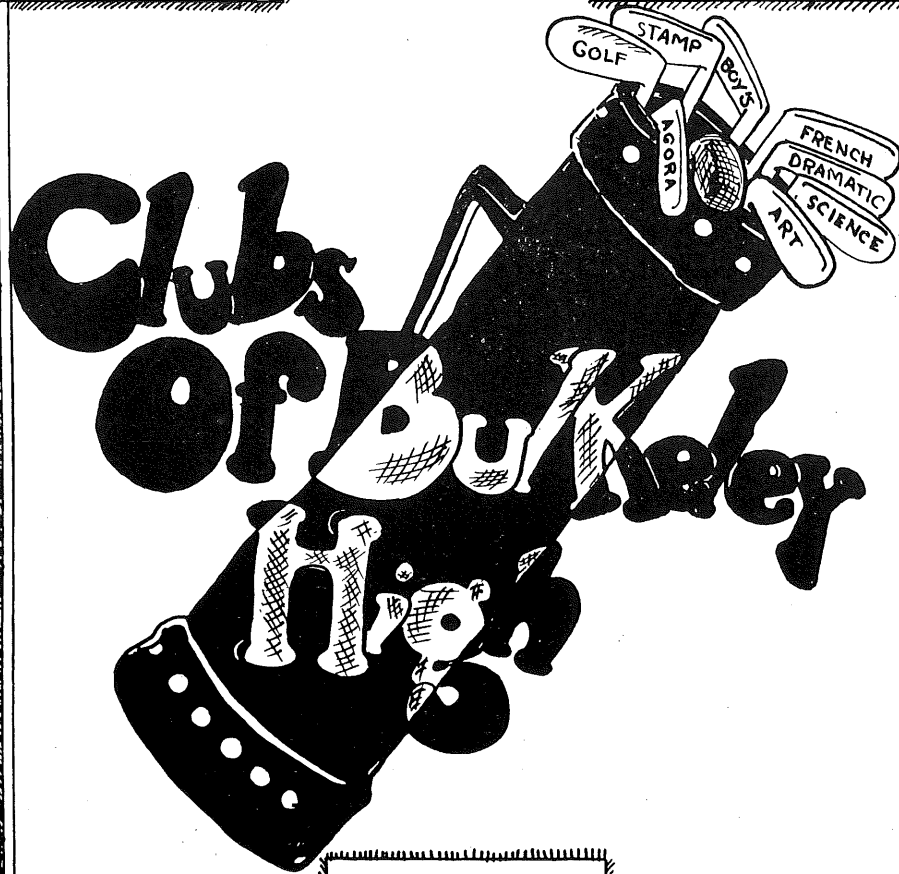

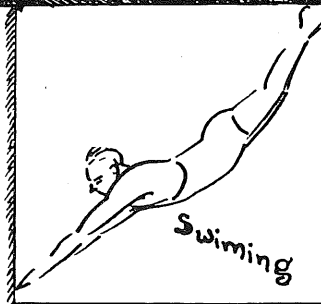

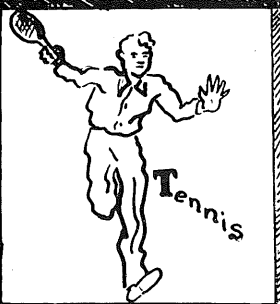

TRACK TEAM

Prospects for the 1938 track team are very good. The lettermen who are back to bolster Coach Daly's team are Capt. Ed McCormick, quarter miler; Richie Sutherland, dash man; Bill Cotter, javelin thrower; Bill Quinn, shot putter, and Rocco Fiorino, pole vaulter. Al Stevens, miler, is absent from the team and is unable to run this season. Two others who are returning are Sam Tolisano, who just failed to make his letter in the mile last season, and also Dominic Scandura, who was out with internal injuries last season. Bill Saillant is expected to give Bill Cotter much competition in the javelin throw. Johnny Long is performing capably in the quarter-mile and John Mahon looks very promising in many different events. Other seniors who show much promise are Eddie Ward, Stan Straite, John Scully, Gould Warner, Maurice Guillet, Owen Billings, Leo Czarnota, Christy Discenza, John Bogan, Bradford Luther, and Roland Gero. A good season is expected.

Results of the meets to date are as follows:

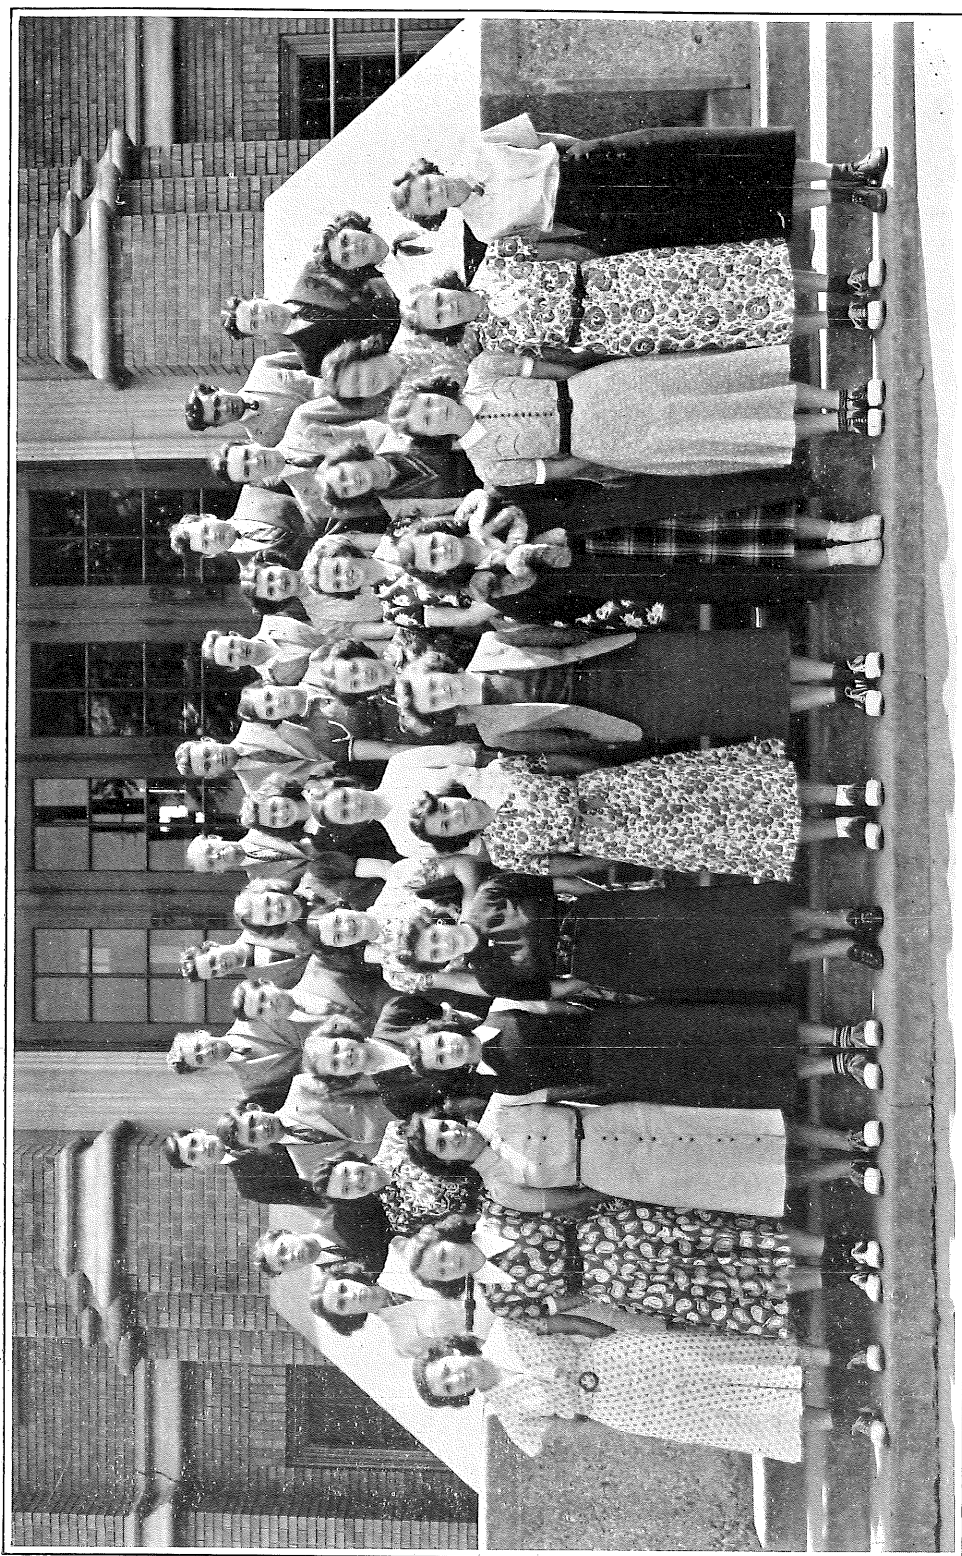

Bulkeley.....	53 $\frac{1}{3}$	East Hartford.....	50 $\frac{2}{3}$

HONOR SOCIETY—SENIOR MEMBERS

HONOR SOCIETY—JUNIOR MEMBERS

HONOR SOCIETY

The Bulkeley Chapter of the National Honor Society was chartered in January, 1927. Its purpose is to promote leadership, to encourage scholarship, to arouse the desire to perform worthy service, and to stimulate the development of character in the pupils of Bulkeley. The members represent the upper third of their class. Elections are made in the junior and senior years. Corridor proctoring was continued this year.

President—Mary Meaney

Secretary—Florence Sandberg

Vice-President—Morris Steinberg

Treasurer—Barbara Newell

Faculty Adviser—Dr. Feingold

GIRLS' LEAGUE

The Girls' League aims to promote a stronger spirit of friendship among the girls, honesty in word and deed, and loyalty to the school. By adhering to the League's ideals—usefulness of living, joyousness of giving, naturalness of being, orderliness in thinking, and readiness in serving—each member will create a strong character. The honor, service, and loyalty of its members have helped to build up and maintain a high standard for the Girls' League.

Vice-President (Second Semester)—Rita Stedman

Secretary—Helen Rundbaken

Treasurer—Marjorie Robinson

Faculty Adviser—Miss Hodge

GIRLS' BIOLOGY CLUB

THE STUDENT COUNCIL

The Student Council is composed of thirty-two members, eight from each class. The club meets once a month to discuss the manner in which improvements in the school can be attained. This year the Student Council together with the Girls' League placed hosts and hostesses at the cafeteria tables. The club also assisted in proctor duty in the corridors. The social affairs of the Student Council included its annual dance, a school wide movie and dance, and sports night.

THE LITERARY CLUB

GIRLS' LEADERS CORPS

The Girls' Leaders, one of the most popular organizations at Bulkeley High, tries to create leaders among the girls in the school. Membership is based on leadership, scholarship, and sociability. In the early fall and spring the gymnastic classes are divided into groups under the direction of the Leaders. The club has both athletic and social activities. Golf, tennis, ping-pong, and bowling have been among this year's activities. The club has this year also conducted successfully a semi-formal dance which has proved to be very popular. The officers for the past semester have been:

OFFICERS

President—Barbara Newell Secretary—Dorothy O'Connor
Vice-President—Jane Hollings Treasurer—Helen Waterhouse
Faculty Adviser—Miss Helen Tracy

SENIOR DRAMATIC CLUB

The purpose of the Senior Dramatic Club is to present worthwhile and entertaining plays to the student body at a reasonable cost, and the provision of a medium for our more talented students to display their dramatic ability. This year the club presented "Nellie Was a Lady", a comedy, and "On the Bridge at Midnight", an old-fashioned melodrama.

THE DIAL

The Bulkeley Dial this year started the custom of issuing four numbers instead of three each semester. Several of last year's departments, such as "Theme of the Month", were continued, and many new features, among them the "Dial Quizzes", were started. The usual high standard of literary work was upheld by the contributions of the students. The last issue of the semester was featured as a Junior Class Book, and contained candid camera pictures and literary work by members of the senior class.
